CONCRETE PRODUCTS AWARD

ORDER BY CONSENT-

No. 2 of 1998

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

The CONCRETE PRODUCTS AWARD is amended in the following manner:

By deleting Clause 25 - Meal Intervals and Allowances, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"25. MEAL INTERVALS AND ALLOWANCES

- (a) Employees other than shift workers shall be entitled to a meal break of not less than 30 minutes and not more than one hour to be taken not later than five hours after the commencement of work for the day.

PROVIDED that where ordinary hours of work on any specified day do not exceed six hours, those hours may be worked without a meal break by agreement of the majority of employees and the employer concerned.

- (b) An employee required to work beyond his usual meal time shall be paid at the rate of time and one half until he is allowed his meal break.
- (c) An employee required to work overtime for more than two hours without being notified on the previous day or earlier that he will be required to work shall either be supplied with a meal by the employer or paid $9.80 for the first meal and after each further four hours worked an employee shall be paid $9.80 for a meal. If an employee pursuant to notice has provided a meal or meals and is not required to work overtime or is required to work less than the amount advised, he shall be paid as above prescribed for meals which he has provided but which are surplus.
- (d) An employee who is required to work for more than two hours beyond his normal ceasing time in any day shall be allowed a break of 20 minutes at going rates before overtime work is commenced. After each further four hours worked an employee shall be entitled to a crib time of 20 minutes without deduction of pay, if the employee continues working after such crib time.

The employer and employee may agree to any variation of these provisions to suit the circumstances of the work in hand.

PROVIDED that the employer shall not be required to make any payment in respect of any time allowed in excess of 20 minutes."

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

OPERATIVE DATE

This variation shall come into operation from the first full pay period to commence on or after 31 August 1998.
