DAIRY PROCESSING AWARD

ORDER BY CONSENT

No. 3 of 2000

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

THE DAIRY PROCESSING AWARD IS VARIED IN THE FOLLOWING MANNER:

By deleting Clause 19 - OVERTIME, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

19. OVERTIME

- (a) In recognition of the perishable nature of the product, and the need to supply product on a daily basis, an employee may be required to work overtime at the direction of the employer, however legitimate and pressing reasons for declining overtime shall be considered by the company.

Employees required to work outside the ordinary hours of work prescribed in Clause 15 (Hours of Work) shall except on a public holiday be paid as follows:

Day workers, including casual employees

- (i) Time worked in excess of ordinary hours Monday to Friday shall be paid at the rate of time and one half for the first two hours and double time thereafter.
- (ii) Time worked on a Saturday shall be paid at the rate of time and one half for the first two hours and double time thereafter.
- (iii) All time worked on a Sunday shall be paid at the rate of double time.
- (iv) In the case of casual employees the penalty rates for overtime shall absorb the plus 20% loading.

Cyclic roster workers

- (v) Time worked in excess of ordinary hours Monday to Friday shall be paid at the rate of time and one half for the first two hours and double time thereafter.
 - (vi) Time worked in excess of ordinary hours Saturday shall be paid at the rate of double time.
 - (vii) All time worked on a Sunday shall be paid at the rate of double time.
- (b) Wherever practicable an employer shall give an employee notice of the requirement to work overtime on the day prior to such overtime being required.
- (c) Call Outs

Employees who are recalled to the employer's premises to work time outside of their ordinary hours shall work as directed and shall be allowed a minimum of four hours pay at the appropriate rate. Where the actual time worked on each such recall is less than four hours, overtime worked in the circumstances specified in this subclause shall not be regarded as overtime for the purposes of subclause (c) of this clause.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(d) Rest Periods

When overtime work, including overtime work on a Saturday and Sunday or public holiday is necessary, it shall, whenever practicable, be so arranged that employees have at least eight consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days.

If on the instruction of the employer such an employee resumes or continues work without having eight consecutive hours off duty the employee will be paid at double time rates until released from duty for such period and will be entitled to be absent for eight consecutive hours of duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

- (e) By agreement between the employer and an employee time off at the penalty equivalent may be allowed in lieu of payment for overtime worked provided that such time off shall be paid at the ordinary rate, and that the time off is taken at a mutually agreed time within a two week period.
- (f) An employee who is required to work overtime for one and a half hours or more without being notified the previous day shall either be supplied with a meal by the employer or be paid a meal allowance of $10.40.
- (g) An employee rostered to commence work one and one half hours or more prior to the commencement of the span of hours, i.e. 6.00am shall be provided breakfast by the employer. The meal provided for by this subclause may be substituted by the payment of a meal allowance of $10.40 in lieu thereof."

OPERATIVE DATE

This variation shall come into operation from the first full pay period to commence on or after 23 November 2000.

P C Shelley
