Criteria for Extension of term in Level 1 beyond three months

An employee who enters the industry and is unable to meet the competency requirements of Level 2 will remain at Level 1 for a maximum of three months unless an extension for up to a further three months is agreed by the employer and the employee. Extension of the term of Level 1 beyond three months will only be considered when:

- the employee has participated in a structured and documented skills development program which sets out and covers the standards of competence the Level 1 worker is required to achieve for progression to Level 2 (a);
- any deficiencies in the performance of the employee during the skills development program have been described clearly to the employee at the time they have occurred and standards for acceptable performance have been made clear to the employee;
- suitable conditions have been provided for training including sufficient time, appropriate environment and equipment and a skilled trainer; and
- given the above the employee has not reached the standards of competence set down in the skills development program.

Process for Extension of the Term in Level 1 Beyond Three Months

Where an employer proposes that the term an employee will spend in Level 1 should be extended beyond three months the following actions will be taken at least three weeks before the expiration of the initial three months:

- the employee will be advised in writing. This advice will set out clearly the areas where the employee has not reached the competence standards required for progression to Level 2 (a) and are set out in the skills development program;
- subsequent to the advice of intention to extend the period in Level 1 beyond three months being issued a meeting will be held between the employer and the employee, and if the employee so wishes, a representative of the employee of his/her choosing. At this meeting the parties will develop and agree on a plan (including time frames) to assist the employee to develop competence to the required standard in the areas identified as deficient and agreed with the employee. This plan will be documented and signed by all parties present.
- The employee will be notified immediately by the employer if any further problems arise during this extension period.

SUPPORTED WAGE SYSTEM

(a) Eligibility Criteria

Subject to this subclause an employer may engage employees at a supported wage rate (as set out in paragraph (c) of this subclause) who meet the impairment criteria for receipt of a Disability Support Pension and who, because of their disability, are unable to perform the range of duties to the competence level normally required for the class of work for which they are engaged.

PROVIDED that this subclause does not apply to any existing employee who has a claim against the employer which is subject to the provisions of workers' compensation legislation or any provision of this award relating to the rehabilitation of employees who are injured in the course of their current employment.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that this subclause does not apply to employers in respect of their facility, programme, undertaking, service or the like which receives funding under the Disability Services Act 1986 and fulfils the dual role of service provider and sheltered employer to people with disabilities who are in receipt of or are eligible for a disability support pension, except with respect to an organisation which has received recognition under Section 10 or under Section 12A of the above Act, or if a part only has received recognition, that part.

(b) For the purposes of this subclause:

'Supported Wage System' means the Commonwealth Government System to promote employment for people who cannot work at full award wages because of a disability.

'Accredited Assessor' means a person accredited by the management unit established by the Commonwealth under the Supported Wage System to perform assessments of an individual's productive capacity within the Supported Wage System.

'Disability Support Pension' means the pension available under the Commonwealth pension scheme to provide income security for persons with a disability as provided under the Social Security Act 1991, as amended from time to time, or any successor to that scheme.

'Assessment instrument' means the form provided for under the Supported Wage System that records the assessment of the productive capacity of the person to be employed under the Supported Wage System.

(c) Supported Wage Rates

Employees to whom this subclause applies shall be paid the applicable percentage of the minimum rate of pay prescribed by this award for the class of work which the person is performing according to the following schedule:

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

Assessed Capacity (paragraph (d))	% of Prescribed Award Rate
10%	10%
20%	20%
30%	30%
40%	40%
50%	50%
60%	60%
70%	70%
80%	80%
90%	90%

PROVIDED that the minimum amount payable shall be not less than $45 per week.

(d) Assessment of Capacity

For the purpose of establishing the percentage of the award rate to be paid to a supported wage employee under this award, the productive capacity of the employee will be assessed in accordance with the Supported Wage System and documented in an assessment instrument by either:

- (i) the employer and a union party to the award, in consultation with the employee or, if desired by any of these;
- (ii) the employer and an accredited Assessor from a panel agreed by the parties to the award and the employee.

(e) Lodgment of Assessment Instrument

- (i) All assessment instruments under the conditions of this subclause, including the appropriate percentage of the award wage to be paid to the employee, shall be lodged by the employer with the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission.
- (ii) All assessment instruments shall be agreed and signed by the parties to the assessment, provided that where a union which is party to the award, is not a party to the assessment, it shall be referred by the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission to the union by certified mail and shall take effect unless an objection is notified to the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission within 10 working days.

(f) Review of Assessment

The assessment of the applicable percentage shall be subject to annual review or earlier on the basis of a reasonable request for such a review. The process of review shall be in accordance with the procedures for assessing capacity under the Supported Wage System.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(g) Other Terms and Conditions of Employment

Where an assessment has been made, the applicable percentage shall apply to the wage rate only. Employees covered by the supported wage provisions of this subclause shall be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as all other workers covered by this award who are paid on a pro rata basis.

(h) Workplace Adjustment

An employer wishing to employ a person under the provisions of this subclause shall take reasonable steps to make changes in the workplace to enhance the employee's capacity to do the job. Changes may involve re-design of job duties, working time arrangements and work organisation in consultation with other workers in the area.

(i) Trial Period

- (i) In order for an adequate assessment of the employee's capacity to be made, an employer may employ a person under the provisions of this subclause for a trial period not exceeding 12 weeks, except that in some cases additional work adjustment time (not exceeding four weeks) may be needed.
- (ii) During that trial period the assessment of capacity shall be undertaken and the proposed wage rate for a continuing employment relationship shall be determined in accordance with paragraphs (d) and (e).
- (iii) The minimum amount payable to the employee during the trial period shall be no less than $45 per week or such greater amount as is agreed from time to time between the parties.
- (iv) Work trials should include induction or training as appropriate to the job being trialed.
- (v) Where the employer and employee wish to establish a continuing employment relationship following the completion of the trial period, a further contract of employment shall be entered into based on the outcome of assessment under paragraph (c) hereof.

9. BOARD AND LODGING

The amount that may be deducted from the wages herein prescribed for board and lodging shall be up to a maximum of $28.20 per week per adult.

The rate prescribed herein shall only be increased directly in line with the level of any general wage increase applied to the classification as set out in Clause 8 - Wage Rates.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

10. CASUAL EMPLOYEES (AS DEFINED)

A casual employee (as defined) for working ordinary time shall be paid per hour one thirty-eighth of the weekly rates prescribed for the work which the employee performs. In addition thereto a casual employee shall be paid a loading of 20 per cent of the ordinary hourly rate in respect of each hour for which the employee is paid. Such additional amount to be payment in lieu of annual leave, sick leave and holidays with pay.

PROVIDED that a casual employee's terms of engagement shall be by the hour with a minimum payment of two hours on each occasion the employee is required to attend for work, however where work practices are such that it is inappropriate to apply the conditions stipulated by this provision, such conditions may be varied by mutual agreement between the employees, the relevant employee organisation and the employer.

11. CONSULTATIVE PROCESS

- (a) The parties to this award are committed to co-operating positively to increase the efficiency, productivity and competitiveness of the industries and those establishments covered by Clause 2 - Scope, and to enhance the career opportunities and job security of employees in these industries and establishments.
- (b) At each enterprise or establishment, the employer, the employees and the relevant union or unions, shall establish a consultative mechanism and procedures appropriate to the size, structure and needs of that enterprise or establishment. Measures raised by the employer, employees or union or unions for consideration consistent with the objectives of subclause (a) of this clause shall be processed through that consultative mechanism and procedures.

12. DISPUTES AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Subject to the provisions of the Tasmanian Industrial Relations Act 1984, any dispute or claim arising out of or relating to this award shall be dealt with in the following manner:

- (a) The matter shall first be discussed between the employee and his/her immediate supervisor.
- (b) If not settled the matter shall be discussed between the employee's delegate and immediate supervisor and the manager.
- (c) If not settled the matter shall be referred to the Branch Secretary of the union for discussion between the appropriate union representatives and management representative.
- (d) If the matter is not settled it shall be submitted to the Tasmanian Industrial Commission for determination.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (e) While the above procedure is followed, industrial action will be avoided and the "status quo" in existence prior to the dispute shall be maintained.

13. DRESSING ROOMS, ETC.

Provision of dressing rooms, luncheon rooms and conveniences shall be provided in accordance with the requirements of the Industrial Safety Health and Welfare Act 1977 and the Industrial Safety, Health and Welfare (Administration and General) Regulations 1979.

14. ENTERPRISE FLEXIBILITY

- (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in this award, but subject to the provisions of this clause, an agreement may be negotiated between the parties.
- (b) The agreement shall be subject to the following requirements:
 - (i) The majority of employees affected by the change must genuinely agree to the change.
 - (ii) The agreement taken as a whole shall not confer a lesser benefit to any employee than is available under the award.
 - (iii) The relevant union or unions shall be advised by the employer of his or her intention to commence discussions with employees on an agreement under this clause.
 - (iv) The relevant union or unions must be a party to the agreement.
- (c) Any Enterprise Agreement shall be signed by the parties being the employer and the union or unions, and contain the following:
 - (i) the term of the agreement;
 - (ii) the parties covered by the agreement;
 - (iii) the classes of employees covered by the agreement;
 - (iv) the means by which a party may retire from the agreement;
 - (v) the means by which the agreement may be varied;
 - (vi) where appropriate, the means by which disputes arising in respect to the agreement may be resolved.
- (d) The agreement shall be referred to the Tasmanian Industrial Commission.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

15. EXEMPTIONS

Clients (as defined) are excluded from the provisions of this award.

16. FIRST AID

- (a) The employer shall supply and maintain a first aid outfit at each work-place as prescribed by the provisions of the Industrial Safety Health and Welfare Act 1977 and the Industrial Safety, Health and Welfare (Administration and General) Regulations 1979.
- (b) In establishments where an employer has appointed an employee who holds a certificate issued by St John Ambulance or some other similar body as a First Aid Attendant an additional $7.20 per week for each week in which three days or more have been worked shall be paid to such employee and such amount shall be payable in addition to any amounts paid for annual leave, sick leave and holidays with pay provided that this allowance shall not be subject to any premium or penalty additions.

PROVIDED that nothing in this subclause shall be taken as meaning an employer shall be required to make such an appointment.

17. HOLIDAYS WITH PAY

- (a) All employees (other than casuals) and part-time employees (as defined) engaged to work less than 20 hours per week shall be allowed the following days as holidays with pay:

New Years Day, Australia Day, Hobart Regatta Day (south of Oatlands), Labour Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Show Day (as defined), Recreation Day (where Hobart Regatta Day is not observed), Christmas Day and Boxing Day.
- (b) Payment for holidays with pay mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause which are taken and not worked, shall be at the normal rate of pay which would have applied to the employee concerned, when, if it were not for such holiday he/she had been at work.
- (c) Where a holiday with pay occurs on a rostered day off (as defined), an employee shall be entitled to a day in lieu to be taken by mutual agreement.
- (d) Subject to subclause (c) of this clause, an employee required to work on any of the holidays with pay mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause, shall be paid an additional fifty per cent and granted a day in lieu to be taken by mutual agreement, or paid at the rate of double time and a half.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (e) Subject to agreement being reached between the employer and employee/s concerned, time off may be allowed in lieu of payment of penalties. The amount of time off shall be calculated on the basis of the appropriate penalty rate prescribed elsewhere in this clause. Further, subject to agreement being reached between the employer and the employee/s concerned, any of the holidays with pay mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause may be worked at ordinary time and another working day substituted for the holiday with pay concerned.

PROVIDED that such agreement shall be subject to the employee having opportunity to consult with the relevant union and the agreement shall be recorded in writing.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that such agreement may be discontinued by mutual consent of both parties or at the request of one such party.

- (f) Non-clerical employees who are classified in supervisory positions working in residential homes who are required to work on any of the holidays mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause, shall be entitled to an ordinary working day in lieu of such holiday to be given and taken by mutual consent.

18. HOURS

A. EMPLOYEES OTHER THAN THOSE ENGAGED TO WORK IN RESIDENTIAL HOMES FOR INTELLECTUALLY, PHYSICALLY, PSYCHIATRIC AND/OR SENSORY DISABLED PERSONS

- (a) Subject to the following arrangements, the ordinary hours of work per week in respect for which rates of wages are fixed by this award, shall not exceed an average of 38 per week.

Employees engaged in accordance with Clause 18 - Hours, subclause H - Shift Work, Shift Allowances and Rosters, may work ordinary hours on any day of the week. For all other employees ordinary hours shall be determined between 6.00am and 7.00pm, Monday to Friday and subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subclause.

In all cases the ordinary hours of work shall be worked subject to one of the following arrangements:

- (i) by employees working less than eight ordinary hours each day; or
- (ii) by employees working less than eight ordinary hours on one or more days each week; or
- (iii) by fixing one day or days in which all employees will be off during a particular work cycle; or
- (iv) by rostering employees off on various days of the work cycle so that each employee has one day off or part of a day or days off during that cycle; or

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (v) by accruing an entitlement to rostered days off (as defined) to a maximum of 12 days and thereby averaging 38 hours over a particular work cycle not exceeding 12 months.
- (b) In establishing the spread of hours in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subclause, the employer shall nominate any spread of hours of no more than 11 hours between 6.00am and 7.00pm, Monday to Friday inclusive.

The spread of hours so nominated, in the absence of agreement between the employer and the majority of employees concerned, shall not be amended unless the employer gives four weeks notice of such change, to the employees concerned.

- (c) Circumstances may arise where different arrangements of the 38-hour week apply to various groups or sections of employees in the establishment concerned.
- (d) In adopting or changing the arrangements of the 38-hour week an assessment should be made as to which method of implementation best suits the business and the proposal shall be discussed with the employees concerned, the objective being to reach agreement.

In the absence of such agreement the provisions of Clause 12 - Disputes and Grievance Procedure shall be applied without delay.

- (e) In reaching agreements in accordance with paragraph (c) of this subclause there should be an objective review of current work practices to establish where improvement can be made and implemented. These reviews shall be ongoing.
- (f) Where the arrangements of the 38-hour week provides for a day off in a particular work cycle the following shall apply:
 - (i) Such days off may be taken as mutually agreed between the employer and the employee concerned.
 - (ii) An employee shall not be entitled to more than twelve rostered days off (as defined) in any 12 month period.
 - (iii) The day may be worked as an ordinary working day without penalty if substituted by another day by agreement between the employer and the employee concerned, or where a number of employees are concerned by agreement between the employer and the majority of the employees concerned.
- (g) The spread of hours or prescribed number of hours per day may be altered for all or a section of employees concerned by mutual agreement between the employer and employee/s in the area concerned and the union.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

B. EMPLOYEES ENGAGED IN RESIDENTIAL HOMES FOR INTELLECTUALLY, PHYSICALLY, PSYCHIATRIC AND/OR SENSORY DISABLED PERSONS

- (a) Subject to the provisions of Clause 18 - Hours - subclause H - Shift Work, Shift Allowances and Rosters, a disability service worker shall work a maximum of 190 hours in each five weekly period and in the case of other employees the ordinary hours of work shall be an average of 38 hours per week subject to one of the following arrangements:
- (i) by employees working less than eight ordinary hours each day; or
 - (ii) by employees working less than eight ordinary hours on one or more days each week; or
 - (iii) by fixing one day in which all employees will be off during a particular work cycle; or
 - (iv) by rostering employees off on various days of the week during a particular work cycle so that each employee has one day off during that cycle; or
 - (v) by accruing an entitlement to rostered days off (as defined) to a maximum of 12 days and thereby averaging 38 hours over a period not exceeding 12 months.
- (b) Circumstances may arise where different arrangements of a 38-hour week apply to various groups or sections of employees in the establishment concerned.
- (c) In adopting or changing the arrangements of the 38-hour week an assessment should be made as to which method of implementation best suits the business and the proposal shall be discussed with the employees concerned, the objective being to reach agreement.

In the absence of such agreement the provisions of Clause 12 - Disputes and Grievance Procedure shall be applied without delay.

- (d) In reaching agreements in accordance with paragraph (c) of this subclause there should be an objective review of current work practices to establish where improvement can be made and implemented. These reviews shall be ongoing.
- (e) Where the arrangements of the 38-hour week provides for a day off in a particular work cycle the following shall apply:
- (i) Such days off may be taken as mutually agreed between the employer and the employee concerned.
 - (ii) An employee shall not be entitled to more than twelve rostered days off (as defined) in any 12 month period.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (iii) The day may be worked as an ordinary working day without penalty if substituted by another day by agreement between the employer and the employee concerned, or where a number of employees are concerned by agreement between the employer and the majority of the employees concerned.

C. OVERTIME

- (a) An employee required to work before the time fixed for commencing work or after the time fixed for ceasing work or in excess of the ordinary hours of work prescribed by Clause 18 - Hours, subclause A or B, shall be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter.
- (b) An employee required to work overtime on a Sunday, shall be paid at the rate of double time.
- (c) Overtime shall not be payable unless the period of time worked in excess of the ordinary hours exceeds 15 minutes on any day and the overtime is worked at the direction of the employer.
- (d) In computing overtime each days work shall stand alone and the rate of pay shall be determined by dividing the weekly rate of pay by 38.
- (e) Subject to agreement being reached between the employer and the employee concerned, time off may be allowed in lieu of payment for overtime worked. The amount of time off shall be calculated on the basis of the appropriate overtime rate.

PROVIDED that such agreement shall be subject to the employee having opportunity to consult with the relevant union and the agreement shall be recorded in writing.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that such agreement may be discontinued by mutual consent of both parties or at the request of one such party.

D. REST PERIOD

Employees shall be allowed a rest period of five minutes duration to be taken during the first four hours of their shift and a rest period of 10 minutes to be taken during the second four hours of their shift.

PROVIDED that when pressing circumstances arise the rest period prescribed by this subclause may be taken at any time and in any combination subject to agreement being reached to do so between the employer and the employee/s concerned.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

E. ROSTERED DAYS OFF (AS DEFINED)

- (a) Each employee shall be allowed at least two full days off in each week other than Rostered Days Off (as defined) arising out of Clause 18 - Hours, subclause A or B. The days off shall operate from the finishing time of work on the day immediately preceding the days off and until starting time on the day when work is to be resumed.
- (b) The days off shall be rostered and shall not be altered except by mutual agreement between the employer and employee.
- (c) Any employee who is required to work on his/her rostered days off (as defined) shall be allowed another day in lieu of the one worked.
- (d) The days off provided for herein shall be at the rate of 38 hours per week and by agreement may be cumulative, but not to exceed four days off successively.

F. SATURDAY AND SUNDAY WORK

- (a) Subject to Clause 18 - Hours, subclause H - Shift Work, Shift Allowances and Rosters, for all ordinary hours worked on a Saturday or Sunday the following payment shall apply:
 - (i) Saturday at time and one half;
 - (ii) Sunday at double time.
- (b) The above rates shall be in substitution for, and not cumulative upon the shift allowances set out in Clause 18 - Hours, subclause H - Shift Work, Shift Allowances and Rosters.
- (c) Where overtime is worked on a Saturday or Sunday and subject to agreement being reached between the employer and employee/s concerned, time off may be allowed in lieu of payment of payment for overtime worked. The amount of time off shall be calculated on the basis of the appropriate penalty prescribed in Clause 18 - Hours, subclause C - Overtime.

PROVIDED that such agreements shall be recorded in writing and may be discontinued by mutual consent of both parties or at the reasonable request of one party.

G. SCHEDULED DAYS OFF

- (a) Each employee shall be allowed at least two full days off in each week other than rostered days off (as defined) arising out of Clause 18 - Hours, subclause A or B. The days off shall operate from the finishing time of work on the day immediately preceding the days off and until the starting time on the day when work is to resume.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (b) Scheduled days off shall be programmed and shall not be altered except by mutual agreement between the employer and the employee.
- (c) An employee required to work on his/her scheduled days off shall by agreement be allowed another day(s) off in lieu of overtime payment.
- (d) The days off provided herein shall be at the rate of 48 hours per week and by agreement may be cumulative, but not to exceed four days successively.
- (e) Employees engaged in non-clerical supervisory classifications who work in Residential Homes, shall be exempt from the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (d) of this subclause but shall be allowed 10 full scheduled days off in each five weekly period in addition to any rostered days off (as defined) that may accrue in accordance with Clause 18 - Hours, subclause A or B.

H. SHIFT WORK, SHIFT ALLOWANCES AND ROSTERS

(a) Shift Premiums

An employee whilst on afternoon or night shift (as defined) shall be paid 15 per cent more than the ordinary rate.

(b) Broken Shifts (as defined)

(i) Restrictions

A broken shift (as defined) shall not be worked outside the hours of 6.00am and 10.00pm and the break between the two shifts shall not exceed four hours or such period as agreed to by the employer, employee and representative of the appropriate union.

(ii) Excess Fares

An employee working a broken shift (as defined) shall be paid an excess fares allowance of $2.50.

(c) Shift Rosters-Rotating

(i) Rotating rosters shall provide that a shift worker regularly rotates between day, afternoon and night work or any two combinations of them subject to the following requirements:

- (1) an employee shall not be required to work on night shift (as defined) for more than four weeks; and
- (2) an employee shall not be required to work more than two thirds of their working time on night shifts (as defined); and

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (3) otherwise than by agreement being reached between the employer and the majority of employees concerned, the daily hours of afternoon or night shifts (as defined) allocated to each employee at any one time, shall continue for at least five successive afternoons or nights.
 - (ii) A rotating roster of shift work shall apply unless:
 - (1) the employer and the majority of employees concerned otherwise agree;
 - (2) the employer directs the employee/s concerned to work in accordance with a non-rotating shift roster.
 - (iii) Where the employer and the majority of employees concerned have agreed to work a non-rotating shift roster such arrangement shall continue unless the employer and the majority of employees concerned otherwise agree.
- (d) Shift Rosters-General
 - (i) A shift roster established in accordance with this subclause shall be documented setting out clearly the names of the rostered employees and the days, dates and hours during which each employee is required to attend for duty.
 - (ii) A shift roster, rotating or otherwise, shall:
 - (1) not require an employee to work more than eight hours, other than overtime, each day unless agreement is otherwise reached in accordance with Clause 18 - Hours, subclause A or B;
 - (2) provide for a system of scheduled days off in accordance with Clause 18 - Hours, subclause F - Scheduled Days Off;
 - (3) shall not be implemented or changed until after the expiration of four weeks notice or in the case of an individual employee after the expiration of one weeks notice of such change or the payment of one weeks pay in lieu of notice in accordance with the employees previous roster (as defined).

PROVIDED that such notice or payment in lieu of notice shall not apply in an emergency situation where agreement is reached between the employer and employee concerned.
 - (4) An employee who is working in accordance with a rotating shift roster, and unless otherwise agreed between the employer and employee concerned, is directed by the employer to work on a non-rotating shift roster, such employee shall be paid 30 per cent more than the ordinary rate for the whole period so worked. The payment of this premium shall be in substitution and not cumulative upon premiums prescribed elsewhere in this clause.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

19. INCREMENTAL PROGRESSION

Employees will progress through the increments within each level in accordance with the following:

- (a) The anniversary date of an employee's commencement or previous progression, as the case may be, shall be observed.
- (b) Progression shall be dependent upon the satisfactory completion of 1976 hours or two years, whichever is the lesser, of diligent service at the relevant classification level with the employer, or
- (c) The successful completion of the relevant accredited training modules.
- (d) New employees who can verify previous comparable experience consistent with subclause (b) of this clause which was gained with another employer engaged in the Disability Service Industry shall have such experience taken into account in determining the appropriate incremental level which that person is entitled to occupy.

20. LEAVE

A. ANNUAL LEAVE

- (a) A period of 28 consecutive days leave shall be allowed annually to an employee (other than casual or part-time employees (as defined) engaged to work less than 20 hours per week) after 12 months' continuous service in the service of the same employer (less the period of annual leave).

- (b) Broken Leave

Leave allowed under the provisions of this subclause shall be given and taken in one consecutive period, or if the employer and employee so agree, in two separate periods, the lesser of which shall not be less than seven consecutive days, in any case leave shall be taken before a further accrual of leave occurs.

- (c) Annual Leave Exclusive of Holidays with Pay

If any of the holidays prescribed in Clause 17 - Holidays with Pay, falls within an employee's period of annual leave, and is observed on a day which in the case of that employee would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to that leave one day for each such holiday as occurring.

- (d) Payment in Lieu Prohibited

Except as provided in subclause (i) payment shall not be made or accepted in lieu of annual leave.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(e) Time of Taking Leave

Except in respect of paragraph (b) - Broken Leave, of this subclause, annual leave shall be given and taken within a period of six months of such leave falling due or where the employer and employee/s concerned agree, within 12 months of such leave falling due.

(f) Payment for Period of Leave

Each employee before going on leave shall be paid the ordinary amount of wages the employee would have received in respect of the ordinary time the employee would have worked had the employee not been on leave during the relevant period. Such payment shall exclude any shift premiums prescribed by Clause 18 - Hours, subclause H - Shift Work, Shift Allowances and Rosters, and shift premiums and penalties prescribed by Clause 18 - Hours, subclause C - Saturday and Sunday Work.

(g) Leave Loading

All employees before proceeding on leave shall be paid a loading of 17½ per cent in addition to their annual leave payment.

PROVIDED that in the case of an employee who would have worked on shift work in accordance with Clause 18 - Hours, subclause H - Shift Work, Shift Allowances and Rosters, had the employee concerned not been on leave and would have been entitled to shift premiums in excess of 17½ per cent then the employee shall be paid the shift premiums in lieu of the 17½ per cent loading.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that leave loading shall not be payable on proportionate leave on termination.

(h) Leave Allowed before Due Date

An employer may allow annual leave to an employee before the right thereto has accrued due but where leave is taken in such a case a further period of annual leave shall not commence to accrue until after the expiration of the 12 months in respect of which annual leave had been taken before it accrued.

Where leave has been granted to an employee pursuant to this subclause before the right thereto has accrued due and the employee subsequently leaves or is discharged from the service of the employer before completing the 12 months' continuous service in respect of which the leave was granted the employer may, for each complete month of the qualifying period of 12 months not served by the employee deduct from whatever remuneration is payable to the employee upon the termination of the employment, one twelfth of the amount of wages paid on account of annual leave, which amount shall not include any sums paid for any of the holidays with pay prescribed by Clause 17 - Holidays with Pay.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(i) Proportionate Leave on Termination of Service

If after one month's continuous service in respect of weekly employees and one week of continuous service in respect of part-time employees in any qualifying period, an employee lawfully leaves his/her employment or the employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the employee, the employee shall be paid the ordinary rate of wages as follows:

- (i) weekly employees - 12 $\frac{2}{3}$ hours for each completed month of continuous service;
- (ii) part-time employees (as defined) - engaged to work more than 20 hours per week - $\frac{1}{12}$ th of a week's wages for each completed week of continuous service, subject to the provisions of paragraph (a)(ii) of this subclause;
- (iii) employees regularly required to work on weekends and holidays with pay - 15 $\frac{5}{6}$ hours for each completed month of continuous service.

(j) Continuity of Service

For the purposes of this subclause, service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding:

- (i) Any interruption or determination of the employment by the employer if such interruption or determination has been made merely with the intention of avoiding obligations hereunder in respect of leave of absence.
- (ii) Any absence from work on account of personal sickness or accident and in calculating the period of twelve months' continuous service, absence on account of personal sickness or accident to the extent of 91 days in any 12 months shall be deemed to be part of the period of continuous service.
- (iii) Any absence with reasonable cause, proof of which shall be upon the employee, or leave lawfully granted by the employer, but such absence shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of 12 months' continuous service.

(k) Close Down

An employer may close down the establishment or a section thereof, for the purpose of allowing leave to employees in the establishment or section or sections concerned in accordance with the following provisions:

- (i) Unless otherwise agreed between the employer and employee/s concerned the employer may, by giving not less than two months notice either close down for one period or for two separate periods.
- (ii) Each employee affected shall be credited leave in accordance with the relevant scale in paragraph (k)(i) - Proportionate Leave on Termination of Service, of this subclause, for which leave has not already been granted.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (iii) Except to the extent that an employee has leave in credit under the provisions of paragraph (k)(ii) of this subclause, at the date of close down, the employee shall be stood down without pay during the period of any close down.

PROVIDED that where an employer has another service not subject to a close down, the employer shall take reasonable steps to give an employee who would originally be stood down without pay under this clause the option of working in that service.

- (iv) All time during which an employee is stood down without pay in a close down period shall, for the purpose of annual leave credits be deemed to be time worked.
- (v) Subject to paragraph (h) - Leave Allowed before Due Date, of this subclause, the next twelve months qualifying period for each employee affected by an annual close down shall commence from the day on which the establishment or section or sections re-open for work.

Subject to paragraph (h) - Leave Allowed before Due Date, of this subclause, employees affected by a second or third close down subject to paragraph (k)(i) of this subclause, the next twelve month qualifying period shall commence from the day on which the establishment or section or sections re-open after the first close down.

- (vi) For establishments that observe a close down at the Christmas/New Year period the relevant date for the application of the provisions of paragraphs (k)(ii), (iv) and (v) of this subclause, shall be 31 December each year.
- (vii) If in the first year of service with an employer an employee is allowed proportionate annual leave under this subclause and subsequently within such year lawfully leaves the employment or the employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the employee, the employee shall be entitled to the benefit of subclause (k)(i) - Proportionate Leave on Termination of Service, of this subclause, subject to adjustment for any proportionate leave which the employee may have been allowed as provided.
- (viii) Unless otherwise agreed between the employer and employees, where a close down is observed during the Christmas/New Year period the leave granted shall be not less than 14 consecutive days, exclusive of holidays with pay, except that where an employee is not entitled to 14 consecutive days leave at such close down, the employee may be granted leave then accrued in accordance with paragraph (k)(iii) of this subclause.

(l) Seven Day Shift Workers

- (i) In addition to leave prescribed in paragraph (a) of this subclause an employee required to work a shift roster wherein the employee works not less than ten Saturdays and ten Sundays during any one leave year, shall be allowed seven consecutive days' leave including non-working days; or

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (ii) Where an employee with twelve months continuous service is engaged for part of the twelve monthly period on a shift roster requiring the employee to work regularly on Saturdays and Sundays, the employee shall be entitled to have the period of annual leave prescribed in paragraph (a) of this subclause, increased by one day for each two months the employee is continuously engaged on a shift roster as contemplated in paragraph (l)(i) of this subclause.

B. COMPASSIONATE LEAVE

An employee shall on the death of a wife, husband, father, mother, child, stepchild, brother, sister, mother-in-law, father-in-law, stepmother, stepfather, grandfather, grandmother, grandchild be entitled upon application being made to, and approved by the employer, to leave up to and including the day of the funeral of such relative and such leave will be without deduction of pay not exceeding the number of ordinary hours worked by the employee in three ordinary days.

PROVIDED that no such payment shall be made in respect of an employee's rostered days off. (as defined) proof of such death, in the form of a death notice or other written evidence, shall be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the employer.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that this clause shall have no operation while the period of entitlement to leave under it coincides with any other period of entitlement to leave.

For the purpose of this subclause the words 'wife' and 'husband' shall not include a wife or husband from whom the employee is separated, but shall include a person who lives with the employee as a de facto wife or husband.

C. PARENTAL LEAVE

Subject to the terms of this subclause employees are entitled to maternity, paternity and adoption leave and to work part-time in connection with the birth or adoption of a child.

PART A - MATERNITY LEAVE

- (a) Nature of Leave

Maternity leave is unpaid leave.

- (b) Definitions

For the purpose of this part:

'Child' means a child of the employee under the age of one year.

'Continuous service' means service under an unbroken contract of employment and includes:

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

'Employee' includes a part-time employee (as defined) but does not include an employee engaged upon casual or seasonal work.

'Paternity leave' means leave of the type provided for in Part B - Paternity Leave.

'Spouse' includes a de facto or a former spouse.

- (i) any period of leave taken in accordance with this clause;
 - (ii) any period of part-time employment worked in accordance with this clause; or
 - (iii) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or by the award.
- (c) Eligibility for Maternity Leave
- (i) An employee who becomes pregnant, upon production to her employer of the certificate required by paragraph (d) of this subclause, shall be entitled to a period of up to 52 weeks maternity leave provided that such leave shall not extend beyond the child's first birthday. This entitlement shall be reduced by any period of paternity leave taken by the employee's spouse in relation to the same child and apart from paternity leave of up to one week at the time of confinement shall not be taken concurrently with paternity leave.
 - (ii) Subject to subclauses (f) and (i) of this subclause the period of maternity leave shall be unbroken and shall, immediately following confinement, include a period of six weeks compulsory leave.
 - (iii) The employee must have had at least 12 months continuous service with that employer immediately preceding the date upon which she proceeds upon such leave.
- (d) Certificate
- At the time specified in paragraph (e) of this subclause the employee must produce to her employer:
- (i) a certificate from a registered medical practitioner stating that she is pregnant and the expected date of confinement;
 - (ii) a statutory declaration stating particulars of any period of paternity leave sought or taken by her spouse and that for the period of maternity leave she will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with her contract of employment.
- (e) Notice Requirements
- (i) An employee shall, not less than ten weeks prior to the presumed date of confinement, produce to her employer the certificate referred to in paragraph (d)(i) of this subclause.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (ii) An employee shall give not less than four weeks notice in writing to her employer of the date upon which she proposes to commence maternity leave stating the period of leave to be taken and shall, at the same time, produce to her employer the statutory declaration referred to in paragraph (d)(ii) of this subclause.
- (iii) An employer by not less than 14 days notice in writing to the employee may require her to commence maternity leave at any time within the six weeks immediately prior to her presumed date of confinement.
- (iv) An employee shall not be in breach of this clause as a consequence of failure to give the stipulated period of notice in accordance with paragraph (e)(ii) of this subclause if such failure is occasioned by the confinement occurring earlier than the presumed date.

(f) Transfer to a Safe Job

Where in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue at her present work, the employee shall, if the employer deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of maternity leave.

If the transfer to a safe job is not practicable, the employee may, or the employer may require the employee to, take leave for such period as is certified necessary by a registered medical practitioner. Such leave shall be treated as maternity leave for the purposes of paragraphs (j), (k), (l) and (m) of this subclause.

(g) Variation of Period of Maternity Leave

- (i) Provided the maximum period of maternity leave does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under paragraph (c) of this subclause:
 - (1) the period of maternity leave may be lengthened once only by the employee giving not less than 14 days' notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be lengthened;
 - (2) the period may be further lengthened by agreement between the employer and the employee.
- (ii) The period of maternity leave may, with the consent of the employer, be shortened by the employee giving not less than 14 days' notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be shortened.

(h) Cancellation of Maternity Leave

- (i) Maternity leave, applied for but not commenced, shall be cancelled when the pregnancy of an employee terminates other than by the birth of a living child.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (ii) Where the pregnancy of an employee then on maternity leave terminates other than by the birth of a living child, it shall be the right of the employee to resume work at a time nominated by the employer which shall not exceed four weeks from the date of notice in writing by the employee to the employer that she desires to resume work.
- (i) Special Maternity Leave and Sick Leave
- (i) Where the pregnancy of an employee not then on maternity leave terminates after 28 weeks other than by the birth of a living child then:
 - (1) she shall be entitled to such period of unpaid leave (to be known as special maternity leave) as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work; or
 - (2) for illness other than the normal consequences of confinement she shall be entitled, either in lieu of or in addition to special maternity leave, to such paid sick leave as to which she is then entitled and which a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work.
 - (ii) Where an employee not then on maternity leave suffers illness related to her pregnancy, she may take such paid sick leave as to which she is then entitled and such further unpaid leave (to be known as special maternity leave) as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work, provided that the aggregate of paid sick leave, special maternity leave and maternity leave shall not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under paragraph (c) of this subclause.
 - (iii) For the purposes of paragraphs (j), (k) and (l) of this subclause, maternity leave shall include special maternity leave.
 - (iv) An employee returning to work after the completion of a period of leave taken pursuant to this subclause shall be entitled to the position which she held immediately before proceeding on such leave or, in the case of an employee who was transferred to a safe job pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subclause, to the position she held immediately before such transfer.

Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available, which the employee is qualified for and the duties of which she is capable of performing, she shall be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of her former position.
- (j) Maternity Leave and Other Leave Entitlements
- (i) Provided the aggregate of any leave including leave taken under this part, does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under paragraph (c) of this subclause, an employee may, in lieu of or in conjunction with maternity leave, take any annual leave or long service leave or any part thereof to which she is entitled.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (ii) Paid sick leave or other paid authorised award absences (excluding annual leave or long service leave), shall not be available to an employee during her absence on maternity leave.

(k) Effect of Maternity Leave on Employment

Subject to this part, notwithstanding any award or other provision to the contrary, absence on maternity leave shall not break the continuity of service of an employee but shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purpose of any relevant award or agreement.

(l) Termination of Employment

- (i) An employee on maternity leave may terminate her employment at any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance with this award.
- (ii) An employer shall not terminate the employment of an employee on the ground of her pregnancy or of her absence on maternity leave, but otherwise the rights of an employer in relation to termination of employment are not hereby affected.

(m) Return to Work After Maternity Leave

- (i) An employee shall confirm her intention of returning to work by notice in writing to the employer giving not less than four weeks prior to the expiration of her period of maternity leave.
- (ii) An employee, upon returning to work after maternity leave or the expiration of the notice required by paragraph (m)(i) of this subclause, shall be entitled to the position which she held immediately before proceeding on maternity leave or, in the case of an employee who was transferred to a safe job pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subclause, to the position which she held immediately before such transfer or in relation to an employee who has worked part-time during the pregnancy the position she held immediately before commencing such part-time work.

Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available for which the employee is qualified and the duties of which she is capable of performing, she shall be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of her former position.

(n) Replacement Employees

- (i) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a result of an employee proceeding on maternity leave.
- (ii) Before an employer engages a replacement employee the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (iii) Before an employer engages a person to replace an employee temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an employee exercising her rights under this part, the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or transfer and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iv) Nothing in this part shall be construed as requiring an employer to engage a replacement employee.

PART B - PATERNITY LEAVE

(a) Nature of Leave

Paternity leave is unpaid leave.

(b) Definitions

For the purpose of this part:

'Child' means a child of the employee or the employee's spouse under the age of one year.

'Continuous service' means service under an unbroken contract of employment and includes:

'Employee' includes a part-time employee (as defined) but does not include an employee engaged upon casual or seasonal work.

'Maternity leave' means leave of the type provided for in Part A - Maternity Leave (and includes special maternity leave).

'Primary care-giver' means a person who assumes the principal role of providing care and attention to a child.

'Spouse' includes a de facto or a former spouse.

- (i) any period of leave taken in accordance with this clause;
- (ii) any period of part-time employment worked in accordance with this clause; or
- (iii) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or by the award.

(c) Eligibility for Paternity Leave

A male employee, upon production to his employer of the certificate required by subclause (d) - Certification shall be entitled to one or two periods of paternity leave, the total of which shall not exceed 52 weeks, in the following circumstances:

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (i) an unbroken period of up to one week at the time of confinement of his spouse;
- (ii) a further unbroken period of up to 51 weeks in order to be the primary care-giver of a child provided that such leave shall not extend beyond the child's first birthday. This entitlement shall be reduced by any period of maternity leave taken by the employee's spouse and shall not be taken concurrently with that maternity leave.

The employee must have had at least 12 months continuous service with that employer immediately preceding the date upon which he proceeds upon either period of leave.

(d) Certification

At the time specified in subclause (e) the employee must produce to his employer:

- (i) a certificate from a registered medical practitioner which names his spouse, states that she is pregnant and the expected date of confinement or states the date of which the birth took place;
- (ii) in relation to any period to be taken under paragraph (c)(ii) of this subclause, a statutory declaration stating:
 - (1) he will take that period of paternity leave to become the primary care-giver of the child;
 - (2) particulars of any period of maternity leave sought or taken by his spouse; and
 - (3) for the period of paternity leave he will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with his contract of employment.

(e) Notice Requirements

- (i) The employee shall, not less than ten weeks prior to each proposed period of leave, give the employer notice in writing stating the dates on which he proposes to start and finish the period or periods of leave and produce the certificate and statutory declaration required in paragraph (d) of this subclause.
- (ii) The employee shall not be in breach of this subclause as a consequence of failure to give the notice required in paragraph (e)(i) of this subclause if such failure is due to:
 - (1) the birth occurring earlier than the expected date; or
 - (2) the death of the mother or the child; or
 - (3) other compelling circumstances.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(iii) The employee shall immediately notify his employer of any change in the information provided pursuant to paragraph (d) of this subclause.

(f) Variation of Period of Paternity Leave

(i) Provided the maximum period of paternity leave does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under paragraph (c) of this subclause:

(1) the period of paternity leave provided by paragraphs (c)(ii) of this subclause may be lengthened once only by the employee giving not less than 14 days notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be lengthened;

(2) the period may be further lengthened by agreement between the employer and the employee.

(ii) The period of paternity leave taken under paragraph (c)(ii) of this subclause may, with the consent of the employer, be shortened by the employee giving not less than 14 days notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be shortened.

(g) Cancellation of Paternity Leave

Paternity leave, applied for under paragraph (c)(ii) of this subclause but not commenced, shall be cancelled when the pregnancy of the employee's spouse terminates other than by the birth of a living child.

(h) Paternity Leave and Other Leave Entitlements

(i) Provided the aggregate of any leave, including leave taken under this part, does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under paragraph (c) of this subclause, an employee may, in lieu of or in conjunction with paternity leave, take any annual leave or long service leave or any part thereof to which he is entitled.

(ii) Paid sick leave or other paid authorised award absences (excluding annual leave or long service leave) shall not be available to an employee during his absence on paternity leave.

(i) Effect of Paternity Leave on Employment

Subject to this part, notwithstanding any award or other provision to the contrary, absence on paternity leave shall not break the continuity of service of an employee but shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purpose of any relevant award or agreement.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(j) Termination of Employment

- (i) An employee on paternity leave may terminate his employment at any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance with this award.
- (ii) An employer shall not terminate the employment of an employee on the ground of his absence on paternity leave, but otherwise the rights of an employer in relation to termination of employment are not hereby affected.

(k) Return to Work after Paternity Leave

- (i) An employee shall confirm his intention of returning to work by notice in writing to the employer given not less than four weeks prior to the expiration of the period of paternity leave provided by paragraph (c)(ii) of this subclause.
- (ii) An employee, upon returning to work after paternity leave or the expiration of the notice required by paragraph (k)(i) of this subclause, shall be entitled to the position which he held immediately before proceeding on paternity leave, or in relation to an employee who has worked part-time under this clause to the position he held immediately before commencing such part-time work.

Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, he shall be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of his former position.

(l) Replacement Employees

- (i) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a result of an employee proceeding on paternity leave.
- (ii) Before an employer engages a replacement employee the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iii) Before an employer engages a person to replace an employee temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an employee exercising his rights under this part, the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or transfer and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iv) Nothing in this part shall be construed as requiring an employer to engage a replacement employee.

PART C - ADOPTION LEAVE

(a) Nature of Leave

Adoption leave is unpaid leave.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(b) Definitions

For the purpose of this part:

'Child' means a person under the age of five years who is placed with the employee for the purposes of adoption, other than a child or stepchild of the employee or of the spouse of the employee or a child who has previously lived continuously with the employee for a period of six months or more.

'Continuous service' means service under an unbroken contract of employment and includes:

'Employee' includes a part-time employee (as defined) but does not include an employee engaged upon casual or seasonal work.

'Primary care-giver' means a person who assumes the principal role of providing care and attention to a child.

'Relative adoption' occurs where a child, as defined, is adopted by a grandparent, brother, sister, aunt or uncle (whether of the whole blood or half blood or by marriage).

'Spouse' includes a de facto spouse.

- (i) any period of leave taken in accordance with this clause;
- (ii) any period of part-time employment worked in accordance with this clause, or
- (iii) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or by the award.

(c) Eligibility

An employee, upon production to the employer of the documentation required by paragraph (d) of this subclause shall be entitled to one or two periods of adoption leave, the total of which shall not exceed 52 weeks, in the following circumstances:

- (i) an unbroken period of up to three weeks at the time of the placement of the child;
- (ii) an unbroken period of up to 52 weeks from the time of the child's placement in order to be the primary care-giver of the child. This leave shall not extend beyond one year after the placement of the child and shall not be taken concurrently with adoption leave taken by the employee's spouse in relation to the same child. This entitlement of up to 52 weeks shall be reduced by:
 - (1) any period of leave taken pursuant to paragraph (c)(i) of this subclause; and

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (2) the aggregate of any periods of adoption leave taken or to be taken by the employee's spouse;

The employee must have had at least 12 months continuous service with that employer immediately preceding the date upon which he or she proceeds upon such leave in either case.

(d) Certification

Before taking adoption leave the employee must produce to the employer:

- (i)
 - (1) A statement from an adoption agency or other appropriate body of the presumed date of placement of the child with the employee for adoption purposes; or
 - (2) A statement from the appropriate government authority confirming that the employee is to have custody of the child pending application for an adoption order.
- (ii) In relation to any period to be taken under paragraph (c)(ii) of this subclause, a statutory declaration stating:
 - (1) the employee is seeking adoption leave to become the primary care-giver of the child;
 - (2) particulars of any period of adoption leave sought or taken by the employee's spouse; and
 - (3) for the period of adoption leave the employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with his or her contract of employment.

(e) Notice Requirements

- (i) Upon receiving notice of approval for adoption purposes, an employee shall notify the employer of such approval and within two months of such approval, shall further notify the employer of the period or periods of adoption leave the employee proposes to take. In the case of a relative adoption the employee shall notify as aforesaid upon deciding to take a child into custody pending an application for an adoption order.
- (ii) An employee who commences employment with an employer after the date of approval for adoption purposes shall notify the employer thereof upon commencing employment and of the period or periods of adoption leave which the employee proposes to take. Provided that such employee shall not be entitled to adoption leave unless the employee has not less than 12 months continuous service with that employer immediately preceding the date upon which he or she proceeds upon such leave.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (iii) An employee shall, as soon as the employee is aware of the presumed date of placement of a child for adoption purposes but no later than 14 days before such placement, give notice in writing to the employer of such date, and of the date of the commencement of any period of leave to be taken under paragraph (c)(i) of this subclause.
 - (iv) An employee shall, ten weeks before the proposed date of commencing any leave to be taken under paragraph (c)(ii) of this subclause give notice in writing to the employer of the date of commencing leave and the period of leave to be taken.
 - (v) An employee shall not be in breach of this part as a consequence of failure to give the stipulated period of notice in accordance with paragraph (e) (iii) and (iv) of this subclause if such failure is occasioned by the requirement of an adoption agency to accept earlier or later placement of a child, the death of the spouse or other compelling circumstances.
- (f) Variation of Period of Adoption Leave
- (i) Provided the maximum period of adoption leave does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under paragraph (c) of this subclause:
 - (1) the period of leave taken under paragraph (c)(ii) of this subclause may be lengthened once only by the employee giving not less than 14 days notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be lengthened;
 - (2) the period may be further lengthened by agreement between the employer and employee.
 - (ii) The period of adoption leave taken under paragraph (c)(ii) of this subclause may, with the consent of the employer, be shortened by the employee giving not less than 14 days notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be shortened.
- (g) Cancellation of Adoption Leave
- (i) Adoption leave, applied for but not commenced, shall be cancelled should the placement of the child not proceed.
 - (ii) Where the placement of a child for adoption purposes with an employee then on adoption leave does not proceed or continue, the employee shall notify the employer forthwith and the employer shall nominate a time not exceeding four weeks from receipt of notification for the employee's resumption of work.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(h) Special Leave

The employer shall grant to any employee who is seeking to adopt a child, such unpaid leave not exceeding two days, as is required by the employee to attend any compulsory interviews or examinations as are necessary as part of the adoption procedure. Where paid leave is available to the employee the employer may require the employee to take such leave in lieu of special leave.

(i) Adoption Leave and Other Entitlements

(i) Provided the aggregate of any leave, including leave taken under this part, does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under paragraph (c) of this subclause, an employee may, in lieu of or in conjunction with adoption leave, take any annual leave or long service leave or any part thereof to which he or she is entitled.

(ii) Paid sick leave or other paid authorised award absences (excluding annual leave or long service leave), shall not be available to an employee during the employee's absence on adoption leave.

(j) Effect of Adoption Leave on Employment

Subject to this part, notwithstanding any award or other provision to the contrary, absence on adoption leave shall not break the continuity of service of an employee but shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purpose of any relevant award or agreement.

(k) Termination of Employment

(i) An employee on adoption leave may terminate the employment at any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance with this award.

(ii) An employer shall not terminate the employment of an employee on the ground of the employee's application to adopt a child or absence on adoption leave, but otherwise the rights of an employer in relation to termination of employment are not hereby affected.

(l) Return to Work After Adoption Leave

(i) An employee shall confirm the intention of returning to work by notice in writing to the employer given not less than four weeks prior to the expiration of the period of adoption leave provided by paragraph (c)(ii) of this subclause.

(ii) An employee, upon returning to work after adoption leave, shall be entitled to the position held immediately before proceeding on such leave or in relation to an employee who has worked part-time under this clause the position held immediately before commencing such part-time work.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the employee shall be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of the employee's former position.

(m) Replacement Employees

- (i) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a result of an employee proceeding on adoption leave.
- (ii) Before an employer engages a replacement employee the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iii) Before an employer engages a person to replace an employee temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an employee exercising rights under this part, the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or transfer and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iv) Nothing in this part shall be construed as requiring an employer to engage a replacement employee.

PART D - PART-TIME WORK

(a) Definitions

For the purposes of this part:

'Continuous service' means service under an unbroken contract of employment and includes:

'Female employee' means an employed female who is pregnant or is caring for a child she has borne or a child who has been placed with her for adoption purposes.

'Former position' means the position held by a female or male employee immediately before proceeding on leave or part-time employment under this part whichever first occurs or, if such position no longer exists but there are other positions available for which the employee is qualified and the duties of which he or she is capable of performing, a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of the position first mentioned in this definition.

'Male employee' means an employed male who is caring for a child born of his spouse or a child placed with the employee for adoption purposes.

'Spouse' includes a de facto spouse.

- (i) any period of leave taken in accordance with this clause;
- (ii) any period of part-time employment worked in accordance with this clause; or

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(iii) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or by the award.

(b) Entitlement

With the agreement of the employer:

(i) A male employee may work part-time in one or more periods at any time from the date of birth of the child until its second birthday or, in relation to adoption, from the date of placement of the child until the second anniversary of the placement.

(ii) A female employee may work part-time in one or more periods while she is pregnant where part-time employment is, because of the pregnancy, necessary or desirable.

(iii) A female employee may work part-time in one or more periods at any time from the seventh week after the date of birth of the child until its second birthday.

(iv) In relation to adoption a female employee may work part-time in one or more periods at any time from the date of the placement of the child until the second anniversary of that date.

(c) Return to Former Position

(i) An employee who has had at least 12 months continuous service with an employer immediately before commencing part-time employment after the birth or placement of a child has, at the expiration of the period of such part-time employment or the first period, if there is more than one, the right to return to his or her former position.

(ii) Nothing in paragraph (c)(i) of this subclause shall prevent the employer from permitting the employee to return to his or her former position after a second or subsequent period of part-time employment.

(d) Effect of Part-time Employment on Continuous Service

Commencement on part-time work under this clause, and return from part-time work to full-time work under this clause, shall not break the continuity of service or employment.

(e) Pro Rata Entitlements

Subject to the provisions of this part and the matters agreed to in accordance with paragraph (h) of this subclause, part-time employment shall be in accordance with the provisions of this award which shall apply pro rata.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(f) Transitional Arrangements - Annual Leave

- (i) An employee working part-time under this part shall be paid for and take any leave accrued in respect of a period of full-time employment, in such periods and manner as specified in the annual leave provisions of this award, as if the employee were working full-time in the class of work the employee was performing as a full-time employee immediately before commencing part-time work under this part.
- (ii)
 - (1) A full-time employee shall be paid for and take any annual leave accrued in respect of a period of part-time employment under this part, in such periods and manner as specified in this award, as if the employee were working part-time in the class of work the employee was performing as a part-time employee (as defined) immediately before resuming full-time work.
 - (2) Provided that, by agreement between the employer and the employee, the period over which the leave is taken may be shortened to the extent necessary for the employee to receive pay at the employee's current full-time rate.

(g) Transitional Arrangements - Sick Leave

An employee working part-time under this part shall have sick leave entitlements which have accrued under this award (including any entitlements accrued in respect of previous full-time employment) converted into hours. When this entitlement is used, whether as a part-time employee (as defined) or as a full-time employee, it shall be debited for the ordinary hours that the employee would have worked during the period of absence.

(h) Part-time Work Agreement

- (i) Before commencing a period of part-time employment under this part the employee and the employer shall agree:
 - (1) that the employee may work part-time;
 - (2) upon the hours to be worked by the employee, the days upon which they will be worked and commencing times for the work;
 - (3) upon the classification applying to the work to be performed; and
 - (4) upon the period of part-time employment.
- (ii) The terms of this agreement may be varied by consent.
- (iii) The terms of this agreement or any variation to it shall be reduced to writing and retained by the employer. A copy of the agreement and any variation to it shall be provided to the employee by the employer.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(iv) The terms of this agreement shall apply to the part-time employment.

(i) Termination of Employment

(i) The employment of a part-time employee (as defined) under this clause, may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of this award but may not be terminated by the employer because the employee has exercised or proposes to exercise any rights arising under this clause or has enjoyed or proposes to enjoy any benefits arising under this clause.

(ii) Any termination entitlements payable to an employee whose employment is terminated while working part-time under this clause, or while working full-time after transferring from part-time work under this clause, shall be calculated by reference to the full-time rate of pay at the time of termination and by regarding all service as a full-time employee as qualifying for a termination entitlement based on the period of full-time employment and all service as a part-time employee (as defined) on a pro rata basis.

(j) Extension of Hours of Work

An employer may request, but not require, an employee working part-time under this clause to work outside or in excess of the employee's ordinary hours of duty provided for in accordance with paragraph (h) of this subclause.

(k) Nature of Part-time Work

The work to be performed part-time need not be the work performed by the employee in his or her former position but shall be work otherwise performed under this award.

(l) Inconsistent Award Provisions

An employee may work part-time under this clause notwithstanding any other provisions of this award which limits or restricts the circumstances in which part-time employment may be worked or the terms upon which it may be worked including provisions:

- (i) limiting the number of employees who may work part-time;
- (ii) establishing quotas as to the ratio of part-time to full-time employees;
- (iii) prescribing a minimum or maximum number of hours a part-time employee (as defined) may work; or
- (iv) requiring consultation with, consent of or monitoring by a union; and such provisions do not apply to part-time work under this clause.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(m) Replacement Employees

- (i) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a result of an employee working part-time under this Part.
- (ii) A replacement employee may be employed part-time. Subject to this subclause, subclauses (e), (f), (g), (h), (i) and (l) of this Part apply to the part-time employment of replacement employees.
- (iii) Before an employer engages a replacement employee under this subclause, the employer shall inform the person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iv) Unbroken service as a replacement employee shall be treated as continuous service for the purposes of paragraph (a)(v) of this subclause.
- (v) Nothing in this part shall be construed as requiring an employer to engage a replacement employee.

D. SICK LEAVE

- (a) An employee, other than one engaged as a casual or part-time employee (as defined), who receives a loading of 20 per cent paid in lieu of annual leave, sick leave and holidays with pay in accordance with Clause 10 - Casual Employees (as defined) and Clause 26 - Part-time Employees (as defined), who is absent from work on account of personal illness or on account of injury by accident shall be entitled to leave of absence without deduction of pay, subject to the following conditions and limitations:
 - (i) the employee shall not be entitled to such leave of absence for any period in respect of which he/she is entitled to workers' compensation;
 - (ii) the employee shall, where possible, before the commencement of the shift or usual starting time of work, inform the employer of his/her inability to attend for work and as far as may be practicable state the nature of the illness or injury and estimated duration of the absence;
 - (iii) the employee shall prove to the satisfaction of the employer (or in the event of a dispute, the Tasmanian Industrial Commission) that he/she was unable on account of such illness or injury to attend for work on the day or days for which the sick leave is claimed or due to special circumstances was reasonably unable to notify the employer of such absence prior to the commencement of the shift or usual starting time of work and in such special circumstances the employee shall in any event notify the employer of such absence within 24 hours from the commencement of the shift or usual starting time of work;
 - (iv) the employee shall not be entitled in any year to sick leave credit in excess of 76 hours of ordinary working time.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

PROVIDED that during the first three months of employment, sick leave shall accrue on the basis of 6.33 hours for each completed calendar month of service with the employer.

- (b) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in paragraph (a) of this subclause which has in any year not been allowed to an employee by an employer as paid sick leave shall be credited to the employee and, subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed shall be allowed by that employer in a subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year.
- (c) An employer shall not be required to make any payment in respect of accumulated sick leave credits to an employee who is discharged or leaves his/her employment, or for any time an employee is absent from work without producing satisfactory evidence of personal illness.

PROVIDED that employees employed at the date of commencement of this award shall be entitled to sick leave accrued prior to that date.

- (d) Sickness on Day Off

Where an employee is sick or injured on the week day or days he/she is to take off where the arrangements for the 38-hour week provides for rostered day/days off in the particular work cycle, the employee shall not be entitled to seek nor will the employee's sick pay entitlement be reduced as a result of the employee's sickness or injury on that day.

21. LIFTING OF CLIENTS (AS DEFINED)

The lifting of clients (as defined) shall be subject to the provisions of the Industrial Safety Health and Welfare Act 1977 and the Industrial Safety, Health and Welfare (Administration and General) Regulations 1979, and any dispute that may arise shall be processed in accordance with Clause 12 - Disputes and Grievance Procedure.

22. MEAL AND MEAL ALLOWANCE

- (a) A meal interval of not less than 30 minutes nor more than one hour shall be allowed to an employee within five hours of commencing work or within such other period of time when due to pressing circumstances the scheduled time of taking a meal break is deferred by up to 1/2 hour to enable the employee to complete the task at hand.
- (b) Where it is part of an employee's duties to eat with clients (as defined) such time shall count as time worked and be paid as such.
- (c) An employee who is required to work overtime for more than 1½ hours after the usual time of ceasing work shall be provided with a meal by the employer, or in lieu thereof shall be paid an allowance of $9.25.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

23. MIXED FUNCTIONS

An employee engaged continuously for three hours or more on one day on duties carrying a higher rate than the employee's ordinary classification shall be paid the higher rate.

An employee engaged continuously for less than three hours of one day on duties carrying a higher rate than the employee's ordinary classification shall be paid the higher rate for the time so worked (provided that the aggregate time so worked shall exceed three hours in any one week).

The higher rate of pay prescribed by this clause shall not apply in the case of an employee relieving another employee of a higher paid classification where time off from duty arises out of the arrangements for of the 38-hour working week.

24. NOTICE BOARD

In establishments employing five or more persons and where a suitable staff room is available, the employer shall provide a notice board of reasonable dimensions, upon which accredited union representatives shall be permitted to post formal union notices, signed and countersigned by the representative posting same.

25. OCCUPATIONAL SUPERANNUATION

- (a) Superannuation contributions shall be made in accordance with the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992, the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992, the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and the Superannuation (Resolution and Complaints) Act 1993.

This legislation, as varied from time to time, shall govern the superannuation rights and obligations of the parties.

- (b) Fund

- (i) Contributions determined in accordance with subclause (a) of this clause shall be paid into TASPLAN or HESTA.
- (ii) The employer shall become a party to TASPLAN or HESTA upon the acceptance of the TRUSTEES of that scheme of an application to become a participating employer of TASPLAN or HESTA, duly signed and executed by that employer.

The fund adopted by each establishment shall be determined by agreement between the employer and employees concerned. In the event of a dispute the award Disputes and Grievance procedure shall be applied.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(iii) Unless the employer adopts otherwise, an employer shall make contributions on behalf of all eligible employees into only one of the Funds nominated in this clause.

(c) Exemptions

The Tasmanian Industrial Commission may grant exemptions from the use of TASPLAN or HESTA to employers who provide Occupational Superannuation contributions into a fund which meets the guidelines of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission.

Employers intending to seek exemption in accordance with this provision shall notify the Union of such intention. Such intention will be discussed between the parties and an application will subsequently be made to the Tasmanian Industrial Commission for hearing and determination.

The following employer shall be exempt from necessarily using the nominated funds referred to in subclause (b) of this clause, but may in the alternative utilise the fund identified opposite their business name:

Business	Fund

26. PART-TIME EMPLOYEES (AS DEFINED)

(a) Part-time employees (as defined) engaged to work twenty or more hours per week shall be entitled to the annual leave, holidays with pay and sick leave as prescribed in Clause 20 - Leave, subclause A - Annual Leave, Clause 18 - Hours, and Clause 35 - Terms of Employment, provided that payment therefor shall be made at the rate normally paid to such employees for a similar period of time worked.

The wage rates payable per hour shall be one thirty-eighth of the relevant rate in Clause 8 - Wage Rates.

(b) Part-time employees (as defined) engaged to work less than 20 hours per week shall be paid per hour one thirty-eighth of the weekly rates prescribed for the work the employee performs. In addition thereto such employee shall receive 20 per cent of the ordinary hourly rate in respect of each hour for which the employee is paid; such additional amount to be payment in lieu of annual leave, sick leave and holidays with pay.

27. PAYMENT OF WAGES

(a) Wages shall be paid weekly or fortnightly no later than Thursday in each pay period.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (b) An employee shall be given written details of all monies due to them not later than Thursday in each pay period including advice as to the nature and amount of deductions to pay.
- (c) Where a cheque is not met upon presentation or a bank deposit is not made at the time specified or payment is not made at the time specified, otherwise than in circumstances beyond the control of the employer, the employee shall be deemed to be working during the time he/she is kept waiting.
- (d) An employee whose method of hours of work is arranged so that the employee works 38 ordinary hours per week shall be paid weekly or fortnightly according to the actual ordinary hours worked.
- (e) An employee whose method of hours of work is arranged so that the employee averages 38 ordinary hours work over a particular work cycle shall be paid wages weekly or fortnightly to a weekly average of ordinary hours worked even though more or less than 38 ordinary hours may have been worked in any particular week of the work cycle.
- (f) Absences from Duty

An employee paid in accordance with subclause (e) of this clause who is absent from duty other than on annual leave, holidays with pay, paid sick leave, compassionate leave and workers' compensation leave shall, for each day absent, lose average pay for that day calculated by dividing the average weekly rate by five. Where such absence is for part of a day the employee will lose average pay for each hour or part thereof the employee is absent at an hourly rate by dividing the average pay rate by eight.

PROVIDED that where his/her absence from duty is for a whole day without pay the employee will not accrue a "credit" towards a rostered day off (as defined) and in the week of the work cycle where less than 38 ordinary hours is required to be worked the employee shall not be entitled to the average pay rate in that week having that amount reduced by the amount of the credit that has not accrued.

- (g) Alternative Methods of Payment
 - (i) Payment of wages may as the employer so nominates be paid either in cash, by cheque or electronic fund transfer into the employee's bank account without the requirement for the employer to provide encashment facilities.
 - (ii) Where the employer and the majority of employees concerned agree an alternative method of payment of wages may apply than provided by this clause.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(h) Payment on Termination

Where the services of an employee are dispensed with, the employee's wages shall be paid on the day of termination or forwarded by post on the working day following, provided that in the case of an employee whose method of working hours is arranged so that the employee averages 38 ordinary hours work over a particular work cycle and who has not taken the day or days off so due the wages due to the employee shall include the total of credits accrued to the point of termination. In such a case if the employee has taken off a day or days and has not worked the full accrual the employee's wages due shall be reduced by the total of credits that have not been so accrued.

28. PROTECTIVE CLOTHING AND SAFETY APPLIANCES

- (a) The employer shall provide, where necessary, protective clothing in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Safety Health and Welfare Act 1977 and the Industrial Safety, Health and Welfare (Administration and General) Regulations 1979.
- (b) The employer shall provide necessary safety appliances in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Safety Health and Welfare Act and the Industrial Safety, Health and Welfare (Administration and General) Regulations 1979.

29. RIGHT OF ENTRY

- (a) An officer of the union, subject to any conditions prescribed in the Industrial Relations Act 1984 and Regulations, may:
 - (i) during working hours, enter any premises where members of that organisation are employed for the purpose of talking with or interviewing the employees at the premises; and
 - (ii) during working hours, enter any premises where members of the union are or were employed for the purposes of investigating any alleged breach of this award, the Industrial Relations Act 1984, industrial agreement or registered enterprise agreement in relation to the industry or enterprise in which those members are or were employed; and
 - (iii) for the purposes of investigating any alleged breach referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) of this subclause and with the approval of the employee or former employee, required the employer to produce for inspection during the usual office hours at the employer's office the records kept under Section 75 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984 in respect of that employee or former employee; and
 - (iv) make copies of the entries in any record kept under Section 75 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984 related to any alleged breach referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) of this subclause.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (b) Before exercising any power under subclause (a)(iii) or (iv) of this clause, an officer referred to in that subclause must give the relevant employer notice of at least two working days not being a Saturday, Sunday or holiday with pay.
- (c) Notwithstanding subclause (b) of this clause, an officer referred to in subclause (a) of this clause may exercise any of the powers referred to in subclause (a)(iii) and (iv) of this clause before the expiration of the period of notice referred to in subclause (b) of this clause if the relevant employer agrees to the exercise of those powers before the expiration.
- (d) An officer referred to in subclause (a) of this clause is not entitled to inspect a record referred to in that subclause until the officer has made before a justice the declaration of secrecy prescribed in the regulations.
- (e) A person who has made a declaration of secrecy in accordance with subclause (d) of this clause shall not disclose, contrary to that declaration, any information obtained by that person from an inspection of a record referred to in that subclause.
- (f) Where an officer of a union to which subclause (a) of this clause applies is entitled under this clause to inspect a record required by the Industrial Relations Act 1984 to be kept by an employer, that employer shall, on written notice served on him or her by the officer, produce the record for inspection by the officer.
- (g) For the purposes of this clause, service of a notice on, or the making of a requirement of, the agent of an employer or the manager, supervisor or other person apparently in charge of a place at which any employees are employed by the employer shall be deemed for the purposes of this clause to be service on, or the making of a requirement of, that employer.

30. SLEEP-OVER

- (a) Unless otherwise agreed between the employer and the relevant union, when an employee is required to sleep overnight on the Employer's premises, the employee shall be paid an allowance of $20.00 per night.
- (b) Where an employee, during the period rostered sleep-over, is required to work, in assisting or caring for residents, in excess of one and one half hours, consecutive or otherwise, or if there are more than three disturbances, shall be paid overtime payment for the time so worked.

An employee who is entitled to overtime payment under this subclause shall receive at least 30 minutes payment for each disruption in accordance with Clause 18 - Hours, subclause C - Overtime.

- (c) An employee who is entitled to the allowance prescribed by subclause (a) of this clause, for any period spent on sleep-over shall be provided with:

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (i) wherever practicable single bedrooms and under no circumstances shall an employee be required to share a bed,
 - (ii) bed linen, blankets and use of cutlery and crockery without charge to the employee;
 - (iii) reasonable storage facilities for securing personal belongings;
 - (iv) access to shower and toilet facilities that can be made secure for private use.
- (d) Where an employee requests the employer to provide meals during a period for which the sleep-over allowance is paid, in accordance with subclause (a) of this clause, and the employer agreed to do so, the employer may deduct from the employee's wages the amount prescribed for a meal allowance in Clause 22 - Meal and Meal Allowance.
- (e) Sleep-overs will be established in accordance with a roster (as defined) setting out clearly the names of the rostered employees (as defined) and the days, dates and hours during which each employee is required to attend for duty. The roster (as defined) shall provide for a system of scheduled days off in accordance with Clause 18 - Hours, subclause F - Scheduled Days Off and shall not be implemented or changed until after the expiration of four weeks notice or in the case of an individual employee after the expiration of one weeks notice or the payment of one weeks pay in lieu of notice.

PROVIDED that such notice of payment in lieu of notice shall not apply in an emergency situation where agreement is reached between the employer and employee concerned.

PROVIDED ALWAYS that employees shall not be required to work consecutive shifts and sleep-overs unless agreed by the employer and employees affected. Employees will not unreasonably withhold agreement.

PROVIDED FURTHER that each nights sleep-over shall stand alone and the period of sleep-over shall be nominated by the employer at each workplace.

31. SPECIAL LICENCES

An employee appointed by the employer to regularly drive vehicles that require the person to hold either a Light Passenger Vehicle Licence or a Heavy Passenger Vehicle Licence shall be reimbursed by the employer an amount of money equivalent to the additional licence fee prescribed in excess of a Standard Motor Car Licence and the cost of any medical examination so required in obtaining and maintaining the said licence.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

32. TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT

- (a) (i) An employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties as are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training consistent with the classification structure of this award provided that such duties are not designed to promote de-skilling.
- (ii) An employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties and use such tools and equipment as may be required provided that the employee has been properly trained in the use of such tools and equipment.
- (iii) Any direction issued by an employer pursuant to subclause (a)(i) and (ii) of this clause shall be consistent with the employee's responsibilities to provide a safe and healthy working environment.
- (b) With the exception of casual employees (as defined) employment shall be by the fortnight.
- (c) Employment (other than a casual employee (as defined)) may be terminated by either party giving two weeks' notice or forfeiture of two weeks' wages, as the case may be. This does not affect the right of an employer to dismiss an employee without notice in the case of serious misconduct or neglect of duty, and in such cases wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only.
- (d) When an employer or employee gives notice of termination of employment, the parties may mutually agree to the employment ending before the expiration of the period of notice, and in such cases wages shall be paid up to the time of agreed termination.
- (e) Casual employees (as defined) shall be employed by the hour and employment may be terminated by one hour's notice by either party.
- (f) An employer may engage an employee initially for a three month probationary period during which the employer and the employee may determine their willingness to continue the employment contract. During the three month probationary period the employee concerned shall be engaged on an hourly basis and the employment may be terminated by either party giving one hour's notice or the forfeiture of one hour's wages as the case may be.

This does not affect the right of the employer to dismiss an employee without notice in the case of serious misconduct or neglect of duty, and in such cases wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only.

For the purposes of this provision the hourly rate shall be calculated by dividing the relevant classification rate by 38.

This provision shall apply to full-time, part-time and casual employees (as defined).

This subclause shall apply in lieu of any part of this award providing contrary provisions.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

33. TIME AND WAGES BOOK

Each employer shall keep a time book or sheet showing the name of each employee, the number of hours worked and also between what hours, the rates of pay and the wages paid each week.

34. TOOLS AND TOOL ALLOWANCE

All employees engaged in classifications that are proclaimed as trades under the Vocational Education and Training Act 1994, or employees with experience deemed by the employer to be equivalent to trades qualified, shall either be supplied with all tools by the employer or be paid a tool allowance of not less than $8.40 per week.

PROVIDED that such allowance shall not be subject to adjustment when computing payments for shift penalty rates for weekend or holiday work for overtime or for any other payments.

35. TRAINING FOR DISABILITY SERVICE WORKERS (AS DEFINED)

Establishments to which this award has application are expected to provide the employees as classified above with suitable "In-House Training Programmes" relevant to their classification.

Such employees will be expected to participate in these "In-House Training Programmes". "In-House Training Programmes" may include participation in relevant external study courses.

"In-House Training Programmes" should enhance the employees' progression through each classification grade.

Appointment to a given grade or progression through each classification is not solely dependent on "In-House Training" provided always the definition of the relevant classification shall prevail.

36. UNIFORMS

Where uniforms or a type of dress is required by the employer to be worn, they shall be provided, laundered and maintained at the employer's expense.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

37. UNION DELEGATES

- (a) An employee elected as a union delegate, upon notification by the union to the employer, shall be recognised as the accredited representative of the union to which the employee belongs and shall be allowed all necessary time during working hours to submit to the employer matters affecting the employees he/she represents and further shall be allowed reasonable time during working hours to attend to job matters affecting his/her union, provided that the supervisor of the shift or section is given prior notice of the union delegate's intention.
- (b) The union delegate shall have reasonable access to a photocopier and facsimile machine where available, and access to a telephone to contact the union office or to progress enquiries on behalf of a member on work-related matters. The union delegate shall be provided with a suitable cupboard and facilities to enable the union delegate to keep records, union circulars and documentation to efficiently carry out union responsibilities.
- (c) The union delegate shall have the right to place notices on notice boards within the enterprise. Such notices or matters of interest shall be within the policy of and authorised by the Australian Municipal, Administrative, Clerical and Services Union and the Health Services Union of Australia, Tasmania No. 1 Branch.
- (d) With the agreement of the employer the union delegate shall have the right to have a guest speaker authorised by the Australian Municipal, Administrative, Clerical and Services Union and the Health Services Union of Australia, Tasmania No. 1 Branch, attend meetings within the enterprise.
- (e) The employer shall not dismiss or injure a union delegate in employment or alter the employee's position to the employee's prejudice because the employee is a union delegate.
- (f) The employer shall supply the union delegate with a copy of this award and with all subsequent variations.
