7. DEFINITIONS

The words and phrases set out below shall mean the following for the purposes of this award:

ADC means the Office of the Anti-Discrimination Commissioner.

Administrative Work means the exercise of an appropriate level of responsibility and discretion in undertaking functions of an administrative nature where administration is concerned with achievement of the organisation's corporate goals through planning, organising, directing and controlling resources or activities. Administration is also concerned with the development and implementation of policy to achieve set objectives and desired outcomes.

Appropriate Levels of Fees means the appropriate level of fees generated having regard to the nature, volume and availability of work to generate such fees.

Basic Legal Work means Legal Work that could be expected to be undertaken by a Legal Practitioner who does not have a substantial body of knowledge or expertise in the particular field of law. It does not involve issues of a complex or critical nature, nor is there decision making on priorities or deadlines. Precedent or procedures are clearly established and the exercise of independent Professional Judgement as to approach or process is not expected.

Broad Direction means that employees are expected to develop and achieve objectives for specific functions under their control that will ensure the attainment of results critical to the efficient operation of the work unit.

Complex Legal Work means Legal Work that requires the exercise of considerable Professional Judgement in the selection of the most appropriate approach and the application of a significant body of general or specialist legal knowledge.

There may be a variety of potential options from which to choose and precedent may not be clearly established or may be ambiguous. The work requires careful analysis of the subject or issues.

Critical Legal Work is a term used in the sense commonly accepted in relation to critical component, critical issue or critical decision. It means a cornerstone, or fundamental decision, requiring the exercise of considerable Professional Judgement of the effects of a decision within the discipline or field of work. The work may or may not be complex but carries greater risk or more serious consequences than Complex Legal Work.

Direct Supervision is where a person works under supervision with instruction provided. The employee is expected to apply only limited Professional Judgement, and deviations from normal routines; problems and unfamiliar situations are discussed with the supervisor. The exercise of discretion is restricted and the employee has only limited responsibility for the final outcome of work undertaken. Deadlines and priorities are given.

General Direction is where a person is expected to exercise the Professional Judgement necessary to undertake his or her work without supervision. Work is performed in accordance with broadly based standing instructions, policies and professional standards. Detailed or specific instructions are limited to unusual features. The person is expected to exercise discretion and a substantial degree of independent judgment in the performance of the work. They are responsible for the determination of priorities and achieving required outcomes in relation to their work.

General Supervision is where a person is expected to exercise a degree of independence in undertaking their day-to-day work. Their Professional Judgement is such that they are not subject to the same level of control as a person receiving Direct Supervision. General instructions are given on the required objectives or outcomes and the employee is encouraged to exercise some discretion and choice in selecting the most appropriate method for completing the allotted tasks.

LACT means the Legal Aid Commission of Tasmania.

Legal Practitioner means a person appointed to a position that requires that the person be admitted, or qualified for and entitled to be admitted, as a barrister or a practitioner of the Supreme Court of Tasmania under the provisions of the Legal Profession Act 2007.

Legal Work means work requiring the application of professional legal knowledge by a Legal Practitioner.

Novel Legal Work means Legal Work requiring a major degree of creativity, originality, ingenuity and initiative and is of a type not normally encountered in the day-to-day operations of the work unit.

OCS means the Office of the Crown Solicitor.

ODPP means the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

OPC means the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

OSG means the Office of the Solicitor-General.

Paralegal means an employee who undertakes administrative and clerical work of a legal nature that does not require the skills or experience of a legal practitioner.

Principal means in the case of:

- ADC the Anti-Discrimination Commissioner
- the LACT, the Director
- the ODPP, the Director of Public Prosecutions;
- the OCS, the Crown Solicitor;
- the OSG, the Solicitor-General;
- the OPC, the Chief Parliamentary Counsel;
- Tasmania Police, the Commissioner of Police
- the Supreme Court of Tasmania, the Registrar
- the TPT, the Chief Executive Officer
- An employee not covered by the list appearing above, the relevant Head of Agency for that employee or any person acting in these positions from time to time.

Professional Development means the acquisition of professional knowledge and expertise acquired through experience in the practice of the law.

Professional Judgement means the application of professional knowledge and expertise in defining objectives, solving problems, establishing guidelines, reviewing the work of others, interpreting information and providing and assessing advice or recommendations and other matters that have an element of latitude or decision making.

Routine Legal Work means Legal Work that requires a body of knowledge or expertise in the particular field of law. It does not involve issues of a complex or critical nature. Precedent or procedures are usually clearly established. It requires independent decision making in respect of day-to-day work, with complex, critical or novel aspects referred to more senior Legal Practitioners. The exercise of Professional Judgement as to approach or process is undertaken in consultation with more senior Legal Practitioners.

Specific Direction means where precise instructions are given with little or no choice provided.

TPT means The Public Trustee.

8. SALARIES

- the carriage and conduct of prosecutions for, and defence of, complex regulatory and summary offences, including appearances in all relevant courts and tribunals both at first instance and on appeal;
- the carriage and conduct of prosecutions for, and defence of, indictable crime and appearances in all courts and tribunals of first instance;

- the carriage and conduct of complex civil litigious and family law matters as counsel, solicitor or instructing solicitor before all courts and tribunals at first instance;
- under the general supervision of more senior legal practitioners, undertake appellate matters before the Supreme Court of Tasmania, the Court of Criminal Appeal, the Full Court of the Supreme Court of Tasmania, the Family Court of Australia or the Full Court of the Family Court of Australia;
- the carriage and conduct as solicitor of commercial and conveyancing matters on behalf of the Crown and its instrumentalities, requiring the preparation, negotiation and settling of complex commercial issues and documentation in circumstances where there is a high degree of reliance on independent drafting and professional judgement;
- advising Government Agencies and instrumentalities on a wide range of complex legal matters which require substantial legal research and the interpretation of relevant statutes;
- under the supervision of the Solicitor-General, assisting in the preparation and presentation of constitutional matters;
- providing legal advice in support of the management by paralegal staff of complex matters involving the administration of deceased estates, trusts, administration orders, conveyancing transactions, preliminary criminal prosecution phases and debt recovery matters;
- the conduct and carriage of complex, critical and novel investigations;
- the conduct of complex mediations and assisted dispute resolution procedures;
- preparing and delivering legal education presentations and seminars for specialist and professional audiences;
- drafting moderately sensitive, complex and novel legislation, consulting and advising Ministers, Departments and Members of Parliament with respect to such legislation and attending Parliament to assist in the passage of legislation as required;
- reviewing and determining more complex applications in the Probate Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

(c) LEVEL 4 LEGAL PRACTITIONER

A very experienced Legal Practitioner with an extensive body of relevant professional legal knowledge, significant expertise in a relevant area such as to be able to provide expert legal advice within that area of specialty and the demonstrated capacity to lead and supervise other Legal Practitioners.

General Descriptors - Level 4

A very experienced Legal Practitioner who:

- undertakes Routine Legal Work, Complex and Critical Legal Work, which may be of a sensitive nature;
- operates under General Direction and exercises personal Professional Judgement in the determination of overall strategies, priorities and work standards in respect of his or her own work;
- possesses an extensive body of professional knowledge, expertise and specialised skills and operates in accordance with broad objectives applying a high degree of Professional Judgement;
- provides a high level of professional advice based on an in-depth and comprehensive knowledge of the field of law within which the person practices;
- assumes responsibility for the direction and control of subordinate Legal Practitioners including leading, directing, supervising and coordinating specific projects, a work unit, or work team and undertaking Administrative Work relevant to the work unit or team;
- has an in-depth understanding and knowledge of the strategic context within which the Legal Work is undertaken;

- advising on legal, policy and other matters of significance and strategic importance to a GBE Board or other entity;
- reviewing and determining highly complex applications in the Probate Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court;
- the conduct of highly complex, critical or novel mediations and assisted dispute resolution procedures;
- hearing and determining applications for matters such as the taxation of costs and settling appeal books in the Supreme Court jurisdiction.

10. SALARY PROGRESSION AND ADVANCEMENT BETWEEN CLASSIFICATIONS

A Legal Practitioner is to advance to the next salary progression point within a classification on the certification by the relevant Principal of satisfactory performance for a period of not less than one year at the existing level and of apparent capacity to accept greater responsibility. Certification will be undertaken in the context of the Operational Area Performance Management System, or such other system as is approved for use by the relevant Principal.

Satisfactory performance will be assessed using a variety of criteria but will include:

- Legal skills and knowledge
- Application of legal skills and knowledge
- File management skills
- Ethical standards
- Probity
- Fee generation against allocated budget
- Client satisfaction
- Team skills and achievements
- Management and supervision of staff where applicable
- Administrative achievements where applicable
- Contribution to output and Agency objectives

Advancement between classifications is dependent on a merit-based selection for an advertised position at the next or higher classification level.

11. EMPLOYMENT

Employment as a legal practitioner will be in accordance with the State Service Act 2000.

12. PRACTISING CERTIFICATES AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Where any legal practitioner employed under the terms of this award is required to hold a Practising Certificate and to pay the prescribed fee, such fees will be paid by the relevant operational area.

Legal practitioners employed under the terms of this award acknowledge that they have an individual responsibility to ensure that they maintain the currency of their legal knowledge and skills within their area of expertise or employment.

13. PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

All legal practitioners employed under the terms of this award:

- (a) are to observe the same rules and standards of professional conduct and ethics as those that a private legal practitioner is, by law or the custom of the legal profession, required to observe in the practice of the legal profession; and
- (b) is subject to the same professional duties as those to which a private legal practitioner is, by law or the custom of the legal profession, subject.

14. FEE GENERATION

All legal practitioners in billing areas have the responsibility of ensuring that appropriate levels of fees are generated.

15. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

- (a) Subject to sub-clause (b) below the terms and conditions of Legal Practitioners employed under this award are to be the same as the terms and conditions of employment contained in the Tasmanian State Service Award as varied from time to time.
- (b) Where any term or condition of employment contained in the Tasmanian State Service Award is inconsistent with any term or conditions of this award, the terms of this award shall, to the extent of any such inconsistency prevail.

16. SUPPORTED WAGE SYSTEM FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

This clause defines the conditions which will apply to employees who because of the effects of a disability are eligible for a supported wage under the terms of this award.

In this clause:

'approved assessor' means a person accredited by the management unit established by the Commonwealth under the supported wage system to perform assessments of an individual's productive capacity within the supported wage system

'assessment instrument' means the tool provided for under the supported wage system that records the assessment of the productive capacity of the person to be employed under the supported wage system

'disability support pension' means the Commonwealth pension scheme to provide income security for persons with a disability as provided under the Social Security Act 1991 (Cth), as amended from time to time, or any successor to that scheme

'relevant minimum wage' means the minimum wage and includes any incremental adjustment prescribed in this award for the class of work for which an employee is engaged

'supported wage system' (SWS) means the Commonwealth Government system to promote employment for people who cannot work at full award wages because of a disability, as documented in the Supported Wage System Handbook. The Handbook is available from the following website: www.jobaccess.gov.au

'SWS wage assessment agreement' means the document in the form required by the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations that records the employee's productive capacity and agreed wage rate

(a) Eligibility Criteria

- (i) Employees covered by this schedule will be those who are unable to perform the range of duties to the competence level required within the class of work for which the employee is engaged under this award, because of the effects of a disability on their productive capacity and who meet the impairment criteria for receipt of a disability support pension.
- (ii) This schedule does not apply to any existing employee who has a claim against the employer which is subject to the provisions of workers compensation legislation or any provision of this award relating to the rehabilitation of employees who are injured in the course of their employment.

(b) Supported Wage Rates

Employees to whom this schedule applies will be paid the applicable percentage of the relevant minimum wage according to the following schedule:

Assessed Capacity (subclause (c))	Relevant Minimum Wage
10	10
20	20
30	30
40	40
50	50
60	60
70	70
80	80
90	90

PROVIDED that the minimum amount payable must be not less than $75.50 per week.

Where an employee's assessed capacity is 10%, they must receive a high degree of assistance and support.

(c) Assessment of Capacity

- (i) For the purpose of establishing the percentage of the relevant minimum wage, the productive capacity of the employee will be assessed in accordance with the Supported Wage System by an approved assessor, having consulted the employer and employee and, if the employee so desires, a union which the employee is eligible to join.
- (ii) All assessments made under this schedule must be documented in an SWS wage assessment agreement, and retained by the employer as a time and wages record in accordance with the Act.

(d) Lodgement of SWS Wage Assessment Agreement

- (i) All SWS wage assessment agreements under the conditions of this clause, including the appropriate percentage of the relevant minimum wage to be paid to the employee, must be lodged by the employer with Tasmanian Industrial Commission.
- (ii) All SWS wage assessment agreements must be agreed and signed by the employee and employer parties to the assessment. Where a union which has an interest in the award is not a party to the assessment, the assessment will be referred by the Tasmanian Industrial Commission to the union by certified mail and the agreement will take effect unless an objection is notified to Tasmanian Industrial Commission within 10 working days.

(e) Review of Assessment

The assessment of the applicable percentage should be subject to annual or more frequent review on the basis of a reasonable request for such a review. The process of review must be in accordance with the procedures for assessing capacity under the supported wage system.

(f) Other Terms and Conditions of Employment

Where an assessment has been made, the applicable percentage will apply to the relevant minimum wage only. Employees covered by the provisions of this clause will be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as other workers covered by this award on a pro rata basis.

(g) Workplace Adjustment

An employer wishing to employ a person under the provisions of this schedule must take reasonable steps to make changes in the workplace to enhance the employee's capacity to do the job. Changes may involve re-design of job duties, working time arrangements and work organisation in consultation with other workers in the area.

(h) Trial Period

- (i) In order for an adequate assessment of the employee's capacity to be made, an employer may employ a person under the provisions of this schedule for a trial period not exceeding 12 weeks, except that in some cases additional work adjustment time (not exceeding four weeks) may be needed.
- (ii) During that trial period the assessment of capacity will be undertaken and the percentage of the relevant minimum wage for a continuing employment relationship will be determined.
- (iii) The minimum amount payable to the employee during the trial period must be no less than $75.50 per week.
- (iv) Work trials should include induction or training as appropriate to the job being trialled.
- (v) Where the employer and employee wish to establish a continuing employment relationship following the completion of the trial period, a further contract of employment will be entered into based on the outcome of assessment under subclause (c).
