PART VI - LEAVE AND HOLIDAYS WITH PAY

1. ANNUAL LEAVE

- (a) Period of Leave

- (i) Day Workers

A period of 19 working days' leave shall be allowed annually after 12 months' continuous service (less the period of annual leave).

- (ii) Shiftworkers

In addition to the leave hereinbefore prescribed, shiftworkers shall be allowed 5 working days' leave. For the purposes of this clause, a shiftworker is an employee who is rostered to work regularly on Sundays and/or holidays.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

The total of annual leave entitlement and accrued leisure days for shift workers is 37 days per annum, and for Monday to Friday day workers is 32 days per annum. The aggregate of block leisure leave and annual leave must be taken in two parts, with neither part being less than 12 days.

Where an employee with 12 months' continuous service is engaged for part of the 12 monthly period as a shiftworker, he/she shall be entitled to have the period of annual leave hereinbefore prescribed increased by one day for each two months he/she is continuously engaged.

(b) Annual Leave Exclusive of Public Holidays

Subject to this subclause, the annual leave prescribed by this clause shall be exclusive of any of the holidays prescribed by Part VI, Clause 2- Holidays with Pay hereof, and if any such holiday falls within an employee's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which, in the case of that employee, would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to the period of annual leave time equivalent to the ordinary time which the employee would have worked if such day had not been a holiday.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, a shift worker shall have added to his/her period of annual leave one day for each statutory holiday which occurs during the period of his/her annual leave, whether or not such holiday is observed on a day which, but for such leave, would have been a rostered day off.

This shall not apply to a statutory holiday which is observed on a Saturday or on a Sunday.

Where a holiday falls as aforesaid and the employee fails without reasonable cause proof whereof shall be upon him/her to attend for work at his/her ordinary starting time on the working day immediately following the last day of the period of his/her annual leave he/she shall not be entitled to be paid for any such holiday.

(c) Broken Leave

The annual leave shall be given and taken in a continuous period, or if the employee and employer so agree, in 2 separate periods and not otherwise.

(d) Calculation of Continuous Service

For the purposes of this clause, service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding:

- (i) any interruption or termination of the employment by the employer if such interruption or termination has been made merely with the intention of avoiding obligations hereunder in respect of leave of absence;
- (ii) any absence from work on account of personal sickness, accident or on account of leave lawfully granted by the employer; or

(iii) any absence with reasonable cause, proof whereof shall be upon the employee.

In cases of personal sickness or accident or absence with reasonable cause, the employee to become entitled to the benefit of this subclause shall inform the employer, if practicable, within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence of his/her inability to attend for duty and as far as practicable the nature of the illness, injury or cause and the estimated duration of his/her absence.

Any absence from work by reason of any cause not being a cause specified in this subclause shall not be deemed to break the continuity of service for the purpose of this clause unless the employer during the absence or within 14 days of the termination of the absence notifies the employee in writing that such absence will be regarded as having broken the continuity of service.

In calculating the period of 12 months' continuous service, any such absence as aforesaid shall not, except to the extent of not more than 91 days in a 12 monthly period in the case of sickness or accident, be taken into account in calculating the period of 12 months' continuous service.

(e) Payment in Lieu Prohibited

The annual leave provided for by this clause shall be allowed and shall be taken, and except as provided in subclause (i) hereof, payment shall not be made or accepted in lieu of annual leave.

(f) Time of Taking Leave

Annual leave shall be given at a time fixed by the employer within a period not exceeding 6 months from the date when the right to annual leave accrued and after not less than 2 weeks' notice to the employee.

(g) Leave Allowed Before Due Date

An employer may allow annual leave to an employee before the right thereto has accrued due, but where it is taken in such a case a further period of annual leave shall not commence to accrue until after expiration of the 12 months in respect of which annual leave had been taken before it accrued.

Where leave has been granted to an employee pursuant to this subclause before the right thereto has accrued due and the employee subsequently leaves or is discharged from the service of the employer before completing the 12 months' continuous service in respect of which the leave was granted, the employer may, for each completed month of the qualifying period of 12 months not served by the employee, deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of the employment one-twelfth of the amount of wage paid on account of the annual leave which amount shall not include any sums paid for any of the holidays prescribed by Part VI, Clause 2 - Holidays with Pay hereof.

(h) Payment for Period of Annual Leave

(i) Shift Workers

Each employee employed as a Regular Shift Worker in Part III, Clause 1 - Wage Rates, Divisions 1 or 2 thereof, shall be paid before going on annual leave, the amount of wage the employee would have received in respect of the ordinary hours which the employee would have worked in accordance with the employee's roster, or with the employee's projected roster.

(ii) Day Workers

Each employee employed as a Day Worker in Part III, Clause 1 - Wage Rates, Divisions 1 or 2 thereof, shall be paid before going on annual leave four weeks' wages except where such employee is employed in Shipping and Transport Division, in which case the employee shall be paid four weeks' wages calculated on the employee's average weekly earnings in respect of the ordinary hours worked during the relevant annual leave accrual period.

(iii) In addition each employee shall receive a loading of 17 1/2% on payments made under the provisions of Part III, Clause 3 Service and Experience Payment, for the period of annual leave.

Where the wage rate is relevant to the calculation of the payment for annual leave, the wage rate to be applied shall be determined by averaging wage rates paid to the employee concerned for ordinary hours worked in the immediately preceding 20 ordinary working days.

(i) Proportionate Leave on Termination of Service

If after 4 weeks' continuous service in any qualifying 12 monthly period an employee leaves their employment lawfully in accordance with the provisions of Part II, Clause 1, subclause (a) thereof, the employee shall be paid at the rate of wage as provided by subclause (h) above as follows:

- (i) Day Workers - 11.7 hours for each completed four weeks of continuous service.
- (ii) Shift Workers - 14.8 hours for each completed four weeks of continuous service.

Where an employee has given or been given one week's notice of termination and absents himself/herself from work during the period of notice in the manner prescribed in Part II, Clause 1 - Weekly Employment, subclause (c) thereof, in addition to the penalty therein prescribed the employee shall forfeit part of his/her leave entitlement such as to bring his/her forfeiture of leave and pay entitlements up to a maximum of one week in the aggregate.

Where an employee is summarily dismissed for misconduct or abandons his/her employment without giving notice he/she shall forfeit his/her leave entitlement.

- (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause (a) if the day on which a public holiday is observed falls on the rostered day off of a shift worker, such employee shall be paid his/her ordinary rate for the time he/she would have worked if the holiday were not his/her day off. This provision shall not apply to a public holiday which is observed on a Saturday or Sunday. For the purposes of this subclause, ordinary rate shall be that prescribed by Part III, Clause 1 - Wage Rates of this award for the occupation in which the employee is ordinarily engaged.

3. SICK LEAVE

For employers who do not subsidise a sick or accident fund for the benefit of their employees, the following provisions shall apply:
