This award incorporates and supersedes the Butter and Cheesemakers Award No. 2 of 2003 (Consolidated), No. 1 of 2004, No. 2 of 2004 and No. 3 of 2004

7. GENERAL DEFINITIONS

'Leading hand' means any adult employee appointed as a leading hand by an employer, who while working under direction of the management, gives instructions to or is responsible for the work of other employees.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

'Maker's capacity' shall mean the capacity attributed to the vehicle by the seller or maker thereof except in cases where on any day the maximum weight of any load exceeds such capacity by one-third or more thereof, in which cases such maximum load shall, for the purposes of assessing the wages to be paid for that day, be deemed to be the Maker's capacity.

'Shift worker' shall mean an employee who is rostered to work continuous periods on shifts outside of the hours prescribed in Part V – HOURS OF WORK, PENALTY PAYMENTS AND OVERTIME Clause 2 - Implementation of 38 Hour Week, subclause (a) of this award or, whose hours of work alternate from one shift to another.

'Show day' means not more than one local show day observed on an employee's ordinary working day, other than a Saturday or a Sunday, in the city, town or district in which the employee is employed; or such other day which, in the absence of such a local show day is agreed on by the employee and the employer, therefore making a total of 11 paid public holidays per year.

'Union' means a registered organisation of employees listed in Part I – APPLICATION AND OPERATION OF THE AWARD, Clause 5 - Award Interest of this award.

PART II - EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP AND ASSOCIATED MATTERS

1 EMPLOYMENT CATEGORIES

- (a) Casual employees, i.e., employees who are employed for any period not exceeding five days at any one time and whose employment is of an irregular casual nature, shall be paid twenty per cent in addition to the rates herein prescribed in lieu of annual leave, sick leave and holidays with pay.
- (b) Weekly Employment

Except as otherwise provided in this award, employment shall be by the week. Any Employee not specifically engaged as a casual or intermittent employee shall be deemed to be employed by the week.

2. INTERMITTENT WORK

- (a) Employees who are employed for less than the number of hours fixed for an ordinary week's work who work between midnight Sunday and midnight the following Saturday shall be paid as follows:
 - (i) for each hour worked up to one half of the number of hours fixed for an ordinary week's work, at the ordinary wage rate with an addition of thirty three percent.
 - (ii) for each hour worked beyond the hours referred to in subclause (a) at the ordinary wage rate up to but not exceeding the ordinary wage rate for an ordinary weeks work.
- (b) An intermittent employee shall be ready, available and willing to work.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

3. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

Employment shall be terminated by one week's notice or, in the case of a casual employee by one hour's notice or; by the payment or forfeiture of one week's wages or, in the case of a casual, one hour's wages, as the case may be, but shall not affect the right of an employer to dismiss an employee without notice for misconduct or neglect of duty, in which case wages shall be payable up to the time of dismissal only.

PART III - WAGES AND RELATED MATTERS

1. WAGE RATES

(a) Adult Employees

An employee appointed or promoted to a position within a level prescribed by this award shall be paid at the weekly wage rate determined for that level by reference to the relevant classification standards as set out in the Classification Descriptors of this part.

(b) Minimum Wage

(i) Minimum Wage

No employee shall be paid less than the minimum wage.

(ii) Amount of Adult Minimum Wage

- (1) The minimum wage for full-time adult employees not covered by Part III – WAGES AND RELATED MATTERS, Clause 3 Supported Wage System is $467.40 per week.
- (2) Adults employed under a supported wage system clause shall continue to be entitled to receive the wage rate determined under that clause.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

Provided that such employees shall not be paid less than the amount determined by applying the percentage in the supported wage system clause applicable to the employee concerned to the amount of the minimum wage specified in subclause (ii)(1).

- (3) Adults employed as part-time or casual employees shall continue to be entitled to receive the wage rate determined under the casual and part-time clauses of the award. Provided that such employees shall not be paid less than pro rata the minimum wage specified in subclause (ii)(i) according to the number of hours worked.

(iii) How the Minimum Wage Applies to Juniors

- (1) The wage rates provided for juniors by this award continue to apply unless the amount determined under subclause (iii)(2) is greater.
- (2) The minimum wage for an employee to whom a junior rate of pay applies is determined by applying the percentage in the junior wage rates clause applicable to the employee concerned to the relevant amount in subclause (ii)(1).

(iv) Application of Minimum Wage to Certain Employees

Due to existing applicable award wage rates being greater than the relevant proportionate minimum wage, this clause will not apply to employees falling within the scope of the National Training Wage (Tasmanian Private Sector) Award and Trainees undertaking an apprenticeship.

(v) Application of Minimum Wage to Award Rates Calculation

The Minimum Wage:

- (1) applies to all work in ordinary hours;
- (2) applies to the calculation of overtime and all other penalty rates, superannuation, payments during sick leave, long service leave and annual leave, and for all other purposes of this award; and
- (2) is inclusive of the arbitrated safety net adjustment provided by the July 2004 State Wage Case Decision (T11548 of 2004) and all previous safety net and state wage case adjustments.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

3. SUPPORTED WAGE SYSTEM

(a) Eligibility criteria

Subject to this division an employer may engage employees at a supported wage rate (as set out in subclause (c) of this Clause) who meet the impairment criteria for receipt of a Disability Support Pension and who, because of their disability, are unable to perform the range of duties to the competence level normally required for the class of work for which they are engaged.

PROVIDED that this division does not apply to any existing employee who has a claim against the employer which is subject to the provisions of workers' compensation legislation or any provision of this award relating to the rehabilitation of employees who are injured in the course of their current employment.

PROVIDED FURTHER that this division does not apply to employers in respect of their facility, programme, undertaking, service or the like which receives funding under the Disability Services Act 1986 and fulfils the dual role of service provider and sheltered employer to people with disabilities who are in receipt of or are eligible for a disability support pension, except with respect to an organisation which has received recognition under s.10 or under s.12A of the above Act, or if a part only has received recognition, that part.

(b) For the purposes of this division:

- (i) 'Supported Wage System' means the Commonwealth Government System to promote employment for people who cannot work at full award wages because of a disability.
- (ii) 'Accredited Assessor' means a person accredited by the management unit established by the Commonwealth under the Supported Wage System to perform assessments of an individual's productive capacity within the Supported Wage System.
- (iii) 'Disability Support Pension' means the pension available under the Commonwealth pension scheme to provide income security for persons with a disability as provided under the Social Security Act 1991, as amended from time to time, or any successor to that scheme.
- (iv) 'Assessment instrument' means the form provided for under the Supported Wage System that records the assessment of the productive capacity of the person to be employed under the Supported Wage System.

(c) Supported wage rates

Employees to whom this Clause applies shall be paid the applicable percentage of the minimum rate of pay prescribed by this award for the class of work which the person is performing according to the following schedule:

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

Assessed Capacity (Subclause (d))	% of Prescribed Award Rate
10%	10%
20%	20%
30%	30%
40%	40%
50%	50%
60%	60%
70%	70%
80%	80%
90%	90%

PROVIDED that the minimum amount payable shall be not less than $61 per week.

(d) Assessment of capacity

For the purpose of establishing the percentage of the award rate to be paid to a supported wage employee under this award, the productive capacity of the employee will be assessed in accordance with the Supported Wage System and documented in an assessment instrument by either:

- (i) the employer and a union party to the award, in consultation with the employee or, if desired by any of these;
- (ii) the employer and an accredited Assessor from a panel agreed by the parties to the award and the employee.

(e) Lodgment of assessment instrument

- (i) All assessment instruments under the conditions of this division, including the appropriate percentage of the award wage to be paid to the employee, shall be lodged by the employer with the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission.
- (ii) All assessment instruments shall be agreed and signed by the parties to the assessment, provided that where a union which is party to the award, is not a party to the assessment, it shall be referred by the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission to the union by certified mail and shall take effect unless an objection is notified to the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission within 10 working days.

(f) Review of assessment

The assessment of the applicable percentage shall be subject to annual review or earlier on the basis of a reasonable request for such a review. The process of review shall be in accordance with the procedures for assessing capacity under the Supported Wage System.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(g) Other terms and conditions of employment

Where an assessment has been made, the applicable percentage shall apply to the wage rate only. Employees covered by the supported wage provisions of this clause shall be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as all other workers covered by this award who are paid on a pro rata basis.

(h) Workplace adjustment

An employer wishing to employ a person under the provisions of this division shall take reasonable steps to make changes in the workplace to enhance the employee's capacity to do the job. Changes may involve re-design of job duties, working time arrangements and work organisation in consultation with other workers in the area.

(i) Trial Period

- (i) In order for an adequate assessment of the employee's capacity to be made, an employer may employ a person under the provisions of this division for a trial period not exceeding 12 weeks, except that in some cases additional work adjustment time (not exceeding 4 weeks) may be needed.
- (ii) During that trial period the assessment of capacity shall be undertaken and the proposed wage rate for a continuing employment relationship shall be determined in accordance with subclause (d) and (e).
- (iii) The minimum amount payable to the employee during the trial period shall be no less than $61 per week or such greater amount as is agreed from time to time between the parties.
- (iv) Work trials should include induction or training as appropriate to the job being trialed.
- (v) Where the employer and employee wish to establish a continuing employment relationship following the completion of the trial period, a further contract of employment shall be entered into based on the outcome of assessment under subclause (c) hereof.

4. PAYMENT OF WAGES

- (a) Payment of wages shall be made weekly or fortnightly not later than Friday in the given pay week and shall be made in the employer's time.
- (b) Not more than 3 days' pay of each employee shall be kept in hand by the employer.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (c) Payment of wages is to be made on the day before a holiday with pay if a holiday with pay falls on the pay day.
- (d) Where an employer and employee agree, the employee may be paid his or her wages by cheque or by direct payment into the employee's bank account without the requirement for the employer to provide encashment facilities.
- (e) Except as provided in Part V – HOURS OF WORK, PENALTY PAYMENTS AND OVERTIME Clause 8 - Overtime, subclause (a) of this award, hourly rates shall be calculated by dividing the appropriate weekly rate by 38.
- (f) Where the services of an employee are dispensed with, his or her wages shall be paid on the day of dismissal or forwarded by post on the day following.

PROVIDED that in the case of an employee whose ordinary hours are 38 and is paid average pay and who has not taken the day or days off due to him during the work cycle in which his employment is terminated, the wages due to the employee shall include the total of credits accrued during the work cycle.

PROVIDED FURTHER that where the employee has taken a day or days off during the work cycle in which his employment is terminated, the wages due to that employee shall be reduced by the total of credits which have not accrued during the cycle.

5. MIXED FUNCTIONS

- (a) For Employees other than Clerical and Administrative Employees, and Junior Clerical and Administrative Employees the following shall apply:

An employee engaged on any day or shift on duties carrying a higher rate than his ordinary classification, shall be paid the higher rate for such day or shift.

The provisions of this clause shall not apply where an employee is engaged for a period of less than sixty minutes in the aggregate on relief duties during meal breaks, rest periods or absences from duty which have been arranged on behalf of another employee, in which case the employee directed to perform relief duties by his employer or the employer's representative, shall be paid the higher rate for the time so worked.

- (b) For Clerical and Administrative Employees and Junior Clerical and Administrative Employees the following shall apply

An employee engaged on a duty carrying a higher rate of pay than their ordinary classification shall be paid for such time worked in a period less than four hours at the higher rate of pay for the time so worked or where such time is worked for more than four hours in any one day, shall be paid for the time so worked.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

 - (3) 114 hours within a work cycle not exceeding twenty-one consecutive days; or
 - (4) 152 hours within a work cycle not exceeding twenty-eight consecutive days; or
 - (5) 152 hours within a work cycle exceeding twenty-eight consecutive days in establishments where the method of banking of rostered days off have been agreed to.
- (ii) Day Workers
- (1) The ordinary hours of work prescribed herein shall not exceed eight hours on any day and may be worked on any day or all of the days of the week, Monday to Friday.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(2) The ordinary hours of work for day workers prescribed herein shall be worked continuously, except for meal breaks, at the discretion of the employer, between 6.30am and 5.30pm.

(b) For Clerical and Administrative Employees and Junior Clerical and Administrative Employees the following shall apply

The maximum number of ordinary working hours each week in respect of which the rates of wages hereinbefore determined shall be paid shall be forty, to be worked in five days of eight hours each, between the hours of 6.30am and 5.30pm, Monday to Friday inclusive.

2. IMPLEMENTATION OF 38-HOUR WEEK

(a) From 1 July 1985, ordinary hours of work shall be 38, or an average of 38 per week as provided in Part V – HOURS OF WORK, PENALTY PAYMENTS AND OVERTIME Clause 1 - Hours of Work subclause (a) For Employees other than Clerical and Administrative Employees, and Juniors the following shall apply.

(b) Except as provided in subclauses (e) and (f) of this clause, the method of implementation of the 38-hour week may be one of the following:

(i) by employees working less than 8 ordinary hours each day; or

(ii) by employees working less than 8 ordinary hours on one or more days each week; or

(iii) by fixing one day in which all employees will be off during a particular work cycle; or

(iv) by rostering employees off on various days of the week during a particular work cycle so that each employee has one day off during that cycle; or

(v) by accruing an entitlement to rostered days off up to a maximum of seven days, or as otherwise mutually agreed and thereby averaging 38 hours over a period not exceeding twelve months.

(c) In each plant, an assessment should be made as to which method of implementation best suits the business and the proposal shall be discussed with the employees concerned, the objective being to reach agreement on the method of implementation prior to 1 July 1985. Subsequently, such method may be altered by mutual agreement.

(d) In the absence of agreement at plant level, the procedure for resolving grievances shall be applied in accordance with Part VII – CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION, Clause 2 - Disputes Settling Procedure. This procedure shall be applied without delay.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (e) Circumstances may arise where different methods of implementation of a 38-hour week apply to various groups or sections of employees in the plant or establishment concerned.
- (f) Notice of Days Off
 - (i) Except as provided in subclause (g) of this clause, in cases where by virtue of the arrangement of the employee's ordinary working hours, an employee in accordance with subclauses (b)(iii), (iv) and (v) of this clause, is entitled to a day or days off during the employee's work cycle, then such days off may be taken as mutually agreed between the employee and the employer.
 - (ii) Where a system of working is adopted to allow one rostered day off in each four week cycle or the banking of rostered days off, an employee shall not be entitled to more than 12 such rostered days off in any twelve month period.
- (g) Substitute Days

The day or days scheduled to be the day or days off in accordance with subclauses (b)(iii), (iv) and (v) of this clause may be worked as an ordinary working day or days without penalty when substituted by another day or days by agreement between the employer and the employee concerned or, where a number of employees are concerned, by agreement between the employer and the majority of the employees.

3. CONTINUITY OF WORK

For Clerical and Administrative Employees and Junior Clerical and Administrative Employees the following shall apply:

With the exception of a meal break as prescribed in Part V – HOURS OF WORK, PENALTY PAYMENTS AND OVERTIME, Clause 4 - Meal Interval of this award, the hours of work on each day shall be continuous unless by mutual consent the employer and employee agree to a variation of this provision.

4. MEAL INTERVAL

- (a) A meal break of not less than thirty minutes shall be granted between the hours of 11.30am and 1.30pm.
- (b) An employee shall not be required to work for more than five hours without a meal break.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

5. REST INTERVAL

Employees shall be allowed a rest interval of ten minutes during the first and second half of the day or shift at the discretion of the employer, at a time that will not interfere with production.

6. SATURDAY WORK

- (a) For all time of duty on Saturday payment shall be made at the rate of time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter.
- (b) The provisions of subclause (a) of this clause do not apply to shift workers for all time of duty on Saturdays during the months of September, October, November, December and January where payment shall be made at the rate of time and one half for the first three hours and double time thereafter.

7. SUNDAY AND HOLIDAY WORK

For all time of duty on Sundays, payment shall be made at the rate of double the ordinary rate with a minimum payment as for 4 hours worked.

All work done on any of the holidays specified in Part VI – LEAVE AND HOLIDAYS WITH PAY, Clause 5 - Holidays with Pay, of this award, shall be paid at the rate hereunder prescribed:

Day Workers	Double time and a half

8. OVERTIME

- (a) For Employees other than Clerical and Administrative Employees, and Junior Clerical and Administrative Employees the following shall apply:
 - (i) Subject to the provisions of Part V – HOURS OF WORK, PENALTY PAYMENTS AND OVERTIME, Clause 1 (a) - Hours of Work and Clause 2 - Implementation of 38 - Hour Week of this award, for all time of duty outside the regular hours or before the time fixed for commencing or after the time fixed for finishing work, payment shall be at the rate of time and one half for the first two hours and double time thereafter. The division for overtime to remain one fortieth of the weekly rate for the period of twelve months from the date of implementation of the 38-hour working week in this award.
 - (ii) In computing overtime, each day's work shall stand alone.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (iii) An employee after the completion of overtime work performed after his usual ceasing time shall be entitled to be absent until he has had ten consecutive hours off duty, without deduction of pay for ordinary time of duty occurring during such absence.

If on the instructions of his employer any employee resumes work without having had such ten hours off duty he shall be paid at double rates until he is relieved from duty to take such rest period, and he shall then be entitled to be absent until he has had ten consecutive hours off duty without deduction of pay for ordinary time of duty occurring during such absence.

- (b) For Clerical and Administrative Employees and Junior Clerical and Administrative Employees the following shall apply

- (i) For all time of duty outside the regular hours or before the time fixed for the commencing or, after the time fixed for finishing work, payment shall be made at the rate of time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter.

- (ii) In computing overtime, each day's work shall stand alone.

- (iii) An employee after the completion of overtime work performed after his usual ceasing time shall be entitled to be absent until he has had ten consecutive hours off duty, without deduction of pay for ordinary time of duty occurring during such absence.

If on the instructions of his employer any employee resumes work without having had such ten hours off duty he shall be paid at double rates until he is relieved from duty to take such rest period, and he shall then be entitled to be absent until he has had ten consecutive hours off duty without deduction of pay for ordinary time of duty occurring during such absence.

9. SHIFT WORKER

- (a) (i) Definitions for the purpose of this clause:

'Afternoon shift', means any shift finishing after 6.00pm and at or before midnight.

'Continuous shift', means work carried on with consecutive shifts of employees throughout the twenty four hours of each of at least six consecutive days without interruption, except during breakdowns or meal breaks, or due to unavoidable causes beyond the control of the employer.

'Night shift', means any shift finishing subsequent to midnight and at or before 8.00am.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

'Shift roster', is a roster of which the employee concerned has had at least forty-eight hours notice or such lesser time as mutually agreed between employer and employee.

- (ii) The ordinary hours of work of shift workers shall be an average of 38, worked on five shifts of equal hours, or six shifts of equal hours per week which includes a meal break of twenty minutes in the employer's time, subject to the provisions of this clause.
 - (iii) If an employee is not given twenty-four hours notice of a change of shift, subject to subclause (a)(i) - "Shift Roster", the employee shall be paid at overtime rates for that shift.
- (b) Shift Rate
- (i) Employees engaged on shift work shall be paid fifteen per cent in addition to the rates of pay prescribed for ordinary hours worked from Monday to Friday, inclusive.
 - (ii) For time worked on Saturday or Sunday the rates of pay shall be in accordance with Part V - HOURS OF WORK, PENALTY PAYMENTS AND OVERTIME Clauses 6 - Saturday Work and 7 - Sunday and Holiday Work of this award.
 - (iii) This additional allowance shall not be taken into consideration in the computation of penalty rates prescribed for work performed on any of the holidays prescribed in Part VI - LEAVE AND HOLIDAYS WITH PAY, Clause 5 - Holidays with Pay Other Than Clerical and Administrative Employees.

10. REQUIREMENT TO WORK REASONABLE OVERTIME

- (a) Subject to subclause (b) an employer may require an employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates.
- (b) An employee may refuse to work overtime in circumstances where the working of such overtime would result in the employee working hours which are unreasonable having regard to:
 - (c) any risk to employee health and safety;
 - (d) the employee's personal circumstances including any family responsibilities;
 - (e) the needs of the workplace or enterprise;
 - (f) the notice (if any) given by the employer of the overtime and by the employee of his or her intention to refuse it; and
 - (g) any other relevant matter.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

PART VI - LEAVE AND HOLIDAYS WITH PAY

1. ANNUAL LEAVE

(a) Period of Leave

(i) Day Workers

A period of twenty-eight consecutive days leave shall be allowed annually to an employee after 12 months continuous service (less the period of annual leave).

(ii) Shift Workers

In addition to the leave prescribed in paragraph (i) of this subclause, shift workers, that is employees who are rostered to work regularly on Sundays and holidays, shall be allowed seven consecutive days leave including non-working days.

Where an employee with twelve months continuous service is engaged for part of the twelve monthly period as a shift worker, he shall be entitled to have the period of annual leave prescribed in paragraph (i) of this subclause increased by one half of a day for each month he is continuously engaged.

(b) Time of Taking Leave

Annual leave shall be given at a time fixed by the employer within a period not exceeding six months from the date when the right to annual leave accrued.

PROVIDED that not less than four weeks notice shall be given to the employee that his annual leave is to be taken.

(c) Payment in Lieu Prohibited

Except as provided in subclause (d) of this clause, payment shall not be made or accepted in lieu of annual leave.

(d) Proportionate Leave on Termination of Service

If after the first 12 months service and then after the first one months service in any twelve monthly period an employee lawfully leaves his employment, or his employment is terminated by the employer, except for neglect of duty or misconduct, the employee shall be paid 12 2/3 hours for each completed month of continuous service.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(e) Annual Leave Exclusive of Public Holidays

Should any of the holidays with pay mentioned in Part VI – LEAVE AND HOLIDAYS WITH PAY, Clause 5 - Holidays with Pay, fall during an employee's annual leave, there shall be added to that leave one additional day or days for each such holiday with pay so falling.

Where a holiday with pay falls as aforesaid and the employee fails without reasonable cause, proof whereof shall be upon him, to attend for work at his ordinary starting time on the working day immediately following the last day of the period of his annual leave, he shall not be entitled to be paid for any such holiday with pay.

(f) Payment for Period of Leave

(i) Each employee before going on leave shall be paid the amount of wages he would have received had he not been on leave during the relevant period or periods, plus a loading equal to seventeen and one half per cent of the amount paid in respect of annual leave.

(ii) In respect of shift workers, an employee who would have worked on shift work had he not been on leave, will receive a loading equal to seventeen and one half per cent of the amount paid in respect of annual leave.

PROVIDED that where a shift worker would have received a shift loading for the relevant period had he not been on leave, and such loading would have entitled him to a greater amount than the loading of seventeen and one half per cent, then the employee shall be paid in accordance with his projected roster in lieu of the seventeen and one half per cent loading.

PROVIDED FURTHER that if the shift loadings are a lesser amount than the loading of seventeen and one half per cent, then the seventeen and one half per cent loading shall be paid.

(iii) The loading prescribed in this subclause shall not apply to proportionate leave on termination of service.

(g) Broken Leave

Annual leave shall be taken in a continuous period.

PROVIDED that where the employee and employer agree, leave may be taken in two or more periods.

(h) Disputes

Any dispute as to the rights of an employee to or with respect to annual leave, shall be dealt with by the Tasmanian Industrial Commission whose decision shall be final.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

2. SICK LEAVE OTHER THAN CLERICAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EMPLOYEES

- (a) An employee, other than one engaged as a casual, who is absent from work on account of personal illness or on account of injury by accident, shall be entitled to leave of absence without deduction of pay, subject to the following conditions and limitations:
- (i) shall not be entitled to such leave of absence for any period in respect of which he is entitled to workers' compensation;
 - (ii) shall, within twenty four hours of the commencement of such absence, inform the employer of his inability to attend for work, and as far as may be practicable, state the nature of the illness or injury and the estimated duration of the absence;
 - (iii) shall prove to the satisfaction of the employer (or in the event of a dispute, the Tasmanian Industrial Commission), that he was unable on account of such illness or injury to attend for work on the day or days for which the sick leave is claimed;
 - (iv) shall not be entitled in any year (whether in the employment of one employer or of more) to sick leave credit in excess of two weeks of ordinary working time;
 - (v) for the purpose of administering paragraph (iv) of this subclause, an employer may within one month of this award coming into operation or within two weeks of the employee entering his employment, require an employee to make a sworn declaration or other written statement as to what paid leave of absence he has had from any employer during the then current year, and upon such statement the employer shall be entitled to rely and act.
- (b) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in subclause (a) (iv) of this clause which has in any year not been allowed to an employee by an employer as paid sick leave, shall be credited to the employee and, subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed, shall be allowed by that employer in a subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year.
- (c) An employer shall not be required to make any payment in respect of accumulated sick leave credits to an employee who is discharged or leaves his employment, or for any time an employee is absent from work without producing satisfactory evidence of personal illness.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(d) Sickness on Day Off

From 1 July 1985, where an employee is sick or injured on the week day he is to take off in accordance with subclause (b)(iii), (iv) and (v) of Part V – HOURS OF WORK, PENALTY PAYMENTS AND OVERTIME Clause 2 - Implementation of 38-Hour Week, of this award, he shall not be entitled to sick pay nor will his sick pay entitlements be reduced as a result of his sickness or injury on that day.

3. SICK LEAVE CLERICAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EMPLOYEES

- (a) An employee, other than one engaged as a casual, who is absent from work on account of personal illness or on account of injury by accident shall be entitled to leave of absence without deduction of pay, subject to the following conditions and limitations:
- (i) shall not be entitled to such leave of absence for any period in respect of which he is entitled to workers' compensation;
 - (ii) shall, within forty eight hours of the commencement of such absence, inform the employer of his inability to attend for work, and as far as may be practicable state the nature of the illness or injury and the estimated duration of the absence;
 - (iii) shall prove to the satisfaction of the employer (or in the event of a dispute, the Tasmanian Industrial Commission) that he was unable on account of such illness or injury to attend for work on the day or days for which the sick leave is claimed;
 - (iv) shall not be entitled in any year (whether in the employment of one employer or of more) to sick leave credit in excess of two weeks of ordinary working time;
 - (v) for the purpose of administering paragraph (iv) of this subclause, an employer may within one month of this award coming into operation or, within two weeks of the employee entering his employment, require an employee to make a sworn declaration or other written statement as to what paid leave of absence he has had from any employer during the then current year, and upon such statement the employer shall be entitled to rely and act.
- (b) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in subclause (a)(iv) of this clause which has in any year not been allowed to an employee by an employer as paid sick leave, shall be credited to the employee and, subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed, shall be allowed by that employer in a subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (c) An employer shall not be required to make any payment in respect of accumulated sick leave credits to an employee who is discharged or leaves his employment, or for any time an employee is absent from work without producing satisfactory evidence of personal illness.

4. HOLIDAYS WITH PAY

- (a) All employees (other than casuals) shall be allowed the following days as holidays with pay:

New Year's Day, Australia Day, Hobart Regatta Day (south of Oatlands), Labour Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Show Day (as defined), Recreation Day (where Hobart Regatta Day is not observed), Christmas Day and Boxing Day.

- (b) Payment for holidays with pay mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause, which are taken and not worked, shall be at the normal rate of pay which would have applied to the employee concerned, when, if it were not for such holiday with pay, he had been at work.
- (c) Payment to an employee for work performed on holidays with pay mentioned in subclause (a) of this clause, shall be at the rates prescribed elsewhere in this award.
- (d) Where consequent upon any visit to Australia by Her Majesty the Queen, or any other member of the Royal Family, a Public Holiday is proclaimed by the Governor in Council and gazetted by the Tasmanian Government under a State Act throughout the State or part thereof and under the Tasmanian Industrial Commission, such a day shall, within the definite locality, be deemed to be a holiday with pay for the purposes of this award.

5. PARENTAL LEAVE

Subject to the terms of this clause employees are entitled to maternity, paternity and adoption leave and to work part-time in connection with the birth or adoption of a child.

- (a) Definitions

For the purposes of this clause

- (i) 'Child' means a child of the employee under the age of one year except for adoption of a child where 'child' means a person under the age of five years who is placed with the employee for the purposes of adoption, other than a child or step-child of the employee or of the parent of the employee or a child who has previously lived continuously with the employee for a period of six months or more.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (ii) 'Continuous service' means service under an unbroken contract of employment and includes:
 - (1) any period of leave taken in accordance with this clause;
 - (2) any period of part-time employment worked in accordance with this clause; or
 - (3) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or by the award.
 - (iii) 'Employee' includes a part-time employee but does not include an employee engaged upon casual or seasonal work, unless that work has been under a continuous contract of employment of at least 12 months.
 - (iv) 'Primary care-giver' means a person who assumes the principal role of providing care and attention to a child.
- (b) Entitlement
- (i) After twelve months continuous service, parents are entitled to a combined total of 52 weeks unpaid parental leave on a shared basis in relation to the birth or adoption of their child. For mothers, maternity leave provisions apply and for parents, other than the mother, parenting leave provisions apply. Adoption leave provisions apply in the case of adoption.
 - (ii) Subject to subclause (c)(vi), parental leave is to be available to only one parent at a time, in a single unbroken period, except that both parents may simultaneously take:
 - (1) for maternity and parenting leave, an unbroken period of up to one week at the time of the birth of the child;
 - (2) for adoption leave, an unbroken period of up to three weeks at the time of placement of the child.
 - (iii) Unless otherwise agreed between the employee and the employer, parental leave shall be granted and taken in accordance with the notice given by the employee as specified below.
- (c) Maternity Leave
- (i) An employee must provide notice to the employer in advance of the expected date of commencement of parental leave. The notice requirements are;
 - (1) of the expected date of confinement (included in a certificate from a registered medical practitioner stating that the employee is pregnant) - at least 10 weeks;

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (2) of the date on which the employee proposes to commence maternity leave and the period of leave to be taken - at least 4 weeks.
- (ii) Where the employee gives notice under (d)(i) the employee must also provide a statutory declaration stating particulars of any period of parenting leave sought or taken by the parent, other than the mother, and that for the period of maternity leave she will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with her contract of employment.
 - (iii) An employee will not be in breach of this clause if failure to give the stipulated notice is occasioned by confinement occurring earlier than the presumed date or other compelling circumstances.
 - (iv) An employee may commence maternity leave at any time within six weeks immediately prior to the expected date of birth.
 - (v) Where an employee continues to work within the six week period immediately prior to the expected date of birth, or where the employee elects to return to work within six weeks after the birth of the child, an employer may require the employee to provide a medical certificate stating that she is fit to work on her normal duties.
 - (vi) Special maternity leave
 - (1) Where the pregnancy of an employee not then on maternity leave terminates after 28 weeks other than by the birth of a living child, then the employee may take unpaid special maternity leave of such periods as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary.
 - (2) Where an employee is suffering from an illness not related to the direct consequences of the confinement, an employee may take any paid sick leave to which she is entitled in lieu of, or in addition to, special maternity leave.
 - (3) Where an employee not then on maternity leave suffers illness related to her pregnancy, she may take any paid sick leave to which she is then entitled and such further unpaid special maternity leave as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work. The aggregate of paid sick leave, special maternity leave and parental leave, including parenting leave taken by a parent other than the mother, may not exceed 52 weeks.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(vii) Transfer to a safe job

- (1) Where an employee is pregnant and, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue at her present work, the employee will, if the employer deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of maternity leave.
- (2) If the transfer to a safe job is not practicable, the employee may elect, or the employer may require the employee to commence parental leave for such period as is certified necessary by a registered medical practitioner.

(d) Parenting Leave

- (i) An employee will provide to the employer at least 10 weeks prior to each proposed period parenting leave:
 - (1) that a certificate from a registered medical practitioner which names the mother, states that she is pregnant and the expected date of confinement, or states the date on which the birth took place, and
 - (2) written notification of the proposed dates on which the period of parenting leave will start and finish and
 - (3) a statutory declaration stating:
 - (A) that period of parenting leave will be taken to become the primary care-giver of a child;
 - (B) particulars of any period of maternity leave sought or taken by the mother, and
 - (C) that for the period of parenting leave, the employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with their contract of employment.
 - (4) The employee will not be in breach of this subclause if the failure to give the required period of notice is because of the birth occurring earlier than expected, the death of the mother of the child, or other compelling circumstances.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(e) Adoption Leave

- (i) The employee will notify the employer at least ten weeks in advance of the date of commencement of adoption leave and the period of leave to be taken. An employee may commence adoption leave prior to providing such notice, where through circumstances beyond the control of the employee, the adoption of a child takes place earlier.
- (ii) Before commencing adoption leave, an employee will provide the employer with a statutory declaration stating:
 - (1) the employee is seeking adoption leave to become the primary care-giver of the child;
 - (2) particulars of any period of adoption leave sought or taken by any other person in respect of that child, and
 - (3) that for the period of adoption leave the employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with their contract of employment.
- (iii) An employer may require an employee to provide confirmation from the appropriate government authority of the placement.
- (iv) Where the placement of a child for adoption with an employee does not proceed or continue, the employee will notify the employer immediately and the employer will nominate a time not exceeding four weeks from receipt of notification for the employee's return to work.
- (v) An employee will not be in breach of this subclause as a consequence of failure to give the stipulated periods of notice if such failure results from a requirement of an adoption agency to accept earlier or later placement of a child, the death of an adoptive parent or other compelling circumstances.
- (vi) An employee seeking to adopt a child is entitled to unpaid leave for the purpose of attending any compulsory interviews or examinations as are necessary as part of the adoption procedure. The employee and the employer should agree on the length of the unpaid leave. Where agreement cannot be reached, the employee is entitled to take up to two days unpaid leave. Where paid leave is available to the employee, the employer may require the employee to take such leave instead

(f) Parental leave and other entitlements

An employee may in lieu of or in conjunction with parental leave, access any annual leave or long service leave entitlements which they have accrued subject to the total amount of leave not exceeding 52 weeks.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(g) Part time work

(i) Entitlement

With the agreement of the employer:

- (1) An employee may work part-time in one or more periods at anytime from the date of birth of the child until its second birthday or, in relation to adoption, from the date of placement of the child until the second anniversary of the placement.
- (2) A female employee may work part-time in one or more periods while she is pregnant where part-time employment is, because of the pregnancy, necessary or desirable.

(ii) Effect of Part-time Employment on Continuous Service

Commencement on part-time work under this clause, and return from part-time work to full-time work under this clause, shall not break the continuity of service or employment.

(iii) Pro Rata Entitlements

Subject to the provisions of this subclause and the matters agreed to in accordance with this subclause, part-time employment shall be in accordance with the provisions of this award which shall apply pro rata.

(iv) Transitional Arrangements - Annual Leave

- (1) An employee working part-time under this subclause shall be entitled to any leave accrued in respect of a period full-time employment, as if the employee was still working full-time, in the position held prior to taking leave.
- (2) (A) A full-time employee shall be entitled to annual leave accrued in respect of a period of part-time employment under this subclause, as if the employee was working part-time in the position held, immediately before resuming full-time work.

(B) Provided that, by agreement between the employer and the employee, the period over which the leave is taken may be shortened to the extent necessary for the employee to receive pay at the employee's current full-time rate.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(v) Transitional Arrangements - Sick Leave

An employee working part-time under this subclause shall have sick leave entitlements which have accrued under this award (including any entitlements accrued in respect of previous full-time employment) converted into hours. When this entitlement is used, whether as a part-time employee or as a full-time employee, it shall be debited for the ordinary hours that the employee would have worked during the period of absence.

(vi) Part-time Work Agreement

- (1) Before commencing a period of part-time employment under this subclause the employee and the employer shall agree:
 - (A) that the employee may work part-time;
 - (B) upon the hours to be worked by the employee, the days upon which they will be worked and commencing times for the work;
 - (C) upon the classification applying to the work to be performed; and
 - (D) upon the period of part-time employment.
- (2) The terms of this agreement may be varied by consent.
- (3) The terms of this agreement or any variation to it shall be reduced to writing and retained by the employer. A copy of the agreement and any variation to it shall be provided to the employee by the employer.
- (4) The terms of this agreement shall apply to the part-time employment.

(vii) Termination of Employment

- (1) The employment of a part-time employee under this clause, may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of this award but may not be terminated by the employer because the employee has exercised or proposes to exercise any rights arising under this clause or has enjoyed or proposes to enjoy any benefits arising under this clause.
- (2) Any termination entitlements payable to an employee whose employment is terminated while working part-time under this clause, or while working full-time after transferring from part-time work under this clause, shall be calculated by reference to the full-time rate of pay at the time of termination and by regarding all service as a full-time employee as qualifying for a termination entitlement based on the period of full-time employment and all service as a part-time employee on a pro rata basis.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(viii) Extension of Hours of Work

An employer may request, but not require, an employee working part-time under this clause to work outside or in excess of the employee's ordinary hours of duty provided for in accordance with this award.

(ix) Nature of Part-time Work

The work to be performed part-time need not be the work performed by the employee in his or her former position but shall be work otherwise performed under this award.

(x) Inconsistent Award Provisions

An employee may work part-time under this clause notwithstanding any other provisions of this award which limits or restricts the circumstances in which part-time employment may be worked or the terms upon which it may be worked including provisions:

- (1) limiting the number of employee who may work part-time.
- (2) establishing quotas as to the ration of part-time to full-time employees;
- (3) prescribing a minimum or maximum number of hours a part-time employee may work; or
- (4) requiring consultation with, consent of or monitoring by a union; and such provisions do not apply to part-time work under this clause.

(h) Replacement Employees

- (i) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a result of an employee proceeding on parental leave or working part time in accordance with this clause.
- (ii) A replacement employee may be employed part-time. The provisions of this subclause in relation to annual leave and sick leave apply to the part-time employment of replacement employees.
- (iii) Before an employer engages a replacement employee under this paragraph, the employer shall inform the person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced. Specifically, the employer must advise that the period of engagement is subject to variation or change in the event that the employee on leave exercises the right to vary the period of leave.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (iv) Unbroken service as a replacement employee shall be treated as continuous service.
- (v) Nothing in this subclause shall be construed as requiring an employer to engage a replacement employee.
- (i) Return to former position after a period of parental leave or part-time work

Unless otherwise agreed between employee and employer, and consistent with the provisions of this clause

- (i) An employee will give at least four weeks' notice prior of their intention to return to work after a period of parental leave or part-time work in accordance with this clause.
- (ii) An employee will be entitled to the position which they held immediately before proceeding on parental leave or part-time work. In the case of an employee transferred to a safe job pursuant to subclause (c)(vii), the employee will be entitled to return to the position they held immediately before such transfer.
- (iii) During the period of parental leave an employee shall be entitled to return to work at any time, as agreed between the employer and the employee, provided that the employer may require notice of not more than four weeks.
- (iv) An employee shall be entitled to extend the period of parental leave on one occasion, provided that the employer may require notice of not more than four weeks.

By mutual agreement between the employee and the employer, the period of leave may be further extended.

- (j) Redundancy
 - (i) If a position held by an employee prior to taking parental leave is likely to be made redundant before the employee returns to work, the employer must advise the employee of the impending redundancy, provide an opportunity for consultation and shall not disadvantage the employee by virtue of the taking of parental leave.
 - (ii) Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the employee will be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of their former position.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

6. BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

An employee shall on the death of a wife, husband, father, mother, child, stepchild, brother, sister, mother-in-law, father-in-law, stepmother, stepfather, grandfather, grandmother, be entitled, upon application being made to and approved by the employer, to leave up to and including the day of the funeral of such relative and such leave will be without deduction of pay not exceeding the number of ordinary hours worked by the employee in three ordinary days.

PROVIDED that no payment shall be made in respect of an employee's rostered day off.

Proof of such death, in the form of a death notice or other written evidence, shall be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the employer.

PROVIDED FURTHER that this clause shall have no operation while the period of entitlement to leave under it coincides with any other period of entitlement to leave.

For the purpose of this clause the words `wife' and `husband' shall not include a wife or husband from whom the employee is separated, but shall include a person who lives with the employee as a de facto wife or husband.

7. CARER'S LEAVE

(a) Paid Carer's Leave

- (i) In accordance with this subclause, an employee is entitled to use up to a maximum of five days per annum of any current or accrued sick leave entitlement provided for at Clauses 2 and 3 of PART VI - LEAVE AND HOLIDAYS WITH PAY of the award for absences to provide care and support for either members of their immediate family or household who need their care and support when they are ill.

Where a part-time employee's hours of work are not constant the employee's entitlement to carer's leave shall be based on the average number of weekly hours worked by the employee during the 12 month period immediately preceding the commencement of the relevant period of carer's leave or the employee's actual period of service if less than 12 months.

Leave may be taken for part of a single day.

- (ii) If required the employee must establish, either by production of a medical certificate or statutory declaration, the illness of the person concerned and that the illness is such as to require care by another person.
- (iii) The entitlement to use sick leave in accordance with this subclause is subject to the person being either:

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (1) a member of the employee's immediate family, or
- (2) a member of the employee's household.

The term 'immediate family' includes:

- (A) spouse (including a former spouse, a de facto spouse and a former de facto spouse) of the employee. A de facto spouse, in relation to a person, means a person of the opposite sex to the first mentioned person who lives with the first mentioned person as the husband or wife of that person on a bona fide domestic basis although not legally married to that person; and
 - (B) child or an adult child (including an adopted child, a step child, a foster child or an ex nuptial child), parent (including foster parent, step parent and legal guardian), grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the employee or spouse of the employee.
- (iv) Where practicable the employee must give the employer notice prior to the absence of the intention to take leave, the name of the person requiring care and the person's relationship to the employee, the reasons for taking such leave and the estimated length of absence. If it is not practicable to give prior notice of absence, the employee shall notify the employer by telephone of such absence at the first opportunity on the day of absence.
- (v) In normal circumstances an employee must not take carer's leave under this clause where another person has taken leave to care for the same person.
- (b) Unpaid Carer's Leave

An employee may elect, with the consent of the employer, to take unpaid leave for the purpose of providing care to a family or household member who is ill.

(c) Grievance Process

The dispute settlement clause of the award applies to a dispute about the effect or operation of this clause.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

PART VII - CONSULTATION & DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. ENTERPRISE FLEXIBILITY

For Employees (other than Clerical and Administrative Employees, and Junior Clerical and Administrative Employees the following shall apply:

- (a) Procedures shall be established for In-Plant discussions, the objective being to agree on the method of implementing a 38-hour week in accordance with Part V – HOURS OF WORK, PENALTY PAYMENTS AND OVERTIME, Clause 1 -Hours of Work, of this award, and entailing an objective review of current practices to establish where improvements can be made and implemented.
- (b) The procedures should allow for In-Plant discussions to continue even though all matters may not be resolved by 1 July 1985.
- (c) The procedures should make suggestions as to the recording of understandings reached and the methods of communicating agreements and understandings to all employees.
- (d) The procedures should allow for the monitoring of agreements and understandings reached In-Plant.
- (e) In cases where agreement cannot be reached in the first instance or where problems arise after initial agreements or understandings have been achieved In-Plant, a formal monitoring procedure shall apply. The basic steps in this procedure shall be in accordance with Part VII – CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION Clause 2 - Disputes Settling Procedure of this award.
- (f) There shall be on-going regular reviews of work practices to establish where improvements can be made and implemented.

2 DISPUTES SETTLING PROCEDURE

For Employees other than Clerical and Administrative Employees, and Junior Clerical and Administrative Employees prescribed in Part III – WAGES AND RELATED MATTERS Clause 1 Wage Rates subclause (f) and (g) the following shall apply:

Subject to the provisions of the Industrial Relations Act, 1984 any dispute or claim arising out of or relating to this award shall be dealt with in the following manner:

- (a) the matter shall first be discussed between the employee and his or her immediate supervisor;
- (b) if not settled the matter shall be discussed between the employee's delegate and the employer's supervisor and Branch Management;

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (c) if not settled the matter shall be referred to the State Secretary of the union for discussion between the appropriate union representatives and Senior Management of the Company;
- (d) if the matter is not settled it shall be submitted to the Tasmanian Industrial Commission for determination;
- (e) while the above procedure is being followed every attempt will be made to avoid industrial action being taken.

PART VIII - OCCUPATION HEALTH & SAFETY, TOOLS AND AMENITIES

1. CHANGE ROOM AND ABLUTION FACILITIES

The employer shall provide a suitable place where employees may take their midday meal and/or change their clothes, and proper washing facilities.

2. PROTECTIVE CLOTHING

An employee required to work in rain shall be provided with a waterproof coat and suitable head covering so as to protect the employee from getting wet.

PROVIDED that where such clothing is not supplied, the employee shall be paid an allowance of 58 cents per day in lieu thereof, whatever amount of work has been performed.

3. FOOTWEAR

Employees shall be paid a footwear allowance of 93 cents per week.

PROVIDED that protective footwear shall be supplied by the employer to clerks and other employees who in the course of their duties are required to traverse floors coated with cream, acid, neutralisers, etc.

Alternatively, suitable protective footwear shall be provided by the employer as required up to a maximum of three pairs per year.

4. WORKING GARMENTS

When an employee is required by his employer to wear a washable outer garment, such garment shall be provided by the employer.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

PART IX - AWARD COMPLIANCE AND UNION RELATED MATTERS

1. RIGHT OF ENTRY OF UNION OFFICIALS

Right of entry for a duly accredited union representative shall be in accordance with the provision of section 77 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984.
