

TASMANIAN INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

Industrial Relations Act 1984
s.23 application for award or award variation

Australian Workers' Union
Tasmanian Branch
(T.3826 of 1992)

SHELLFISH INDUSTRY AWARD

COMMISSIONER R J WATLING

2 June 1992

Award variation - Contract of employment

REASONS FOR DECISION

This application was lodged by the Australian Workers' Union, Tasmanian Branch for the purpose of varying the Shellfish Industry Award by redrafting and simplifying the contract of employment clause contained therein.

This is a consent application which does no harm to the Wage Fixing Principles nor the Public Interest requirements of the Act and therefore is endorsed by the Commission.

The Order giving effect to this decision is attached and will be operative from the first full pay period to commence on after 29 May 1992.

Appearances:

Mr G Cooper for the Australian Workers' Union, Tasmanian Branch.

Mr W Fitzgerald for the Tasmanian Confederation of Industries.

Date and place of hearing:

1992
May 29
Hobart