PROVIDED further when determining the amount payable to an employee attaining the age of 21 years, who has been employed as a junior clerk in the trades or groups of trades in respect of which the awards of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission relating to private industry employees are established, experience obtained after reaching the age of 18 years shall be counted as adult experience.

DIVISION E - SUPPORTED WAGE SYSTEM

(a) Eligibility criteria

Subject to this division an employer may engage employees at a supported wage rate (as set out in subclause (c) of this division) who meet the impairment criteria for receipt of a Disability Support Pension and who, because of their disability, are unable to perform the range of duties to the competence level normally required for the class of work for which they are engaged.

PROVIDED that this division does not apply to any existing employee who has a claim against the employer which is subject to the provisions of workers' compensation legislation or any provision of this award relating to the rehabilitation of employees who are injured in the course of their current employment.

PROVIDED FURTHER that this division does not apply to employers in respect of their facility, program, undertaking, service or the like which receives funding under the Disability Services Act 1986 and fulfils the dual role of service provider and sheltered employer to people with disabilities who are in receipt of or are eligible for a disability support pension, except with respect to an organisation which has received recognition under Section 10 or under Section 12A of the above Act, or if a part only has received recognition, that part.

(b) For the purposes of this division:

'Supported Wage System' means the Commonwealth Government System to promote employment for people who cannot work at full award wages because of a disability.

'Accredited Assessor' means a person accredited by the management unit established by the Commonwealth under the Supported Wage System to perform assessments of an individual's productive capacity within the Supported Wage System.

'Disability Support Pension' means the pension available under the Commonwealth pension scheme to provide income security for persons with a disability as provided under the Social Security Act 1991, as amended from time to time, or any successor to that scheme.

'Assessment instrument' means the form provided for under the Supported Wage System that records the assessment of the productive capacity of the person to be employed under the Supported Wage System.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(c) Supported wage rates

Employees to whom this division applies shall be paid the applicable percentage of the minimum rate of pay prescribed by this award for the class of work which the person is performing according to the following schedule:

Assessed capacity (paragraph (d))	Percentage of prescribed award rate
10%	10
20%	20
30%	30
40%	40
50%	50
60%	60
70%	70
80%	80
90%	90

PROVIDED that the minimum amount payable shall be not less than $61 per week.

(d) Assessment of capacity

For the purpose of establishing the percentage of the award rate to be paid to a supported wage employee under this award, the productive capacity of the employee will be assessed in accordance with the Supported Wage System and documented in an assessment instrument by either:

- (i) the employer and a union party to the award, in consultation with the employee or, if desired by any of these;
- (ii) the employer and an accredited Assessor from a panel agreed by the parties to the award and the employee.

(e) Lodgement of assessment instrument

- (i) All assessment instruments under the conditions of this division, including the appropriate percentage of the award wage to be paid to the employee, shall be lodged by the employer with the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission.
- (ii) All assessment instruments shall be agreed and signed by the parties to the assessment, provided that where a union which is party to the award, is not a party to the assessment, it shall be referred by the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission to the union by certified mail and shall take effect unless an objection is notified to the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission within 10 working days.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(f) Review of assessment

The assessment of the applicable percentage shall be subject to annual review or earlier on the basis of a reasonable request for such a review. The process of review shall be in accordance with the procedures for assessing capacity under the Supported Wage System.

(g) Other terms and conditions of employment

Where an assessment has been made, the applicable percentage shall apply to the wage rate only. Employees covered by the supported wage provisions of this division shall be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as all other workers covered by this award who are paid on a pro rata basis.

(h) Workplace adjustment

An employer wishing to employ a person under the provisions of this division shall take reasonable steps to make changes in the workplace to enhance the employee's capacity to do the job. Changes may involve re-design of job duties, working time arrangements and work organisation in consultation with other workers in the area.

(i) Trial Period

- (i) In order for an adequate assessment of the employee's capacity to be made, an employer may employ a person under the provisions of this division for a trial period not exceeding 12 weeks, except that in some cases additional work adjustment time (not exceeding four weeks) may be needed.
- (ii) During that trial period the assessment of capacity shall be undertaken and the proposed wage rate for a continuing employment relationship shall be determined in accordance with paragraphs (d) and (e).
- (iii) The minimum amount payable to the employee during the trial period shall be no less than $61 per week or such greater amount as is agreed from time to time between the parties.
- (iv) Work trials should include induction or training as appropriate to the job being trialed.
- (v) Where the employer and employee wish to establish a continuing employment relationship following the completion of the trial period, a further contract of employment shall be entered into based on the outcome of assessment under subclause (c) hereof.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

CONDITIONS FOR EMPLOYEES IN DIVISION A - EMPLOYEES ENGAGED IN THE PRODUCTION OF CONCRETE PRODUCTS

9. ALLOWANCES

The following allowances are in addition to the rates provided in Clause 8 - Wage Rates.

- (a) Lumpers of cement or concrete articles (in and out of tanks) $0.33 per hour in respect of such time actually spent in tanks containing water with a minimum payment as for four hours.
- (b) For work done away from the employer's place of business:
 - (i) the fares necessarily expended in going from and to the employee's residence to and from his work;
 - (ii) for work done at a distance from the employer's place of business if the employee is unable to return to his home the same night and the employer does not provide board and lodging $16.30 per day for the first seven days and thereafter $113.90 per week.
- (c) Bituminous Sprayer:

An employee spraying or using bituminous and other similar preparations on exterior surface shall be paid $0.33 per hour or part of an hour whilst so engaged.
- (d) An employee engaged on the preparation and/or the application of epoxy based materials shall be paid an allowance of $0.45 per hour, or part of an hour whilst so engaged.
- (e) Sand Blasting - An employee required to use a sand blasting machine shall be paid an allowance of $0.45 per hour or part thereof.

10. ANNUAL LEAVE

- (a) An employee (other than a casual) who has been continuously employed by the employer for at least one year (less the period of annual leave) shall for each completed year of such service, be entitled to leave of absence for a period equal to 28 consecutive days, the period to be reckoned in addition to any of the holidays prescribed by this award.
- (b) In respect to a period of annual leave an employee (other than a casual) shall be paid whichever is the greater of:-
 - (i) The amount of wages he would have received in respect to the ordinary time which he would have worked had he not been on leave during the relevant period, For the purpose of this clause 'amount of wages' shall include:

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

Wages prescribed by Clause 8 - Wage Rates of this award, shift work premiums according to roster or public holiday shifts; leading hand allowances, first aid allowances, service grants; incentive bonus scheme payments on the basis of average weekly earning during ordinary hours over the preceding 13 weeks.

The following items will not be included when assessing an employee's 'amount of wages':-

Overtime; camping allowances; travelling allowances; disability rates; car allowances; meal allowances.

OR

- (ii) The wage prescribed by Clause 8 - Wage Rates of this award plus leading hand and first aid allowances where appropriate plus a loading of 17 1/2 percent calculated on the sum of the above wage, leading hand and first aid allowances, where appropriate.
- (c) Annual leave, by agreement between the employer and the employee concerned, may be given and taken in more than one period and may be taken before the right thereto has accrued.
- (d) Should the employment be terminated by either party before the completion of any 12 months' period of employment, the employee shall be paid 1/12th of the total amount of wages (as defined in subclause (b) (i) of this clause) that he earned during his period of employment or since he last became entitled to and proceeded on annual leave, less any payments made in respect to annual leave taken before the right thereto had accrued.
- (e) Calculation of Continuous Service

For the purpose of this clause, service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding any absence from work on account of personal sickness or accident.

In calculating the period of 12 months continuous service any such absence as aforesaid shall not, except to the extent of not more than 91 days in any 12 monthly period, be taken into account in calculating the period of 12 months continuous service.

PROVIDED however this limitation shall not apply to an injury for which compensation is payable under an Act of Parliament relating to Workers' Compensation in respect of a period of less than 12 months.

- (f) Each employee, before going on leave, shall be paid the amount to which he would be entitled according to the provisions of subclause (b) hereof.
- (g) The annual leave provided for by this clause shall be allowed and shall be taken within a period not exceeding six months from the date when the right to annual leave accrued and after not less than two weeks notice to the employee.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (h) Where an employer intends temporarily to close (or reduce to nucleus) his establishment or a section thereof for the purposes (inter alia) of allowing annual leave to the employees concerned or a majority of them he may give in writing to such employees one month's notice (or, in the case of any employees engaged after giving of such notice, notice on the date of the employee's engagement) that he elects to apply the provisions of this subclause; and thereupon:
- (i) any such employee who at the date of closing is entitled to his annual holiday shall be given his annual holiday commencing on and from the date of closing with pay as prescribed by this clause. In addition he shall be paid 1/12th of his amount of wages for any period of employment after the accrual of his right to the annual holiday and up to but excluding the date of closing;
 - (ii) any such employee who at the date of closing is not entitled to his annual holiday shall be given leave without pay on and from the date of closing and shall be paid 1/12th of his amount of wages for the period of his employment since the commencement thereof or since he last became entitled to annual leave (whichever is the later) and up to but excluding the date of closing, together with pay for any trade or public holiday during such leave for which he is entitled to payment; and
 - (iii) the next 12 monthly qualifying period of employment for every such worker shall commence on and from the date of closing.

In this subclause 'date of closing' in relation to each worker means the first day of his annual holiday or leave pursuant to this subclause.

- (iv) An employer may close down his plant for one or two separate periods for the purpose of granting annual leave in accordance with this subclause. If the employer closes down his plant in two separate periods one of those periods shall be for a period of at least 21 consecutive days.

PROVIDED that where the majority of the employees in the plant or section concerned agree the employer may close down his plant in accordance with this subclause in two separate periods neither of which is of at least 21 consecutive days, or in three separate periods. In such cases the employer shall advise the employees concerned of the proposed dates of each close down before asking them for their agreement.

- (v) (1) An employer may close down his plant, or a section or sections thereof for a period of at least 21 consecutive days and grant the balance of the annual leave due to an employee in one continuous period in accordance with a roster.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (2) An employer may close down his plant, or a section or sections thereof for a period of less than 21 consecutive days and allow the balance of the annual leave due to an employee in one or two continuous periods either of which may be in accordance with a roster. In such cases the granting and taking of annual leave shall be subject to the agreement of the employer and the majority of employees in the plant, or a section or sections thereof respectively and before asking the employees concerned for their agreement the employer shall advise them of the proposed date of the close down or close downs and the details of the annual leave roster.

11. CHANGE ROOM

A change room shall be provided by the employer for the use of the employees for changing clothes, and such room shall be to the satisfaction of the Secretary for Labour.

Employers shall provide suitable facilities to ensure that employees' clothing that becomes wet during the course of the employment shall be dry at the commencement of the following day or shift.

12. CLOTHING AND SAFETY BOOTS

- (a) Overalls or other suitable protective clothing shall be provided where the nature of the work caused undue wear or deterioration to normal working clothes if requested by the employee provided that one set of such clothing shall be supplied to permanent employees only after two months service, and thereafter at intervals of not less than four months provided further the administration of this subclause may be varied by mutual consent.
- (b) Up to three pairs of safety boots per annum shall be provided by the employer on production of satisfactory evidence that any boots issued previously are no longer serviceable.
- (c) In the case of a new employee who leaves within a period of four weeks of commencement he will be charged the cost of boots and clothing supplied but this charge will be reduced by 25 percent for each completed week he has worked.

13. COMPASSIONATE LEAVE

- (a) An employee shall be entitled to a maximum of two days leave without deduction of pay on each occasion of the death within the State of the employee's wife, husband, de facto wife, de facto husband, father, mother, brother, sister, child, mother-in-law, father-in-law, step-child, step-father, step-mother, grand-father or grand-mother.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (b) On each occasion the employee travels outside the State in connection with the death of one of the relatives specified an additional two days without deduction of pay provided proof is given.

14. CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT

- (a) Weekly Employment

Other than casuals, all employees shall be engaged by the week, except during the first week of employment which shall be on a daily basis.

- (b) Termination of all weekly engagements shall require one week's notice on either side given at any time during the week or by the payment or forfeiture of one week's wages as the case may be. This shall not affect the right of the employer to dismiss an employee without notice for misconduct (and in such cases the wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only) or to deduct payment for any day the employee cannot be usefully employed because of any strike or through any breakdown of machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible.

- (c) To obtain the benefit of weekly employment an employee must be ready, available and willing to work on the days and during the hours prescribed for an ordinary day's work less only prescribed and agreed upon remissions. Pro rata reductions of pay may be made for unauthorised absences.

- (d) Casual Employment

Any person employed other than on terms of weekly employment shall be paid 20 percent in addition to the appropriate rate prescribed in subclause 1, Division A of Clause 8 - Wage Rates.

15. CRIB ROOM

A crib room shall be provided by the employer with sufficient accommodation together with heating facilities for the number of employees habitually using same, and such rooms and accommodation shall be to the satisfaction of the Secretary for Labour.

16. DISTANT WORK

Where an employee is engaged on work distant from his place of engagement and is unable to return home each evening and is required to board or camp, any additional expense to which he is put shall be paid by the employer. In all such cases the necessary travelling expenses and/or other transport shall be provided by the employer, and such allowances as are fair and equitable shall be paid, and in all such cases employees shall be paid at the ordinary prescribed rates whilst travelling.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

17. FIRST AID OUTFIT

In each workshop, and at other places where employees are regularly employed, the employer shall observe relevant legislation and regulations regarding first aid facilities. Any employee appointed by the employer to perform first aid duty, in addition to his ordinary duties, shall be paid $1.65 per day in addition to his ordinary rate

18. FLOWER-POT MACHINES

Employees working flower-pot machines shall be suitably supplied by the employer with overalls or similar suitable apparel.

19. HOLIDAY AND SUNDAY WORK

- (a) All work performed on Sundays shall be paid for at the rate of double the ordinary rates.
- (b) All work performed on any of the holidays mentioned in Clause 20 - Holidays with Pay hereof shall be paid for at the rate of double time and one half.

20. HOLIDAYS WITH PAY

- (a) Double time shall be the rate payable for all work done on Sundays and double time and one half shall be the rate payable for all work done on public holidays, with a minimum payment as for four hours work. In the event of an employee attending for work but not required, he shall be paid a minimum payment as for 3 hours work.
- (b) All employees (other than casuals) shall be entitled to the holidays hereinafter mentioned without deduction of pay or day or days substituted by Act of Parliament or Proclamation in lieu of such holidays as follows:

New Year's Day, Australia Day, Hobart Regatta Day (south of Oatlands), Labour Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Show Day (as defined in Clause 7 - Definitions), Recreation Day (where Hobart Regatta Day is not observed), Christmas Day and Boxing Day.
- (c) By agreement between the employer and his employee other days may be substituted for the said days or any of them as to such employer's undertaking.
- (d) Should 25 December in any year occur on a Saturday or a Sunday, the following Monday and Tuesday shall, for the purposes of this award, be deemed to be Christmas Day and Boxing Day respectively. Likewise should the first of January in any year occur on a Saturday or a Sunday the following Monday shall be deemed to be New Year's Day.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (e) Where an employee is absent from his or her employment on the working day before or the working day after a public holiday without reasonable excuse or without the consent of the employer, the employee shall not be entitled to payment for such a holiday.

21. HOURS OF WORK

The ordinary hours of work shall average 38 hours per week, over a maximum work cycle of four weeks, to be worked in period not exceeding eight hours each, continuously except for meal breaks, Monday to Friday, between 6.00 am and 6.00 pm in respect of day work and as prescribed in Clause 35 - Shift Allowance hereof, in respect of shift work (except that this spread of hours may be varied by mutual agreement between the employer and the employee directly affected, or where more than one employee is affected, by agreement of a majority thereof.)

PROVIDED that work done outside the spread of hours fixed in accordance with this clause for which overtime rates are payable shall be deemed for the purposes of this clause to be part of the ordinary hours of work when otherwise the ordinary hours worked would be less than those prescribed herein.

22. IMPLEMENTATION OF 38-HOUR WEEK

The method of implementing the 38-hour week shall be determined by agreement between the employer and the majority of employees directly affected, from one or more of the following:

- (a) By employees working less than eight ordinary hours each day.
- (b) By employees working less than eight ordinary hours one or more days each week.
- (c) By all employees having one week day off excluding public holidays, in each 20 day work cycle, eight hours being worked on each of the other 19 days of those four weeks.

The day off is to be nominated by the employer:

- (i) By fixing one week day upon which all or any number of employees will be off during a particular 20 day work cycle.
- (ii) By rostering employees off on various week days during a particular 20 day work cycle.

Subject to operational requirements, preference shall be given to days off being arranged to suit individual requests.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (d) PROVIDED that the ordinary hours may be worked by such other method that is agreed upon between the employer and the majority of employees directly affected.
- (e) Circumstances may arise where different methods of implementing a 38-hour week apply to various groups of sections of employees in the plant or establishment concerned.
- (f) The day scheduled to be the day off in accordance with this clause may be worked as an ordinary working day without penalty when substituted by another day by agreement between the employer and the employee directly affected, or where a number of employees are directly affected, by agreement between the employer and a majority of the employees in respect of whom a substitute day-off is sought.
- (g) Excluding circumstances beyond the control of the employer and except as otherwise herein is provided, not less than seven days advance notice is to be given concerning the days off thus allocated to employees by the application of the foregoing arrangements.
- (h) The procedure for resolving special, anomalous or extraordinary problems shall be applied in accordance with Clause 32 - Resolution of Disputes, of this award. The procedure shall be applied without delay.
- (i) In any calendar year, where 20 days annual leave is taken there shall be a maximum of 12 rostered days off.

PROVIDED that for lesser periods of annual leave taken the above will apply on a proportionate basis.

23. INCLEMENT WEATHER

Each employee shall be paid an allowance at ordinary rates for time lost through inclement weather, subject to the following conditions:-

- (a) That weather shall not be regarded as inclement for the purposes of this clause unless the employer, or his representative on the job, and the employee or a representative of the employee agree that it shall be so regarded. Failing such agreement, weather shall not be regarded as inclement and work shall continue;
- (b) That any intermission of work owing to inclement weather so regarded as such as aforesaid shall immediately cease and work shall be immediately resumed on the employer or his representative calling for a resumption of work;
- (c) That an employee shall not be entitled to payment as provided for in this clause unless he remains on the job until a decision to cease work for the day has been made by agreement between the employer or his representative and the employee or his representative;

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (d) That the intermission of work by employees who would be exposed to working in inclement weather so regarded in accordance with this clause shall not be a ground for intermission of work in places where employees are not so exposed to or who are not called upon to work in such inclement weather;
- (e) That during an intermission of work owing to inclement weather the employer or his representative may require an employee to perform such work as may be necessary in some section of the works other than the employee's usual place of employment; and
- (f) That an employer or his representative notifies an employee that his services will not be required on the following day the employee shall not be entitled to payment as prescribed by this clause for that day.

24. LOSS OF CLOTHING

The employer shall be responsible up to a maximum of $315 for an employee's clothing which may be destroyed by fire in a changing house or other shelter provided that such destruction is not in any way caused by the employee's own act or neglect.

25. MEAL INTERVALS AND ALLOWANCES

- (a) Employees other than shift workers shall be entitled to a meal break of not less than 30 minutes and not more than one hour to be taken not later than five hours after the commencement of work for the day.

PROVIDED that where ordinary hours of work on any specified day do not exceed six hours, those hours may be worked without a meal break by agreement of the majority of employees and the employer concerned.

- (b) An employee required to work beyond his usual meal time shall be paid at the rate of time and one half until he is allowed his meal break.
- (c) An employee required to work overtime for more than two hours without being notified on the previous day or earlier that he will be required to work shall either be supplied with a meal by the employer or paid $12.70 for the first meal and after each further four hours worked an employee shall be paid $12.70 for a meal. If an employee pursuant to notice has provided a meal or meals and is not required to work overtime or is required to work less than the amount advised, he shall be paid as above prescribed for meals which he has provided but which are surplus.
- (d) An employee who is required to work for more than two hours beyond his normal ceasing time in any day shall be allowed a break of 20 minutes at going rates before overtime work is commenced. After each further four hours worked an employee shall be entitled to a crib time of 20 minutes without deduction of pay, if the employee continues working after such crib time.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

The employer and employee may agree to any variation of these provisions to suit the circumstances of the work in hand.

PROVIDED that the employer shall not be required to make any payment in respect of any time allowed in excess of 20 minutes.

26. MIXED FUNCTIONS

An employee engaged for more than two hours on one day or shift on duties carrying a higher rate than his ordinary classification shall be paid the higher rate for such day or shift. If for two hours or less during a shift or day he shall be paid the higher rate for the time so worked.

27. NON-CONTINUOUS SHIFT WORK

- (a) For work done at any time during a shift (other than a day shift) the ordinary rate of pay shall be increased by 15 percent per shift.
- (b) A shift worker shall be allowed 20 minutes crib-time in each shift, which shall be counted as time worked, and paid for as such.
- (c) Shift rosters shall specify the commencing and finishing time of the ordinary working hours of the respective shifts.
- (d) A shift worker who, during a period of engagement on shift work, works on night shift only without some regular weekly rotation with another shift, or with day work, shall be paid at the rate of time and a quarter for all time worked during ordinary working hours for such night shift provided such night shift continues for not less than five successive nights.

'Afternoon Shift' means any shift finishing after 6.00 pm and at or before midnight.

'Night Shift' means any shift finishing subsequent to midnight and at or before 8.00 am.

28. OVERTIME

- (a) For all work done outside of the ordinary starting or ceasing times of work, or in excess of eight hours on any one day or shift Monday to Friday inclusive the rate of time and one half for the first two hours and double time thereafter shall be paid.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (b) (i) If, on the instructions of the employer, an employee reports for overtime work on a Saturday, he shall be paid for a minimum of four hours work at the prescribed rate. In the event of an employee attending for work but not required, he shall be paid the minimum of four hours work at the prescribed rate;
- (ii) An employee recalled to work overtime, Monday to Friday inclusive, after leaving his employer's business premises (whether notified before or after leaving the premises) shall be paid for a minimum of four hours work at the appropriate overtime rate for each time he is so recalled.
- (c) When overtime work is necessary it shall, wherever reasonably practicable, be so arranged that employees have at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days. An employee (other than a casual employee) who works so much overtime between the termination of his ordinary work on one day and the commencement of his ordinary work on the next day that he has not had at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between those times shall, subject to this subclause be released after completion of such overtime until he has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during absence.

If on the instruction of his employer such an employee resumes or continues work without having had such 10 consecutive hours off duty he shall be paid at double rates until he is released from duty for such period and he shall then be entitled to be absent until he has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

In computing overtime, each day's work shall stand alone.

- (d) The rostered day prescribed in paragraphs (c)(i) and (c)(ii) of Clause 22 - Implementation of a 38-Hour Week, may be worked where that is required by the employer in which case, in addition to the payment of any accrual which has not previously been paid, the employee shall be paid as follows:

For work performed in ordinary hours at the rate of time and a half, and for work outside ordinary hours, at the rate of double time. This penalty rate to apply until 31 January 1983, when normal overtime rates of time and a half for the first two hours and double time thereafter shall apply.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

29. PARENTAL LEAVE

Subject to the terms of this clause employees are entitled to maternity, paternity and adoption leave and to work part-time in connection with the birth or adoption of a child.

PART A - MATERNITY LEAVE

(a) Nature of Leave

Maternity leave is unpaid leave.

(b) Definitions

For the purpose of this part:

'Employee' includes a part-time employee but does not include an employee engaged upon casual or seasonal work.

'Paternity leave' means leave of the type provided for in Part B - Paternity Leave.

'Child' means a child of the employee under the age of one year.

'Spouse' includes a de facto or a former spouse.

'Continuous service' means service under an unbroken contract of employment and includes:

- (i) any period of leave taken in accordance with this clause;
- (ii) any period of part-time employment worked in accordance with this clause; or
- (iii) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or by the award.

(c) Eligibility for Maternity Leave

- (i) An employee who becomes pregnant, upon production to her employer of the certificate required by subclause (d) hereof, shall be entitled to a period of up to 52 weeks maternity leave provided that such leave shall not extend beyond the child's first birthday. This entitlement shall be reduced by any period of paternity leave taken by the employee's spouse in relation to the same child and apart from paternity leave of up to one week at the time of confinement shall not be taken concurrently with paternity leave.
- (ii) Subject to subclauses (f) and (i) hereof the period of maternity leave shall be unbroken and shall, immediately following confinement, include a period of six weeks compulsory leave.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(iii) The employee must have had at least 12 months continuous service with that employer immediately preceding the date upon which she proceeds upon such leave.

(d) Certificate

At the time specified in subclause (e) hereof the employee must produce to her employer:

- (i) a certificate from a registered medical practitioner stating that she is pregnant and the expected date of confinement;
- (ii) a statutory declaration stating particulars of any period of paternity leave sought or taken by her spouse and that for the period of maternity leave she will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with her contract of employment.

(e) Notice Requirements

- (i) An employee shall, not less than ten weeks prior to the presumed date of confinement, produce to her employer the certificate referred to in paragraph (d)(i).
- (ii) An employee shall give not less than four weeks notice in writing to her employer of the date upon which she proposes to commence maternity leave stating the period of leave to be taken and shall, at the same time, produce to her employer the statutory declaration referred to in paragraph (d)(ii).
- (iii) An employer by not less than 14 days notice in writing to the employee may require her to commence maternity leave at any time within the six weeks immediately prior to her presumed date of confinement.
- (iv) An employee shall not be in breach of this clause as a consequence of failure to give the stipulated period of notice in accordance with paragraph (ii) hereof if such failure is occasioned by the confinement occurring earlier than the presumed date.

(f) Transfer to a Safe Job

Where in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue at her present work, the employee shall, if the employer deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of maternity leave.

If the transfer to a safe job is not practicable, the employee may, or the employer may require the employee to, take leave for such period as is certified necessary by a registered medical practitioner. Such leave shall be treated as maternity leave for the purposes of subclauses (j), (k), (l) and (m) hereof.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(g) Variation of Period of Maternity Leave

- (i) Provided the maximum period of maternity leave does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under subclause (c) hereof:
 - (1) the period of maternity leave may be lengthened once only by the employee giving not less than 14 days' notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be lengthened;
 - (2) the period may be further lengthened by agreement between the employer and the employee.
- (ii) The period of maternity leave may, with the consent of the employer, be shortened by the employee giving not less than 14 days' notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be shortened.

(h) Cancellation of Maternity Leave

- (i) Maternity leave, applied for but not commenced, shall be cancelled when the pregnancy of an employee terminates other than by the birth of a living child.
- (ii) Where the pregnancy of an employee then on maternity leave terminates other than by the birth of a living child, it shall be the right of the employee to resume work at a time nominated by the employer which shall not exceed 4 weeks from the date of notice in writing by the employee to the employer that she desires to resume work.

(i) Special Maternity Leave and Sick Leave

- (i) Where the pregnancy of an employee not then on maternity leave terminates after 28 weeks other than by the birth of a living child then:
 - (1) she shall be entitled to such period of unpaid leave (to be known as special maternity leave) as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work; or
 - (2) for illness other than the normal consequences of confinement she shall be entitled, either in lieu of or in addition to special maternity leave, to such paid sick leave as to which she is then entitled and which a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (ii) Where an employee not then on maternity leave suffers illness related to her pregnancy, she may take such paid sick leave as to which she is then entitled and such further unpaid leave (to be known as special maternity leave) as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work, provided that the aggregate of paid sick leave, special maternity leave and maternity leave shall not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under subclause (c) hereof.
- (iii) For the purposes of subclauses (j), (k) and (l) hereof, maternity leave shall include special maternity leave.
- (iv) An employee returning to work after the completion of a period of leave taken pursuant to this subclause shall be entitled to the position which she held immediately before proceeding on such leave or, in the case of an employee who was transferred to a safe job pursuant to subclause (f) hereof, to the position she held immediately before such transfer.

Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available, which the employee is qualified for and the duties of which she is capable of performing, she shall be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of her former position.

(j) Maternity Leave and Other Leave Entitlements

- (i) Provided the aggregate of any leave including leave taken under this part, does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under subclause (c) hereof, an employee may, in lieu of or in conjunction with maternity leave, take any annual leave or long service leave or any part thereof to which she is entitled.
- (ii) Paid sick leave or other paid authorised award absences (excluding annual leave or long service leave), shall not be available to an employee during her absence on maternity leave.

(k) Effect of Maternity Leave on Employment

Subject to this part, notwithstanding any award or other provision to the contrary, absence on maternity leave shall not break the continuity of service of an employee but shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purpose of any relevant award or agreement.

(l) Termination of Employment

- (i) An employee on maternity leave may terminate her employment at any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance with this award.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (ii) An employer shall not terminate the employment of an employee on the ground of her pregnancy or of her absence on maternity leave, but otherwise the rights of an employer in relation to termination of employment are not hereby affected.

(m) Return to Work After Maternity Leave

- (i) An employee shall confirm her intention of returning to work by notice in writing to the employer given not less than four weeks prior to the expiration of her period of maternity leave.
- (ii) An employee, upon returning to work after maternity leave or the expiration of the notice required by paragraph (i) hereof, shall be entitled to the position which she held immediately before proceeding on maternity leave or, in the case of an employee who was transferred to a safe job pursuant to subclause (f) hereof, to the position which she held immediately before such transfer or in relation to an employee who has worked part-time during the pregnancy the position she held immediately before commencing such part-time work.

Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available for which the employee is qualified and the duties of which she is capable of performing, she shall be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of her former position.

(n) Replacement Employees

- (i) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a result of an employee proceeding on maternity leave.
- (ii) Before an employer engages a replacement employee the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iii) Before an employer engages a person to replace an employee temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an employee exercising her rights under this part, the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or transfer and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iv) Nothing in this part shall be construed as requiring an employer to engage a replacement employee.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

PART B - PATERNITY LEAVE

(a) Nature of Leave

Paternity leave is unpaid leave.

(b) Definitions

For the purpose of this part:

'Employee' includes a part-time employee but does not include an employee engaged upon casual or seasonal work.

'Maternity leave' means leave of the type provided for in Part A - Maternity Leave (and includes special maternity leave).

'Child' means a child of the employee or the employee's spouse under the age of one year.

'Spouse' includes a de facto or a former spouse.

'Primary care-giver' means a person who assumes the principal role of providing care and attention to a child.

'Continuous service' means service under an unbroken contract of employment and includes:

- (i) any period of leave taken in accordance with this clause;
- (ii) any period of part-time employment worked in accordance with this clause; or
- (iii) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or by the award.

(c) Eligibility for Paternity Leave

A male employee, upon production to his employer of the certificate required by subclause (d) - Certification shall be entitled to one or two periods of paternity leave, the total of which shall not exceed 52 weeks, in the following circumstances:

- (i) an unbroken period of up to one week at the time of confinement of his spouse;
- (ii) a further unbroken period of up to 51 weeks in order to be the primary care-giver of a child provided that such leave shall not extend beyond the child's first birthday. This entitlement shall be reduced by any period of maternity leave taken by the employee's spouse and shall not be taken concurrently with that maternity leave.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

The employee must have had at least 12 months continuous service with that employer immediately preceding the date upon which he proceeds upon either period of leave.

(d) Certification

At the time specified in subclause (e) the employee must produce to his employer:

- (i) a certificate from a registered medical practitioner which names his spouse, states that she is pregnant and the expected date of confinement or states the date of which the birth took place;
- (ii) in relation to any period to be taken under paragraph (c)(ii) hereof, a statutory declaration stating:
 - (1) he will take that period of paternity leave to become the primary care-giver of the child;
 - (2) particulars of any period of maternity leave sought or taken by his spouse; and
 - (3) for the period of paternity leave he will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with his contract of employment.

(e) Notice Requirements

- (i) The employee shall, not less than ten weeks prior to each proposed period of leave, give the employer notice in writing stating the dates on which he proposes to start and finish the period or periods of leave and produce the certificate and statutory declaration required in subclause (d) hereof.
- (ii) The employee shall not be in breach of this subclause as a consequence of failure to give the notice required in paragraph (i) hereof if such failure is due to:
 - (1) the birth occurring earlier than the expected date; or
 - (2) the death of the mother or the child; or
 - (3) other compelling circumstances.
- (iii) The employee shall immediately notify his employer of any change in the information provided pursuant to subclause (d) hereof.

(f) Variation of Period of Paternity Leave

- (i) Provided the maximum period of paternity leave does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under subclause (c) hereof:

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (1) the period of paternity leave provided by paragraph (c)(ii) may be lengthened once only by the employee giving not less than 14 days notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be lengthened;
 - (2) the period may be further lengthened by agreement between the employer and the employee.
 - (ii) The period of paternity leave taken under paragraph (c)(ii) hereof may, with the consent of the employer, be shortened by the employee giving not less than 14 days notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be shortened.
- (g) Cancellation of Paternity Leave
- Paternity leave, applied for under paragraph (c)(ii) hereof but not commenced, shall be cancelled when the pregnancy of the employee's spouse terminates other than by the birth of a living child.
- (h) Paternity Leave and Other Leave Entitlements
- (i) Provided the aggregate of any leave, including leave taken under this part, does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under subclause (c) hereof, an employee may, in lieu of or in conjunction with paternity leave, take any annual leave or long service leave or any part thereof to which he is entitled.
 - (ii) Paid sick leave or other paid authorised award absences (excluding annual leave or long service leave) shall not be available to an employee during his absence on paternity leave.
- (i) Effect of Paternity Leave on Employment
- Subject to this part, notwithstanding any award or other provision to the contrary, absence on paternity leave shall not break the continuity of service of an employee but shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purpose of any relevant award or agreement.
- (j) Termination of Employment
- (i) An employee on paternity leave may terminate his employment at any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance with this award.
 - (ii) An employer shall not terminate the employment of an employee on the ground of his absence on paternity leave, but otherwise the rights of an employer in relation to termination of employment are not hereby affected.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(k) Return to Work after Paternity Leave

- (i) An employee shall confirm his intention of returning to work by notice in writing to the employer given not less than four weeks prior to the expiration of the period of paternity leave provided by paragraph (c)(ii) hereof.
- (ii) An employee, upon returning to work after paternity leave or the expiration of the notice required by paragraph (i) hereof, shall be entitled to the position which he held immediately before proceeding on paternity leave, or in relation to an employee who has worked part-time under this clause to the position he held immediately before commencing such part-time work.

Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, he shall be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of his former position.

(l) Replacement Employees

- (i) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a result of an employee proceeding on paternity leave.
- (ii) Before an employer engages a replacement employee the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iii) Before an employer engages a person to replace an employee temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an employee exercising his rights under this part, the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or transfer and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iv) Nothing in this part shall be construed as requiring an employer to engage a replacement employee.

PART C - ADOPTION LEAVE

(a) Nature of Leave

Adoption leave is unpaid leave.

(b) Definitions

For the purpose of this part:

'Employee' includes a part-time employee but does not include an employee engaged upon casual or seasonal work.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

'Child' means a person under the age of five years who is placed with the employee for the purposes of adoption, other than a child or stepchild of the employee or of the spouse of the employee or a child who has previously lived continuously with the employee for a period of six months or more.

'Relative adoption' occurs where a child, as defined, is adopted by a grandparent, brother, sister, aunt or uncle (whether of the whole blood or half blood or by marriage).

'Primary care-giver' means a person who assumes the principal role of providing care and attention to a child.

'Spouse' includes a de facto spouse.

'Continuous service' means service under an unbroken contract of employment and includes:

- (i) any period of leave taken in accordance with this clause;
- (ii) any period of part-time employment worked in accordance with this clause, or
- (iii) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or by the award.

(c) Eligibility

An employee, upon production to the employer of the documentation required by subclause (d) hereof shall be entitled to one or two periods of adoption leave, the total of which shall not exceed 52 weeks, in the following circumstances:

- (i) an unbroken period of up to three weeks at the time of the placement of the child;
- (ii) an unbroken period of up to 52 weeks from the time of the child's placement in order to be the primary care-giver of the child. This leave shall not extend beyond one year after the placement of the child and shall not be taken concurrently with adoption leave taken by the employee's spouse in relation to the same child. This entitlement of up to 52 weeks shall be reduced by:
 - (1) any period of leave taken pursuant to paragraph (i) hereof; and
 - (2) the aggregate of any periods of adoption leave taken or to be taken by the employee's spouse;

The employee must have had at least 12 months continuous service with that employer immediately preceding the date upon which he or she proceeds upon such leave in either case.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(d) Certification

Before taking adoption leave the employee must produce to the employer:

- (i)
 - (1) A statement from an adoption agency or other appropriate body of the presumed date of placement of the child with the employee for adoption purposes; or
 - (2) A statement from the appropriate government authority confirming that the employee is to have custody of the child pending application for an adoption order.
- (ii) In relation to any period to be taken under paragraph (c)(ii) hereof, a statutory declaration stating:
 - (1) the employee is seeking adoption leave to become the primary care-giver of the child;
 - (2) particulars of any period of adoption leave sought or taken by the employee's spouse; and
 - (3) for the period of adoption leave the employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with his or her contract of employment.

(e) Notice Requirements

- (i) Upon receiving notice of approval for adoption purposes, an employee shall notify the employer of such approval and within two months of such approval, shall further notify the employer of the period or periods of adoption leave the employee proposes to take. In the case of a relative adoption the employee shall notify as aforesaid upon deciding to take a child into custody pending an application for an adoption order.
- (ii) An employee who commences employment with an employer after the date of approval for adoption purposes shall notify the employer thereof upon commencing employment and of the period or periods of adoption leave which the employee proposes to take. Provided that such employee shall not be entitled to adoption leave unless the employee has not less than 12 months continuous service with that employer immediately preceding the date upon which he or she proceeds upon such leave.
- (iii) An employee shall, as soon as the employee is aware of the presumed date of placement of a child for adoption purposes but no later than 14 days before such placement, give notice in writing to the employer of such date, and of the date of the commencement of any period of leave to be taken under paragraph (c)(i) hereof.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (iv) An employee shall, ten weeks before the proposed date of commencing any leave to be taken under paragraph (c)(ii) hereof give notice in writing to the employer of the date of commencing leave and the period of leave to be taken.
 - (v) An employee shall not be in breach of this part as a consequence of failure to give the stipulated period of notice in accordance with paragraphs (iii) and (iv) hereof if such failure is occasioned by the requirement of an adoption agency to accept earlier or later placement of a child, the death of the spouse or other compelling circumstances.
- (f) Variation of Period of Adoption Leave
- (i) Provided the maximum period of adoption leave does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under subclause (c) hereof:
 - (1) the period of leave taken under paragraph (c)(ii) hereof may be lengthened once only by the employee giving not less than 14 days notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be lengthened;
 - (2) the period may be further lengthened by agreement between the employer and employee.
 - (ii) The period of adoption leave taken under paragraph (c)(ii) hereof may, with the consent of the employer, be shortened by the employee giving not less than 14 days notice in writing stating the period by which the leave is to be shortened.
- (g) Cancellation of Adoption Leave
- (i) Adoption leave, applied for but not commenced, shall be cancelled should the placement of the child not proceed.
 - (ii) Where the placement of a child for adoption purposes with an employee then on adoption leave does not proceed or continue, the employee shall notify the employer forthwith and the employer shall nominate a time not exceeding four weeks from receipt of notification for the employee's resumption of work.
- (h) Special Leave
- The employer shall grant to any employee who is seeking to adopt a child, such unpaid leave not exceeding two days, as is required by the employee to attend any compulsory interviews or examinations as are necessary as part of the adoption procedure. Where paid leave is available to the employee the employer may require the employee to take such leave in lieu of special leave.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(i) Adoption Leave and Other Entitlements

- (i) Provided the aggregate of any leave, including leave taken under this part, does not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under subclause (c) hereof, an employee may, in lieu of or in conjunction with adoption leave, take any annual leave or long service leave or any part thereof to which he or she is entitled.
- (ii) Paid sick leave or other paid authorised award absences (excluding annual leave or long service leave), shall not be available to an employee during the employee's absence on adoption leave.

(j) Effect of Adoption Leave on Employment

Subject to this part, notwithstanding any award or other provision to the contrary, absence on adoption leave shall not break the continuity of service of an employee but shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of service for any purpose of any relevant award or agreement.

(k) Termination of Employment

- (i) An employee on adoption leave may terminate the employment at any time during the period of leave by notice given in accordance with this award.
- (ii) An employer shall not terminate the employment of an employee on the ground of the employee's application to adopt a child or absence on adoption leave, but otherwise the rights of an employer in relation to termination of employment are not hereby affected.

(l) Return to Work After Adoption Leave

- (i) An employee shall confirm the intention of returning to work by notice in writing to the employer given not less than four weeks prior to the expiration of the period of adoption leave provided by paragraph (c)(ii) hereof.
- (ii) An employee, upon returning to work after adoption leave, shall be entitled to the position held immediately before proceeding on such leave or in relation to an employee who has worked part-time under this clause the position held immediately before commencing such part-time work.

Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the employee shall be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of the employee's former position.

(m) Replacement Employees

- (i) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a result of an employee proceeding on adoption leave.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (ii) Before an employer engages a replacement employee the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iii) Before an employer engages a person to replace an employee temporarily promoted or transferred in order to replace an employee exercising rights under this part, the employer shall inform that person of the temporary nature of the promotion or transfer and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iv) Nothing in this part shall be construed as requiring an employer to engage a replacement employee.

PART D - PART-TIME WORK

(a) Definitions

For the purposes of this part:

'Male employee' means an employed male who is caring for a child born of his spouse or a child placed with the employee for adoption purposes.

'Female employee' means an employed female who is pregnant or is caring for a child she has borne or a child who has been placed with her for adoption purposes.

'Spouse' includes a de facto spouse.

'Former position' means the position held by a female or male employee immediately before proceeding on leave or part-time employment under this part whichever first occurs or, if such position no longer exists but there are other positions available for which the employee is qualified and the duties of which he or she is capable of performing, a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of the position first mentioned in this definition.

'Continuous service' means service under an unbroken contract of employment and includes:

- (i) any period of leave taken in accordance with this clause;
- (ii) any period of part-time employment worked in accordance with this clause; or
- (iii) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or by the award.

(b) Entitlement

With the agreement of the employer:

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (i) A male employee may work part-time in one or more periods at any time from the date of birth of the child until its second birthday or, in relation to adoption, from the date of placement of the child until the second anniversary of the placement.
 - (ii) A female employee may work part-time in one or more periods while she is pregnant where part-time employment is, because of the pregnancy, necessary or desirable.
 - (iii) A female employee may work part-time in one or more periods at any time from the seventh week after the date of birth of the child until its second birthday.
 - (iv) In relation to adoption a female employee may work part-time in one or more periods at any time from the date of the placement of the child until the second anniversary of that date.
- (c) Return to Former Position
- (i) An employee who has had at least 12 months continuous service with an employer immediately before commencing part-time employment after the birth or placement of a child has, at the expiration of the period of such part-time employment or the first period, if there is more than one, the right to return to his or her former position.
 - (ii) Nothing in paragraph (i) hereof shall prevent the employer from permitting the employee to return to his or her former position after a second or subsequent period of part-time employment.
- (d) Effect of Part-time Employment on Continuous Service
- Commencement on part-time work under this clause, and return from part-time work to full-time work under this clause, shall not break the continuity of service or employment.
- (e) Pro Rata Entitlements
- Subject to the provisions of this part and the matters agreed to in accordance with subclause (h) hereof, part-time employment shall be in accordance with the provisions of this award which shall apply pro rata.
- (f) Transitional Arrangements - Annual Leave
- (i) An employee working part-time under this part shall be paid for and take any leave accrued in respect of a period of full-time employment, in such periods and manner as specified in the annual leave provisions of this award, as if the employee were working full-time in the class of work the employee was performing as a full-time employee immediately before commencing part-time work under this part.

- (ii) (1) A full-time employee shall be paid for and take any annual leave accrued in respect of a period of part-time employment under this part, in such periods and manner as specified in this award, as if the employee were working part-time in the class of work the employee was performing as a part-time employee immediately before resuming full-time work.
- (2) Provided that, by agreement between the employer and the employee, the period over which the leave is taken may be shortened to the extent necessary for the employee to receive pay at the employee's current full-time rate.

(g) Transitional Arrangements - Sick Leave

An employee working part-time under this part shall have sick leave entitlements which have accrued under this award (including any entitlements accrued in respect of previous full-time employment) converted into hours. When this entitlement is used, whether as a part-time employee or as a full-time employee, it shall be debited for the ordinary hours that the employee would have worked during the period of absence.

(h) Part-time Work Agreement

- (i) Before commencing a period of part-time employment under this part the employee and the employer shall agree:
 - (1) that the employee may work part-time;
 - (2) upon the hours to be worked by the employee, the days upon which they will be worked and commencing times for the work;
 - (3) upon the classification applying to the work to be performed; and
 - (4) upon the period of part-time employment.
- (ii) The terms of this agreement may be varied by consent.
- (iii) The terms of this agreement or any variation to it shall be reduced to writing and retained by the employer. A copy of the agreement and any variation to it shall be provided to the employee by the employer.
- (iv) The terms of this agreement shall apply to the part-time employment.

(i) Termination of Employment

- (i) The employment of a part-time employee under this clause, may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of this award but may not be terminated by the employer because the employee has exercised or proposes to exercise any rights arising under this clause or has enjoyed or proposes to enjoy any benefits arising under this clause.

- (ii) Any termination entitlements payable to an employee whose employment is terminated while working part-time under this clause, or while working full-time after transferring from part-time work under this clause, shall be calculated by reference to the full-time rate of pay at the time of termination and by regarding all service as a full-time employee as qualifying for a termination entitlement based on the period of full-time employment and all service as a part-time employee on a pro rata basis.

(j) Extension of Hours of Work

An employer may request, but not require, an employee working part-time under this clause to work outside or in excess of the employee's ordinary hours of duty provided for in accordance with subclause (h).

(k) Nature of Part-time Work

The work to be performed part-time need not be the work performed by the employee in his or her former position but shall be work otherwise performed under this award.

(l) Inconsistent Award Provisions

An employee may work part-time under this clause notwithstanding any other provisions of this award which limits or restricts the circumstances in which part-time employment may be worked or the terms upon which it may be worked including provisions:

- (i) limiting the number of employees who may work part-time;
- (ii) establishing quotas as to the ratio of part-time to full-time employees;
- (iii) prescribing a minimum or maximum number of hours a part-time employee may work; or
- (iv) requiring consultation with, consent of or monitoring by a union; and such provisions do not apply to part-time work under this clause.

(m) Replacement Employees

- (i) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a result of an employee working part-time under this part.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (ii) A replacement employee may be employed part-time. Subject to this subclause, subclauses (e), (f), (g), (h), (i) and (l) of this part apply to the part-time employment of replacement employees.
- (iii) Before an employer engages a replacement employee under this subclause, the employer shall inform the person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.
- (iv) Unbroken service as a replacement employee shall be treated as continuous service as provided for in paragraph (a) Definitions, 'Continuous service' of this part.
- (v) Nothing in this part shall be construed as requiring an employer to engage a replacement employee.

30. PAYMENT OF WAGES

All wages shall be paid weekly in the employer's time. Payment shall be made on the job, in cash or with the consent of the employee and the employer wages may be paid by cheque or into a nominated account, and in the event of termination of employment where one week's notice has been given shall be paid within fifteen minutes of such termination.

In the event of such payment not being made, waiting time at ordinary rates shall be paid for all time in excess of such 15 minutes, provided that when dismissals have been made by other than a week's notice, payment shall be made within 24 hours.

31. PROTECTIVE CLOTHING

- (a) When an employee is called upon to work in water he shall be provided with suitable boots and waders which shall be worn by him.
- (b) Where a man's place of work is outside the factory building and he is required to carry on such work in the rain, his employer shall furnish him with a waterproof overcoat, rubber boots and sou'wester which shall be worn by him whilst so employed.
- (c) All protective clothing supplied pursuant to this clause shall be as follows:
 - (i) issued in good and clean condition;
 - (ii) retained by the employee during his period of employment and shall be renewed by the employer when necessary;
 - (iii) fumigated before being transferred from one employee to another;
 - (iv) shall remain the property of the employer.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (d) The loss of such protective clothing due to any cause arising out of the neglect or misuse by the employee shall be a charge against his wages, provided that no charge shall be made in respect of reasonable wear and tear.

32. RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES

Any industrial dispute arising during the currency of the award shall be dealt with as follows:

- (a) The matter should first be discussed between the employee and his immediate supervisor. At the employee's option his delegate may also be present.
- (b) If not settled, the matter shall be submitted by the shop steward or union representative to the industrial officer or other appropriate officer of the employer.
- (c) If not settled, the matter shall be formally submitted by the State Secretary or other appropriate official of the union concerned to the employer.
- (d) Until the matter is determined in accordance with the above procedure, work shall continue normally. All parties to the award, the employer, its officials, the unions and their members, will take all possible action to settle any dispute within seven days of notification of the dispute to the employer.
- (e) No party shall be prejudiced as to final settlement by the continuance of work in accordance with this subclause.
- (f) In the event of an employee being given instant dismissal the employer will notify the appropriate union steward or official as soon as possible.

The union will notify the employer of a dispute if it is contended by the union that there are reasons why the dismissal is incorrect.

33. REST PERIODS

All employees shall be entitled to two rest intervals of 7 1/2 minutes duration during the first and second half of the day or shift, to be taken at such times as will not interfere with the continuity of work. Such intervals are to be counted as time worked.

PROVIDED that in lieu of the above provisions and by agreement between the employer and the majority of the employees at a particular plant one break of 15 minutes duration per day may be taken at a mutually agreeable time.

34. RIGHT OF ENTRY OF UNION OFFICIALS

Right of entry shall be in accordance with Section 77 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

35. SHIFT ALLOWANCE

Employees working on afternoon or night shifts shall be paid 15 percent extra for such shifts.

36. SICK LEAVE

- (a) An employee, other than one engaged as a casual who is absent from work on account of personal illness or on account of injury by accident shall be entitled to leave of absence without deduction of pay, subject to the following conditions and limitations:
- (i) he shall not be entitled to such leave of absence for any period in respect of which he is entitled to workers' compensation;
 - (ii) he shall, within 48 hours of the commencement of such absence, inform the employer of his inability to attend for work, and as far as may be practicable, state the nature of the illness or injury and the estimated duration of the absence;
 - (iii) he shall prove to the satisfaction of the employer (or in the event of a dispute, the Secretary for Labour) that he was unable on account of such illness or injury to attend for work on the day or days for which the sick leave is claimed;
 - (iv) he shall not be entitled in any year (whether in the employment of one employer or of more) to sick leave credit in excess of two weeks of ordinary working time.
 - (v) For the purpose of administering paragraph (iv) of this subclause, an employer may within one month of this award coming into operation or within two weeks of the employee entering his employment require an employee to make a sworn declaration or other written statement as to what paid leave of absence he has had from any employer during the then current year, and upon such statement the employer shall be entitled to rely and act.
- (b) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in subclause (a) (iv) of this clause which has in any year not been allowed to an employee by an employer as paid sick leave shall be credited to the employee, and subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed shall be allowed by that employer in a subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year;

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (c) An employer shall not be required to make any payment in respect of accumulated sick leave credits to an employee who is discharged or leaves his employment, or for any time an employee is absent from work without producing satisfactory evidence of personal illness.

Sickness on a rostered day off:

- (d) Where an employee is sick or injured on the week day he is to take off in accordance with subclause (c) Clause 22 - Implementation of 38-Hour Week hereof, he shall not be entitled to sick pay nor will his sick pay entitlement be reduced as a result of his sickness or injury that day.
- (e) An employee who is absent on the ordinary working day preceding and/or the ordinary working day following a rostered day off shall not be entitled to payment of sick pay for the day or days unless he produces to the employer a certificate from a duly qualified medical practitioner. Providing that if satisfactory evidence of sickness or injury acceptable to the employer is produced then the necessity of a medical certificate may be waived.

37. TERMINATION OF SERVICE

One week's notice shall be given by either party to terminate the contract of service. In lieu of such notice, the employer to pay one week's wages or the employee to forfeit one week's wages as the case may be.

PROVIDED that an employee may be dismissed for wilful misconduct or neglect of duty, or when employment cannot be provided owing to a breakdown of machinery, fire, or any other interruptions of operations or other cause beyond the employer's control.

PROVIDED FURTHER that during the first week of service the employment may be terminated by either party giving an hour's notice.

38. TOOLS ETC.

The employer shall supply his employees with all the requisite tools and gloves for the performance of their duties.

39. TRANSFER FROM JOB TO JOB

An employee transferred by the employer from one job to another job on the same day shall be paid for the time spent in travelling as for time worked.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

40. WATERPROOF CLOTHING OR PAYMENT IN LIEU

- (a) If an employee is required to work in a wet place or in a heavy rain he shall be provided with gum boots or oilskins, or both, so as to protect him from getting wet.
- (b) A place shall be deemed to be wet when water, other than rain, is continually dropping from overhead so as to saturate the clothing of the employee if unprotected and/or when water in the place where the employee is standing is over two inches deep.
- (c) Rain shall be deemed to be heavy when, if the employee works therein as required, his clothing will become saturated.

41. WASHING FACILITIES

Reasonable washing facilities for the use of the employees shall be provided by the employer with a supply of running water and hot water where practicable, and such shall be to the satisfaction of the Secretary for Labour.
