the Tasmanian Chamber of Commerce and Industry Limited.

(c) The following organisations are deemed to have an interest in this award pursuant to Section 62(3) of the Industrial Relations Act 1984:

the Tasmanian Trades and Labor Council.

6. SUPERSESSION

This award incorporates and supersedes the Wholesale Pharmaceutical Award No. 1 of 2003 (Consolidated) and No. 1 of 2004.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

7. GENERAL DEFINITIONS

'Wholesale Pharmaceutical Industry' for the purposes of this award shall mean the wholesaling and/or distribution of pharmaceutical products in accordance with a licence issued under the Poisons Act, 1971, and may include the wholesaling and/or distribution of other medicines and non-prescription pharmaceutical products and other goods.

PART II - EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP AND ASSOCIATED MATTERS

1. DEFINITIONS

'Casual employee' shall mean any person who is employed on a casual basis and includes any person who is employed for a period not exceeding four weeks at any one time.

2. CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT

- (a) With the exception of employees engaged as casual employees, all employment shall be by the week and shall be terminated only by a week's notice by either party or by the payment or forfeiture of a week's wages, as the case may be. This shall not affect the right of the employer to dismiss any employee without notice for neglect of duty or misconduct and in such cases the wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only.
- (b) The employer in the event of misconduct may suspend an employee without pay. The maximum period of suspension shall be one week. Prior to the implementation of a suspension, the union shall be advised of the intention to undertake such suspension. In the event that a union official cannot be contacted, the suspension will not be implemented for a period of at least 24 hours.
- (c) Should the employee not agree to the suspension the union shall have the right to refer the matter to the Tasmanian Industrial Commission. If upon examination the Tasmanian Industrial Commission forms the view that the suspension was harsh or unjust, it may vary the term of or rescind the suspension. Nothing in this subclause shall affect the right of the employer to dismiss an employee in accordance with the previous subclause.
- (d) An employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties as are within the limits of the employee's skill, competence and training consistent with the classification structure of this award provided that such duties are not designed to promote de-skilling.
- (e) An employer may direct an employee to carry out such duties and use such tools and equipment as may be required provided that the employee has been properly trained in the use of such tools and equipment.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (f) This provision does not deny such employees any award entitlement which might be applicable for performing work of a higher classification; nor should the provision enable the employer to pay an employee at a rate lower than the employees' substantive classification for performing work of a lower classification.
- (g) Any direction issued by an employer pursuant to subclause (c) and (d) hereof shall be consistent with the employer's responsibilities to provide a safe and healthy working environment.

3. EMPLOYMENT CATEGORIES

(a) Casual Employees

- (i) A casual employee for working ordinary time shall be paid per hour one thirty-eighth of the weekly rates prescribed for the work which he or she performs. In addition thereto a casual employee shall receive 20% of the ordinary hourly rate in respect of each hour for which he or she is paid; such additional amount to be payment in lieu of the provisions of Part V - Leave and Holidays with Pay, Clause 2 - Annual Leave, Clause 5 - Holidays with Pay and Clause 7 - Sick Leave of this award.
- (ii) Penalty rates prescribed elsewhere in this award are applicable to casual employees. The 20 per cent loading prescribed elsewhere in this clause shall be paid for all hours worked including times when penalty rates are applicable.

PROVIDED that all penalty additions shall be calculated on the ordinary time rate excluding this loading. Viz.:

Time and one half equates to 1.7)	of the ordinary time
Double time equates to 2.2)	rate without the 20
Double time and one half equates to 2.7)	percent loading

(b) Part-time employees

- (i) Part-time employees engaged to work 20 or more hours per week shall be entitled to the annual leave, holidays with pay and sick leave as prescribed in Part V - Leave and Holidays with Pay, Clause 2 - Annual Leave, Clause 5 - Holidays with Pay and Clause 7 - Sick Leave of this award.

PROVIDED that payment therefor shall be made at the rate normally paid to such employees for a similar period of time worked.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (ii) Part-time employees engaged to work less than 20 hours per week shall be paid per hour one thirty-eighth of the weekly rates prescribed for the work he or she performs. In addition thereto such employees shall receive 20% of the ordinary hourly rate in respect of each hour for which he or she is paid; such additional amount to be payment in lieu of the provisions of Part V - Leave and Holidays with Pay, Clause 2 - Annual Leave, Clause 5 - Holidays with Pay and Clause 7 - Sick Leave of this award.

PROVIDED that in the case of part-time employees in receipt of a 20% loading, the penalty rates shall be calculated in the same manner as applies to casual employees in subclause (a) - Casual Employees of this clause.

4. RATIO OF JUNIOR EMPLOYEES TO ADULT EMPLOYEES

The maximum number of juniors to be employed shall not exceed the ratio of two juniors to every one adult.

5. MIXED FUNCTIONS

An employee engaged for half or more than half of one day on duties carrying a higher rate than his or her ordinary classification shall be paid the higher rate for such day. If for less than half of one day the employee shall be paid the higher rate for the time so worked.

PART III - WAGE RATES AND RELATED MATTERS

7. SUPPORTED WAGE SYSTEM

(a) Eligibility criteria

Subject to this subclause an employer may engage employees at a supported wage rate (as set out in subclause (c) of this clause) who meet the impairment criteria for receipt of a Disability Support Pension and who, because of their disability, are unable to perform the range of duties to the competence level normally required for the class of work for which they are engaged.

PROVIDED that this subclause does not apply to any existing employee who has a claim against the employer which is subject to the provisions of workers' compensation legislation or any provision of this award relating to the rehabilitation of employees who are injured in the course of their current employment.

PROVIDED FURTHER that this subclause does not apply to employers in respect of their facility, programme, undertaking, service or the like which receives funding under the Disability Services Act 1986 and fulfils the dual role of service provider and sheltered employer to people with disabilities who are in receipt of or are eligible for a disability support pension, except with respect to an organisation which has received recognition under s.10 or under s.12A of the above Act, or if a part only has received recognition, that part.

(b) For the purposes of this subclause:

'Supported Wage System' means the Commonwealth Government System to promote employment for people who cannot work at full award wages because of a disability.

'Accredited Assessor' means a person accredited by the management unit established by the Commonwealth under the Supported Wage System to perform assessments of an individual's productive capacity within the Supported Wage System.

'Disability Support Pension' means the pension available under the Commonwealth pension scheme to provide income security for persons with a disability as provided under the Social Security Act 1991, as amended from time to time, or any successor to that scheme.

'Assessment instrument' means the form provided for under the Supported Wage System that records the assessment of the productive capacity of the person to be employed under the Supported Wage System.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(c) Supported wage rates

Employees to whom this subclause applies shall be paid the applicable percentage of the minimum rate of pay prescribed by this award for the class of work which the person is performing according to the following schedule:

Assessed capacity(paragraph (d))	% of prescribed award rate
10%	10%
20%	20%
30%	30%
40%	40%
50%	50%
60%	60%
70%	70%
80%	80%
90%	90%

PROVIDED that the minimum amount payable shall be not less than $61 per week.

(d) Assessment of capacity

For the purpose of establishing the percentage of the award rate to be paid to a supported wage employee under this award, the productive capacity of the employee will be assessed in accordance with the Supported Wage System and documented in an assessment instrument by either:

- (i) the employer and a union party to the award, in consultation with the employee or, if desired by any of these;
- (ii) the employer and an accredited Assessor from a panel agreed by the parties to the award and the employee.

(e) Lodgment of assessment instrument

- (i) All assessment instruments under the conditions of this subclause, including the appropriate percentage of the award wage to be paid to the employee, shall be lodged by the employer with the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission.
- (ii) All assessment instruments shall be agreed and signed by the parties to the assessment, provided that where a union which is party to the award, is not a party to the assessment, it shall be referred by the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission to the union by certified mail and shall take effect unless an objection is notified to the Registrar of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission within 10 working days.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(f) Review of assessment

The assessment of the applicable percentage shall be subject to annual review or earlier on the basis of a reasonable request for such a review. The process of review shall be in accordance with the procedures for assessing capacity under the Supported Wage System.

(g) Other terms and conditions of employment

Where an assessment has been made, the applicable percentage shall apply to the wage rate only. Employees covered by the supported wage provisions of this subclause shall be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as all other workers covered by this award who are paid on a pro rata basis.

(h) Workplace adjustment

An employer wishing to employ a person under the provisions of this subclause shall take reasonable steps to make changes in the workplace to enhance the employee's capacity to do the job. Changes may involve re-design of job duties, working time arrangements and work organisation in consultation with other workers in the area.

(i) Trial Period

- (i) In order for an adequate assessment of the employee's capacity to be made, an employer may employ a person under the provisions of this subclause for a trial period not exceeding 12 weeks, except that in some cases additional work adjustment time (not exceeding 4 weeks) may be needed.
- (ii) During that trial period the assessment of capacity shall be undertaken and the proposed wage rate for a continuing employment relationship shall be determined in accordance with paragraphs (iv) and (v).
- (iii) The minimum amount payable to the employee during the trial period shall be no less than $61 per week or such greater amount as is agreed from time to time between the parties.
- (iv) Work trials should include induction or training as appropriate to the job being trialed.
- (v) Where the employer and employee wish to establish a continuing employment relationship following the completion of the trial period, a further contract of employment shall be entered into based on the outcome of assessment under paragraph (iii) hereof.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

8. MINIMUM WAGE

(a) Minimum Wage

No employee shall be paid less than the minimum wage.

(b) Amount of Adult Minimum Wage

- (i) The minimum wage for full-time adult employees not covered by Clause 7 - Supported Wage System is $467.40 per week.
- (ii) Adults employed under a supported wage system clause shall continue to be entitled to receive the wage rate determined under that clause. Provided that such employees shall not be paid less than the amount determined by applying the percentage in the supported wage system clause applicable to the employee concerned to the amount of the minimum wage specified in subclause (b)(i).
- (iii) Adults employed as part-time or casual employees shall continue to be entitled to receive the wage rate determined under the casual and part-time clauses of the award. Provided that such employees shall not be paid less than pro rata the minimum wage specified in subclause (b)(i) according to the number of hours worked.

(c) How the Minimum Wage Applies to Juniors

- (i) The wage rates provided for juniors by this award continue to apply unless the amount determined under subclause (c)(ii) is greater.
- (ii) The minimum wage for an employee to whom a junior rate of pay applies is determined by applying the percentage in the junior wage rates clause applicable to the employee concerned to the relevant amount in subclause (b)(i).

(d) Application of Minimum Wage to Certain Employees

Due to existing applicable award wage rates being greater than the relevant proportionate minimum wage, this clause will not apply to employees falling within the scope of the National Training Wage (Tasmanian Private Sector) Award and Trainees undertaking an apprenticeship.

(e) Application of Minimum Wage to Award Rates Calculation

The minimum wage:

- (i) applies to all work in ordinary hours;
- (ii) applies to the calculation of overtime and all other penalty rates, superannuation, payments during sick leave, long service leave and annual leave, and for all other purposes of this award; and

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (iii) is inclusive of the arbitrated safety net adjustment provided by the July 2004 State Wage Case Decision (T.11548 of 2004) and all previous safety net and state wage case adjustments.

PART IV - HOURS OF WORK, TEA MONEY, REST PERIODS, OVERTIME AND SATURDAY, SUNDAY AND HOLIDAY WORK

1. HOURS OF WORK

- (a) The ordinary hours of work shall be an average of 38 per week to be worked on one of the following bases:
 - (i) seven hours thirty-six minutes per day; or
 - (ii) eight hours per day on four days and six hours on one day in each week; or
 - (iii) eight hours per day on nine days and four hours on one day in each fortnight; or
 - (iv) eight hours per day on nineteen days with an accumulated rostered day off; or
 - (v) eight hours per day with an accumulation of rostered day off up to a maximum of five.

The method of implementation shall be determined on a Branch by Branch or a department by department basis, whereby the primary consideration shall be the efficient maximisation of customer service in each establishment. In the event of a dispute in relation to the method of implementation, the provisions of Part VI - Consultation and Dispute Resolution, Clause 1 - Settlement of Disputes, shall be observed.

PROVIDED that establishments which employ fifteen or more full-time employees subject to this award adopt one or both of the options contained in (iv) and (v) herein. In circumstances whereby the implementation of such options can be shown to be contrary to the efficient maximisation of customer service, an establishment may seek discussions with the relevant unions as to alternative methods of implementation. If agreement cannot be reached the matter may be referred to the Tasmanian Industrial Commission for resolution.

For the purposes of this clause 'establishment' shall mean an identifiable outlet or office.

- (b) The ordinary hours shall be worked between the hours of 7.00 am and 6.00 pm Monday to Friday inclusive.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (c) The hours of work prescribed by this clause shall, except for a meal break of not less than 30 minutes nor more than 75 minutes, be continuous on each day. Such meal break shall be taken between the hours of 11.00 am and 3.00 pm.

In circumstances whereby a second meal break is required on any one day such break shall be not less than 30 minutes.

- (d) Except where overtime is worked for a period not exceeding one hour after normal finishing time, no employee shall work for more than 5 hours without a break of not less than 30 minutes for a meal.
- (e) In circumstances whereby a system of 'Rostered Leisure Days' (RLD's) applies, an employer with the agreement of the employee may in an emergency situation substitute the day an employee is to take off for another day.

PROVIDED that such agreement will not be unreasonably withheld.

- (f) Employees other than casual employees shall, notwithstanding anything contained in Section 49 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984, be paid the weekly wage prescribed for a week of 38 hours for each week that he or she is ready, willing and available for work during the hours prescribed herein and, in addition thereto, such overtime or other penalty rates, if any, that may have occurred during the relevant period.

2. TEA MONEY

- (a) An employee who has worked six hours or more during ordinary time and who is required to work overtime for more than one and a half hours shall be either supplied with an adequate meal by the employer or be paid $12.70 meal money.
- (b) Any dispute as to what constitutes an adequate meal shall be referred to and decided by the Tasmanian Industrial Commission.
- (c) The payment prescribed in subclause (a) shall be made on the day on which the overtime is worked, prior to the meal break being taken, or by agreement of the employer and employee on the occasion of the next payment of wages.

3. REST PERIOD

Employees shall be allowed a rest period between the start of work and the midday meal break and a rest period between the resumption of work after midday meal break and the cessation of work for the day. One rest period shall be of 10 minutes duration and one of 5 minutes duration to be taken at such times as may be mutually arranged between the employer and the employees.

4. OVERTIME

- (a) For all work performed outside of the hours prescribed in Part IV - Hours of Work, Tea Money, Rest Periods, Overtime and Saturday, Sunday and Holiday Work, Clause 1 - Hours of Work, payment shall be made at the rate of time and one half for the first 3 hours and double time thereafter.
- (b) An employee who is recalled to work overtime after a period of one hour from the time fixed for ceasing work, whether or not he or she has been notified before ceasing work, shall receive a minimum payment as for 3 hours worked.
- (c) A junior employee under the age of 18 years shall not be required to work overtime unless he or she so desires.
- (d) In computing overtime, each day's work shall stand alone.
- (e) For the purpose of determining the appropriate hourly rate for overtime purposes, the appropriate weekly rates shall be divided by thirty eight.
- (f) For the purpose of determining overtime entitlements of an employee, an employee who works ten minutes or more past the time fixed for ceasing work shall be paid overtime at the appropriate overtime rate for all time worked after the time fixed for ceasing work.

PROVIDED that this subclause shall not be used to obtain unpaid work from employees on a regular basis.

- (g) Where an employee requests and the employer agrees, time off at the penalty equivalent may be allowed in lieu of payment for overtime.

PROVIDED that such time off shall be paid at the ordinary rate.

- (h) Requirement to Work Reasonable Overtime
 - (i) Subject to paragraph (ii) an employer may require an employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates.
 - (ii) An employee may refuse to work overtime in circumstances where the working of such overtime would result in the employee working hours which are unreasonable having regard to:
 - (1) any risk to employee health and safety;
 - (2) the employee's personal circumstances including any family responsibilities;
 - (3) the needs of the workplace or enterprise;

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (4) the notice (if any) given by the employer of the overtime and by the employee of his or her intention to refuse it; and
- (5) any other relevant matter.

5. SATURDAY, SUNDAY AND HOLIDAY WORK

For all work performed on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays with pay shall be made as follows:

(a) Saturdays

Payment for any duty on a Saturday shall be made at the rate of one and one half times the ordinary rate for the first 3 hours and double time thereafter, with a minimum payment as for 3 hours worked.

(b) Sundays

For all time of duty on a Sunday payment shall be made at the rate of double time with a minimum payment as for 4 hours worked.

(c) Holidays with pay

Subject to the exceptions outlined in Part V - Leave and Holidays with Pay, Clause 5 - Holidays with Pay, subclause (a), all time of duty on any of the holidays mentioned in Clause 5 - Holidays with Pay hereof, payment shall be made at the rate of double time and one half with a minimum payment as for four hours worked.

PROVIDED that for employees in wage groups 1, 3 and 4 payment shall be at the rate of double time.

PART V - LEAVE AND HOLIDAYS WITH PAY

1. DEFINITIONS

'Show day' means not more than one local show day observed on an employee's ordinary working day, other than a Saturday or a Sunday, in the city, town or district in which the employee is employed, or such other day which, in the absence of such a local show day, is agreed on by the employee and the employer.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

2. ANNUAL LEAVE

(a) Period of Leave

An employee [other than one engaged as a casual or a part-time employee in receipt of the 20% loading as prescribed in Part II - Employment Relationship and Associated Matters, Clause 3 - Employment Categories, sub-clause (b) - Part-time employees, paragraph (ii)] shall be allowed a period of one hundred and fifty two hours paid annual leave after each 12 months' continuous service.

(b) Broken Leave

Leave allowed under the provisions of subclause (a) shall be given and taken in one continuous period, or if the employer and the employee agree, in one of the following methods:

- (i) in two separate periods, the lesser of which shall be not less than seven consecutive days, i.e. five working days;
- (ii) in any combination, provided one period shall be not less than seven consecutive days, i.e. five working days.

(c) Annual Leave Exclusive of Public Holidays

If any of the holidays prescribed by in Part V - Leave and Holidays with Pay, Clause 5 - Holidays with Pay, hereof fall within an employee's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that employee would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to the period of annual leave one day for each such holiday so occurring.

(d) Payment in Lieu Prohibited

Except as provided in subclause (h) hereof, payment shall not be made or accepted in lieu of annual leave.

(e) Time of Taking Leave

Annual leave shall be given at a time fixed by the employer within a period not exceeding 12 months from the date when the right to annual leave accrued and after not less than 2 weeks' notice to the employee.

(f) Payment for Period of Leave

- (i) All employees before going on leave shall be paid the amount of wages they would have received in respect of the ordinary time which they would have worked had they not been on leave during the relevant period.
- (ii) In addition thereto all employees (including part-time employees engaged to work 20 or more hours per week) shall receive a loading of 17.5% on payments made for annual leave as prescribed in paragraph (i) hereof.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(g) Leave Allowed before Due Date

An employer may allow annual leave to an employee before the right thereto has accrued due, but where it is taken in such a case a further period of annual leave shall not commence to accrue until after expiration of the 12 months in respect of which annual leave has been taken before it accrued.

Where leave has been granted to an employee pursuant to this subclause before the right thereto has accrued due and the employee subsequently leaves or is discharged from the service of the employer before completing the 12 months' continuous service in respect of which the leave was granted, the employer may, for each completed month of the qualifying period of 12 months not served by the employee, deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of the employment one-twelfth of the amount of wage paid on account of the annual leave which amount shall not include any sums paid for any of the holidays prescribed by in Part V - Leave and Holidays with Pay, Clause 5 - Holidays with Pay, hereof.

(h) Proportionate Leave on Termination of Service

- (i) If after one months continuous service in any qualifying 12 monthly period an employee lawfully leaves his or her employment, or the employee's employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the employee, the employee shall be paid at his or her ordinary rate of wage as follows:

12.67 hours for each completed month of continuous service.

The service being in respect of leave which has not been granted.

- (ii) The 17.5% leave loading prescribed in subclause (f)(ii) of this clause shall not apply to proportionate leave on termination of service.

(iii) Calculation of Continuous Service

For the purpose of this clause, service shall be deemed to be continuous notwithstanding any absence from work on account of personal sickness or accident.

In calculating the period of 12 months' continuous service any such absence as aforesaid shall not, except to the extent of not more than 91 days in any 12 monthly period, be taken into account in calculating the period of 12 months of continuous service.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

3. BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

An employee shall on the death of a wife, husband, father, mother, child, stepchild, brother, sister, mother-in-law, father-in-law, stepmother, stepfather, grandfather, grandmother, be entitled upon application being made to, and approved by the employer, to leave up to and including the day of the funeral of such relative and such leave will be without deduction of pay not exceeding the number of ordinary hours worked by the employee in 3 ordinary days provided that no payment shall be made in respect of an employee's rostered days off.

Proof of such death, in the form of a death notice or other written evidence, shall be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the employer, provided furthermore that this clause shall have no operation while the period of entitlement to leave under it coincides with any other period of entitlement to leave.

For the purpose of this clause the words 'wife' and 'husband' shall not include a wife or husband from whom the employee is separated, but shall include a person who lives with the employee as a de facto wife or husband.

4. CARER'S LEAVE

(a) Paid Carer's Leave

- (i) In accordance with this subclause, an employee is entitled to use up to a maximum of five days per annum of any current or accrued sick leave entitlement provided for at in Part V - Leave and Holidays with Pay, Clause 7 - Sick Leave, of the award for absences to provide care and support for either members of their immediate family or household who need their care and support when they are ill.

For the purposes of this clause part-time employees, who are not in receipt of a loading in lieu of entitlements to paid leave as specified in Part II - Employment Relationship and Associated Matters, Clause 3 - Employment Categories, subclause (b) - Part-time employees, paragraph (i), shall be entitled to use up to a maximum of one week of any current or accrued sick leave entitlement per annum.

Where a part-time employee's hours of work are not constant the employee's entitlement to carer's leave shall be based on the average number of weekly hours worked by the employee during the 12 month period immediately preceding the commencement of the relevant period of carer's leave or the employee's actual period of service if less than 12 months.

Leave may be taken for part of a single day.

- (ii) If required the employee must establish, either by production of a medical certificate or statutory declaration, the illness of the person concerned and that the illness is such as to require care by another person.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (iii) The entitlement to use sick leave in accordance with this subclause is subject to the person being either:
 - (1) a member of the employee's immediate family, or
 - (2) a member of the employee's household.

The term 'immediate family' includes:

- (A) spouse (including a former spouse, a de facto spouse and a former de facto spouse) of the employee. A de facto spouse, in relation to a person, means a person of the opposite sex to the first mentioned person who lives with the first mentioned person as the husband or wife of that person on a bona fide domestic basis although not legally married to that person; and
 - (B) child or an adult child (including an adopted child, a step child, a foster child or an ex nuptial child), parent (including foster parent, step parent and legal guardian), grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the employee or spouse of the employee.
- (iv) Where practicable the employee must give the employer notice prior to the absence of the intention to take leave, the name of the person requiring care and the person's relationship to the employee, the reasons for taking such leave and the estimated length of absence. If it is not practicable to give prior notice of absence, the employee shall notify the employer by telephone of such absence at the first opportunity on the day of absence.
 - (v) In normal circumstances an employee must not take carer's leave under this clause where another person has taken leave to care for the same person.

(b) Unpaid Carer's Leave

- (i) An employee may elect, with the consent of the employer, to take unpaid leave for the purpose of providing care to a family or household member who is ill.
- (ii) A part-time employee in receipt of a loading in lieu of entitlements to paid leave as specified in Part II – Employment Relationship and Associated Matters, Clause 3 - Employment Categories, subclause (b) - Part-time employees, paragraph (ii), shall be entitled to take a maximum of one week's unpaid carer's leave per annum.

Where a part-time employee's hours of work are not constant the employee's entitlement to unpaid carer's leave shall be based on the average number of weekly hours worked by the employee during the 12 month period immediately preceding the commencement of the relevant period of carer's leave or the employee's actual period of service if less than 12 months.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(c) Grievance Process

Part VI – Consultation and Dispute Resolution, Clause 1 - Settlement of Disputes, of the award also applies to a dispute about the effect or operation of this clause.

5. HOLIDAYS WITH PAY

(a) All employees other than casual employees and part-time employees shall be allowed the following days as paid holidays:

New Year's Day, Australia Day, Hobart Regatta Day (south of Oatlands), Labour Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, ANZAC Day, Queen's Birthday, Show Day , Recreation Day (where Hobart Regatta Day is not observed), Christmas Day and Boxing Day.

(b) Payment for the holidays mentioned in subclause (a) which are taken and not worked, shall be at the normal rate of pay which would have applied to the employee concerned, when, if it were not for such holiday, he or she had been at work.

(c) Payment to an employee for work performed on holidays mentioned in subclause (a) shall be at the rates prescribed in Part IV - Hours of Work, Tea Money, Rest Periods, Overtime, Saturday, Sunday and Holiday Work - Clause 5 - Saturday, Sunday and Holiday Work, of this award.

6. PARENTAL LEAVE

Subject to the terms of this clause employees are entitled to maternity, paternity and adoption leave and to work part-time in connection with the birth or adoption of a child.

(a) Definitions

For the purposes of this clause:

(i) 'Child' means a child of the employee under the age of one year except for adoption of a child where 'child' means a person under the age of five years who is placed with the employee for the purposes of adoption, other than a child or step-child of the employee or of the parent of the employee or a child who has previously lived continuously with the employee for a period of six month or more.

(ii) 'Continuous service' means service under an unbroken contract of employment and includes:

(1) any period of leave taken in accordance with this clause;

(2) any period of part-time employment worked in accordance with this clause; or

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (3) any period of leave or absence authorised by the employer or by the award.
 - (iii) 'Employee' includes a part-time employee but does not include an employee engaged upon casual work, unless that work has been under a continuous contract of employment of at least 12 months.
 - (iv) 'Female employee' means an employed female who is pregnant or is caring for a child she has borne or a child who has been placed with her for adoption purposes.
 - (v) 'Male employee' means an employed male who is caring for a child borne of his spouse or a child placed with the employee for adoption purposes.
 - (vi) 'Primary care-giver' means a person who assumes the principal role of providing care and attention to a child.
 - (vii) 'Spouse' includes a de facto or a former spouse.
- (b) Entitlement
- (i) After twelve months continuous service, parents are entitled to a combined total of 52 weeks unpaid parental leave on a shared basis in relation to the birth or adoption of their child. For mothers, maternity leave provisions apply and for male employees, paternity leave provisions apply. Adoption leave provisions apply in the case of adoption.
 - (ii) Subject to subclause (c) (vi), parental leave is to be available to only one parent at a time, in a single unbroken period, except that both parents may simultaneously take:
 - (1) for maternity and paternity leave, an unbroken period of up to one week at the time of the birth of the child;
 - (2) for adoption leave, an unbroken period of up to three weeks at the time of placement of the child.
 - (iii) Unless otherwise agreed between the employee and the employer, parental leave shall be granted and taken in accordance with the notice given by the employee as specified below.
- (c) Maternity Leave
- (i) An employee must provide notice to the employer in advance of the expected date of commencement of parental leave. The notice requirements are:
 - (1) of the expected date of confinement (included in a certificate from a registered medical practitioner stating that the employee is pregnant) – at least 10 weeks;

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (2) of the date on which the employee proposes to commence maternity leave and the period of leave to be taken – at least 4 weeks.
- (ii) Where the employee gives notice under (d) (i) the employee must also provide a statutory declaration stating particulars of any period of paternity leave sought or taken by her spouse, and that for the period of maternity leave she will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with her contract of employment.
- (iii) An employee will not be in breach of this clause if failure to give the stipulated notice is occasioned by confinement occurring earlier than the presumed date or other compelling circumstances.
- (iv) An employee may commence maternity leave at any time within six weeks immediately prior to the expected date of birth.
- (v) Where an employee continues to work within the six week period immediately prior to the expected date of birth, or where the employee elects to return to work within six weeks after the birth of the child, an employer may require the employee to provide a medical certificate stating that she is fit to work on her normal duties.
- (vi) Special maternity leave
 - (1) Where the pregnancy of an employee not then on maternity leave terminates after 28 weeks other than by the birth of a living child, then the employee may take unpaid special maternity leave of such periods as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary.
 - (2) Where an employee is suffering from an illness not related to the direct consequences of the confinement, an employee may take any paid sick leave to which she is entitled in lieu of, or in addition to, special maternity leave.
 - (3) Where an employee not then on maternity leave suffers illness related to her pregnancy, she may take any paid sick leave to which she is then entitled and such further unpaid special maternity leave as a registered medical, practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work. The aggregate of paid sick leave, special maternity leave and parental leave, including paternity leave taken by her spouse, may not exceed 52 weeks.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

(vii) Transfer to a safe job

- (1) Where an employee is pregnant and, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue at her present work, the employee will, if the employer deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of maternity leave.
- (2) If the transfer to a safe job is not practicable, the employee may elect, or the employer may require the employee to commence parental leave for such period as is certified necessary by a registered medical practitioner.

(d) Paternity Leave

A male employee will provide to the employer at least 10 weeks prior to each proposed period of paternity leave:

- (i) that a certificate from a registered medical practitioner which names his spouse, states that she is pregnant and the expected date of confinement, or states the date on which the birth took place, and
- (ii) written notification of the proposed dates on which the period of paternity leave will start and finish and
- (iii) a statutory declaration stating:
 - (1) that period of paternity leave will be taken to become the primary care-giver of a child;
 - (2) particulars of any period of maternity leave sought or taken by the mother, and
 - (3) that for the period of paternity leave, the employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with their contract of employment.
- (iv) The employee will not be in breach of this subclause if the failure to give the required period of notice is because of the birth occurring earlier than expected, the death of the mother of the child, or other compelling circumstances.

(e) Adoption leave

- (i) The employee will notify the employer at least ten weeks in advance of the date of commencement of adoption leave and the period of leave to be taken. An employee may commence adoption leave prior to providing such notice, where through circumstances beyond the control of the employee, the adoption of a child takes place earlier.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (ii) Before commencing adoption leave, an employee will provide the employer with a statutory declaration stating:
 - (1) the employee is seeking adoption leave to become the primary care-giver of the child;
 - (2) particulars of any period of adoption leave sought or taken by any other person in respect of that child, and
 - (3) that for the period of adoption leave the employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with their contract of employment.
 - (iii) An employer may require an employee to provide confirmation from the appropriate government authority of the placement.
 - (iv) Where the placement of a child for adoption with an employee does not proceed or continue, the employee will notify the employer immediately and the employer will nominate a time not exceeding four weeks from receipt of notification for the employee's return to work.
 - (v) An employee will not be in breach of this subclause as a consequence of failure to give the stipulated periods of notice if such failure results from a requirement of an adoption agency to accept earlier or later placement of a child, the death of an adoptive parent or other compelling circumstances.
 - (vi) An employee seeking to adopt a child is entitled to unpaid leave for the purpose of attending any compulsory interviews or examinations as are necessary as part of the adoption procedure. The employee and the employer should agree on the length of the unpaid leave. Where agreement cannot be reached, the employee is entitled to take up to two days unpaid leave. Where paid leave is available to the employee, the employer may require the employee to take such leave instead.
- (f) Parental leave and other entitlements
- An employee may in lieu of or in conjunction with parental leave, access any annual leave or long service leave entitlements which they have accrued subject to the total amount of leave not exceeding 52 weeks.
- (g) Part time work
- (i) Entitlement
- With the agreement of the employer:
- (1) An employee may work part-time in one or more periods at any time from the date of birth of the child until its second birthday or, in relation to adoption, from the date of placement of the child until the second anniversary of the placement.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (2) A female employee may work part-time in one or more periods while she is pregnant where part-time employment is, because of the pregnancy, necessary or desirable.

(ii) Effect of Part-time Employment on Continuous Service

Commencement on part-time work under this clause, and return from part-time work to full-time work under this clause, shall not break the continuity of service or employment.

(iii) Pro Rata Entitlements

Subject to the provisions of this subclause and the matters agreed to in accordance with this subclause, part-time employment shall be in accordance with the provisions of this award which shall apply pro rata.

(iv) Transitional Arrangements - Annual Leave

- (1) An employee working part-time under this subclause shall be entitled to any leave accrued in respect of a period of full-time employment, as if the employee was still working full-time, in the position held prior to taking leave.

- (2) (A) A full-time employee shall be entitled to annual leave accrued in respect of a period of part-time employment under this subclause, as if the employee was working part-time in the position held, immediately before resuming full-time work.

- (B) Provided that, by agreement between the employer and the employee, the period over which the leave is taken may be shortened to the extent necessary for the employee to receive pay at the employee's current full-time rate.

(v) Transitional Arrangements - Sick Leave

An employee working part-time under this subclause shall have sick leave entitlements which have accrued under this award (including any entitlements accrued in respect of previous full-time employment) converted into hours. When this entitlement is used, whether as a part-time employee or as a full-time employee, it shall be debited for the ordinary hours that the employee would have worked during the period of absence.

(vi) Part-time Work Agreement

- (1) Before commencing a period of part-time employment under this subclause the employee and the employer shall agree:

- (A) that the employee may work part-time;

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (B) upon the hours to be worked by the employee, the days upon which they will be worked and commencing times for the work;
- (C) upon the classification applying to the work to be performed; and
- (D) upon the period of part-time employment.

(2) The terms of this agreement may be varied by consent.

(3) The terms of this agreement or any variation to it shall be reduced to writing and retained by the employer. A copy of the agreement and any variation to it shall be provided to the employee by the employer.

(4) The terms of this agreement shall apply to the part-time employment.

(vii) Termination of Employment

(1) The employment of a part-time employee under this clause, may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of this award but may not be terminated by the employer because the employee has exercised or proposes to exercise any rights arising under this clause or has enjoyed or proposes to enjoy any benefits arising under this clause.

(2) Any termination entitlements payable to an employee whose employment is terminated while working part-time under this clause, or while working full-time after transferring from part-time work under this clause, shall be calculated by reference to the full-time rate of pay at the time of termination and by regarding all service as a full-time employee as qualifying for a termination entitlement based on the period of full-time employment and all service as a part-time employee on a pro rata basis.

(viii) Extension of Hours of Work

An employer may request, but not require, an employee working part-time under this clause to work outside or in excess of the employee's ordinary hours of duty provided for in accordance with paragraph (vi).

(ix) Nature of Part-time Work

The work to be performed part-time need not be the work performed by the employee in his or her former position but shall be work otherwise performed under this award.

(x) Inconsistent Award Provisions

An employee may work part-time under this clause notwithstanding any other provisions of this award which limits or restricts the circumstances in which part-time employment may be worked or the terms upon which it may be worked including provisions:

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (1) limiting the number of employees who may work part-time;
 - (2) establishing quotas as to the ratio of part-time to full-time employees;
 - (3) prescribing a minimum or maximum number of hours a part-time employee may work; or
 - (4) requiring consultation with, consent of or monitoring by a union;
- and such provisions do not apply to part-time work under this clause.

(h) Replacement Employees

- (i) A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged as a result of an employee proceeding on parental leave or working part time in accordance with this clause.
- (ii) A replacement employee may be employed part-time. The provisions of this subclause in relation to annual leave and sick leave apply to the part-time employment of replacement employees.
- (iii) Before an employer engages a replacement employee under this paragraph, the employer shall inform the person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced. Specifically, the employer must advise that the period of engagement is subject to variation or change in the event that the employee on leave exercises the right to vary the period of leave.
- (iv) Unbroken service as a replacement employee shall be treated as continuous service.
- (v) Nothing in this subclause shall be construed as requiring an employer to engage a replacement employee.

(i) Return to former position after a period of parental leave or part time work

Unless other wise agreed between employee and employer, and consistent with the provisions of this clause

- (i) An employee will give at least four weeks' notice prior of their intention to return to work after a period of parental leave or part time work in accordance with this clause.
- (ii) An employee will be entitled to the position which they held immediately before proceeding on parental leave or part time work. In the case of an employee transferred to a safe job pursuant to subclause (c)(vii) of this clause, the employee will be entitled to return to the position they held immediately before such transfer.

This document is translated from the original order and is not in itself a legal document. No responsibility is taken for any discrepancy that may arise between this document and the order that was printed and published by the Printing Authority of Tasmania.

- (iii) During the period of parental leave an employee shall be entitled to return to work at any time, as agreed between the employer and the employee, provided that the employer may require notice of not more than four weeks.
- (iv) An employee shall be entitled to extend the period of parental leave on one occasion, provided that the employer may require notice of not more than four weeks.

By mutual agreement between the employee and the employer, the period of leave may be further extended.

(j) Redundancy

- (i) If a position held by an employee prior to taking parental leave is likely to be made redundant before the employee returns to work, the employer must advise the employee of the impending redundancy, provide an opportunity for consultation and shall not disadvantage the employee by virtue of the taking of parental leave.
- (ii) Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the employee will be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of their former position.

7. SICK LEAVE

- (a) An employee [other than one engaged as a casual employee, or a part-time employee in receipt of the 20% loading as prescribed in Part II - Employment Relationship and Associated Matters - Clause 3 - Employment Categories, subclause (b) - Part-time employees, who is absent from work on account of personal illness or on account of injury by accident shall be entitled to leave of absence without deduction of pay, subject to the following conditions and limitations:
 - (i) the employee shall not be entitled to such leave of absence for any period in respect of which the employee is entitled to workers' compensation;
 - (ii) the employee shall, as soon as possible, and where practicable within one hour of the commencement of the employee's normal working day, inform the employer of his or her inability to attend for work, and as far as may be practicable, state the nature of the illness or injury and the estimated duration of the absence;
 - (iii) the employee shall prove to the satisfaction of the employer (or in the event of a dispute, the Tasmanian Industrial Commission) that he or she was unable on account of such illness or injury to attend for work on the day or days for which the sick leave is claimed;
 - (iv) the employee shall not be entitled in any year to sick leave in excess of seventy-six hours of ordinary working time.

PROVIDED that during the first three months of employment, sick leave shall accrue on the basis of 6.33 hours for each completed calendar month of service with the employer.

- (b) Sick leave shall accumulate from year to year so that any balance of the period specified in subclause (a)(iv) of this clause which has in any year not been allowed to an employee by an employer as paid sick leave shall be credited to the employee and, subject to the conditions hereinbefore prescribed shall be allowed by that employer in a subsequent year without diminution of the sick leave prescribed in respect of that year.
- (c) An employer shall not be required to make any payment in respect of accumulated sick leave credits to an employee who is discharged or leaves his or her employment, or for any time an employee is absent from work without producing satisfactory evidence of personal illness.

PART VI - CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Subject to the Industrial Relations Act 1984 (as amended) any matter in dispute shall be the subject of negotiations and settlement in the following manner:

Any matter of concern shall in the first instance be discussed between the employer and the employee.

- (a) The matter shall be taken up by an accredited union delegate or union organiser with the employer concerned or by the employer concerned with the accredited union delegate or union organiser, as the case may be.
- (b) If the matter in dispute is not settled at the preceding stage, it may be referred by either the branch secretary (or his or her nominee) or the employer concerned to the Tasmanian Industrial Commission for settlement.
- (c) The decision of the Tasmanian Industrial Commission shall be accepted by the parties as final.
- (d) Where any of the provisions of this clause have been invoked by any party, the parties shall use their good offices and best endeavours to ensure that work continues without limitation during proceedings under this clause.
- (e) Where a bona fide safety issue is involved, the parties shall give immediate priority to resolving the issue. In resolving the issue, the parties shall have regard to recognised safety standards and any relevant legislation.
